

BUSTER BROWN STORE SHOE SALE TO MARK FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Observing the fifth anniversary in business on South Central avenue, the Buster Brown Shoe store will conduct an extensive shoe sale beginning tomorrow morning, Saturday. This event will continue until June 2.

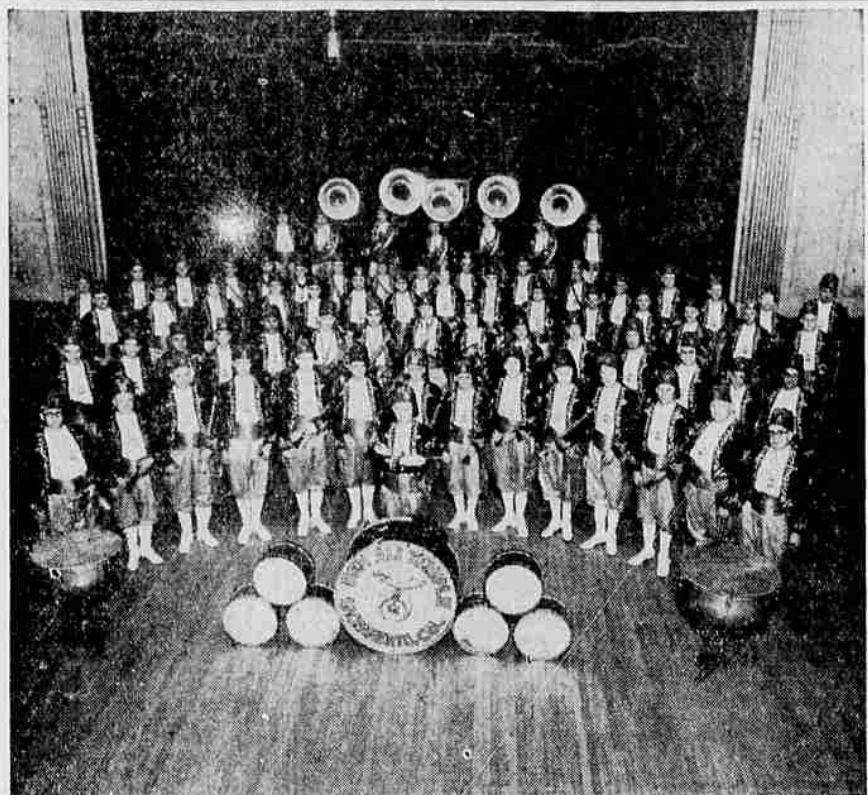

Since January, 1929, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Evans, proprietors of the Buster Brown, have made many improvements including the addition of a large L type display window at the entrance which makes it possible to effectively show advance styles in footwear.

When the Buster Brown establishment was first opened in Medford the length of the store was only 30 feet. Now the floor space has been more than doubled, and 21 chairs make it convenient for customers even during rushes.

Mr. Evans was at one time associated with the shoe department of the Golden Rule store, and from 1922 to 1927 was in the shoe business at Astoria for the same company.

Tom Gifford, who was also formerly connected with the Golden Rule, has been with the local Buster Brown firm for the past four years.

Famous Shrine Band in Medford June 2

Ben All Temple's nationally famous Shrine band of 65 pieces which will be a feature in the big Shrine parade in Medford on Saturday, June 2nd. This parade will be part of the program arranged for the joint ceremonial of the Sacramento temple and Hillah Temple of southern Oregon which will be held in this city on the day preceding the Oregon Diamond Jubilee. Approximately 400 Shrine members from California will come to Medford for this brilliant affair. The band pictured here, under the direction of Robert N. Fenton, will also present a concert in the Medford city park during the afternoon of Saturday, June 2nd.

PACKERS REFUTE SOLON'S CHARGES

WASHINGTON, May 18.—(AP)—The institute of American meat packers replied today to assertions made yesterday by Representative Wearin (D., Iowa), that the packing companies were beating down livestock prices through direct buying.

The institute's response said Wearin showed an "ignorance of the facts involved."

The statement said that figures of the United States department of agriculture show that during the first four months of 1934 packers paid for livestock approximately 73 million dollars more than they paid in the 1933 period.

Firewater Throws Chief Little Wolf In Astoria Court

ASTORIA, Ore., May 18.—(UP)—Legalized firewater went a long way, and Chief Little Wolf, Trinidad, Colo., heavyweight wrestler, tonight faced suspension in Astoria's wrestling ring and was booked for a "match" in justice court May 23 for drunken driving.

Promoter Bud Williamson today said he would seek to bar Chief Little Wolf and his opponent, Ed Heilig of San Francisco, because they assertedly were drunk during their exhibition Tuesday night.

HOSIERY MILLS TOLD RECOVERY ACT VALID

GAINESVILLE, Ga., May 18.—(AP)—The National Recovery Act is constitutional, Federal Judge E. Marvin Underwood ruled here today in denying the request of the Richmond Hosiery Mills of Rossville, Ga., for an injunction to restrain the district attorney from presenting to the grand jury charges that the mill violated the hosiery manufacturers' code.

CAVALRY RECRUITS WILL BE SIGNED UP

Sergeant Jennings D. Lowman, in charge of the local recruiting station at the Armory, will be authorized to accept a limited number of men for the only cavalry regiment in the Ninth corps area and on the Pacific coast, the 11th regiment stationed at the Presidio of Monterey, Cal., he has announced. He will be here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Because there are seldom vacancies in this branch, and many inquiries for enlistment in the cavalry, Sergeant Lowman expects the quota to be filled. Sergeant Lowman had not been advised if there will be any other vacancies when he visits here.

OLD WELTER KING NEAR END OF ROAD

PORTLAND, Ore., May 18.—(UP)—Battered to the ropes by depression and illness, mysterious Billy Smith, twice welterweight champion at the turn of the century, today was revealed as nearing the end of the road.

Smith, 63, will be an object of charity for the first time in his varied and colorful career. The Portland boxing commission today ordered Matchmaker Tex Sakeld to arrange a benefit fight for the old gladiator.

Billy lost his small business due to the depression, and his remaining nest egg from fighting and from operating a once-famous saloon here was wiped out by hospital bills after a long siege with rheumatism.

NORWAY CEMENT BID CHEAPEST FOR DAM

PORTLAND, May 18.—(AP)—A bid of $1.90 a barrel for Norwegian cement, and eight identical bids of $2.02 for domestic Portland cement, were received by the United States army engineers here Thursday when proposals were received for supplies for the power-navigation dam at Bonneville on the Columbia river. The bids will be referred to Washington, D. C., for action.

Other bidders included Beaver Portland Cement Co., Gold Hill; Oregon Portland Cement Co., Oswego; Oregon Portland Cement Co., Lmie, Ore.; and five California companies.

Mr. Heath Named—Fred Heath, Sr., today received word that he had been named representative for the local retail drug code authority for the first congressional district in Oregon.

Rabbit Undergoes Operation On Leg

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 18.—(AP)—Walter J. "Rabbit" Maranville, game little second baseman of the Boston Braves, was reported to be "resting comfortably" today following an operation yesterday afternoon to facilitate knitting of an imperfectly healed broken bone in his left leg.

With his leg in a cast for the second time, he waited with a cheerful smile to learn whether he will be able to resume his 21-year career as a major league ball player.

OLD JACK JOHNSON SAYS BAER WILL TAKE CARNERA

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Staff Correspondent.
HARBROUCK HEIGHTS, N. J., May 18.—(UP)—Old Jack Johnson, the only negro heavyweight champion in ring history, predicted today that Maxie Baer "will pull a Jack Johnson on Primo Carnera and knock the title right off his big, tall head."

"It's Arthur" has the greatest respect for the California challenger's right hand.

And those stories about Baer's harem and his capers in night clubs, Old Jack rolled his eyes and laughed. "Boy—you don't know nothin'." They used to say those things about me all the time. The moah they said, the bettah ah liked it. But Jack Johnson was always in good condition. And believe you me, Mr. Baer will be in mighty fine shape when he crawls through them ropes. He'll pull a Jack Johnson jus' as sure you're sittin' there."

The former champion, bull fighter, instructor, band master and boxing writer emphasized that this is "jus' a preliminary prediction." But he was certain he wouldn't change his mind after watching both men go through their final training before their brawl June 14.

Jack, now 57, appears to weigh more than 260 pounds. He was dressed like a millyun dollars—a mammoth Harlem fashion plate. Light grey suit, flaming red necktie, tan and white sport shoes, amber walking stick, a pastel blue beret.

He had just arrived at his "Airport Inn" from the boxing arena at Teterboro airport where he will start promoting boxing shows next Thursday.

Open Air Dancing At Hot Springs to Start Saturday

Dom Provoet's new open air pavilion at Jackson Hot Springs will open Saturday night, with a special orchestra and opening program in store for southern Oregon dance lovers. This new pavilion is located on the ground where the former closed dance floor was situated, adjoining the swimming pool.

Rodger Kayser's orchestra, direct from the Chicago world's fair, will provide the melody for the opening dance. This 10-piece aggregation, with every one an entertainer of note will offer outstanding music for the initial dance in the new pavilion.

Blood flow through the body tissues may be doubled or cut in half by a change of a few degrees in temperature.
