

COOKING SCHOOL BY HOMEMAKERS' BUREAU PLANNED

"Kitcheneering" will be here for three days, May 29 and 31 and June 1. This information, received officially yesterday from Julia Lee Wright, director of the Safeway Stores Homemakers' bureau, brought gladness to the hearts of local housewives who are familiar with the work being done by the headquarters of the bureau in Oakland to lighten and make more enjoyable the work of women in the home.

"Kitcheneering," which has been defined by Mrs. Wright as "making an art out of the science of cooking," is recognized by home economics experts throughout the nation as the most informative and complete cooking school ever to be presented, and is now in its third year, with the 1934 edition scheduled to be presented here by Miss Estella Calkins, who will act as Mrs. Wright's personal representative following extensive preparations in the famous Bureau Kitchen.

Hundreds of local women are familiar with the work of the Homemakers' bureau either through attendance at "Kitcheneering" courses, through the weekly radio broadcasts throughout the area west of the Mississippi conducted by Mrs. Wright personally, through leaflets and bulletins posted regularly on the Bureau's bulletin boards in Safeway Stores, or through correspondence which the Bureau invites.

Even these women, it is pointed out, may not know that the Homemakers' bureau is one of the largest organizations of its kind in the country, with a permanent staff of 22 trained women whose sole duties involve service to every customer of Safeway Stores, and that hundreds of thousands of letters asking information on every type of women's household problems are answered authoritatively each year by Bureau experts.

One of the most monumental tasks ever accomplished by the Bureau was the publication, last year, of one of the most comprehensive cook books ever offered to housewives. This book, "Recipes You'll Enjoy," was personally edited by Julia Lee Wright, and thousands of copies were sold throughout the nation, exciting highest praise alike from users and home economics experts.

Constant contact with leading home economists throughout the country is maintained by this Safeway organization not only through the regular interchange of the latest ideas, but through personal visitations. Mrs. Wright having made two recent nationwide trips in search of the newest homemaking developments for the sole benefit of Safeway customers. On such trips, Mrs. Wright contacts outstanding economists in the offices of manufacturers and home publications as well as other prominent authorities in the field of domestic science.

With such a strong staff to assist her, and with the many advantages placed at her disposal, experts agree that Mrs. Wright might well be expected to work wonders. Experts also agree that she has done so. And local housewives who are so fortunate as to be able to attend the three-day course in "Kitcheneering" on May 29 and 31 and June 1 at the Rialto theatre are expected to agree with them.

Officials in charge of "Kitcheneering" locally announce that doors will open each day promptly at one o'clock, and that Miss Calkins will begin each day's course at 2 o'clock.

Advertisements—Klamath—H. L. Bromley, publicity director for the California Oregon Power company and Mountain States Power company, put on several motion picture programs for local organizations including the Lions club, Tuesday noon, the Phase Relations club and American Legion and auxiliary, Tuesday night, and the Active club Wednesday noon. Bromley spoke highly of the Oregon Diamond Jubilee to be held in Medford and Jacksonville June 3 to 9, and in behalf of the Jubilee committee extended a cordial invitation to everyone in Klamath county to be present during this big state celebration—Klamath Herald.

and Ashland, Central Point, and precincts on the floor of the valley. Taylor and Rapp showed their greatest strength in the outlying districts.

The commissioner vote is:
 Neilson 2,411
 Rapp 1,078
 Taylor 784

Dunn Far Ahead
 State Senator George W. Dunn of Ashland led Victor Bursell of Central Point by 1,427 votes. The veteran legislator piled up a substantial lead in this city and Ashland, and carried most of the country precincts.

The incomplete county was:
 Dunn 2,812
 Bursell 1,385

Dunne Carries County
 For state offices, Joe E. Dunne, is an evident winner in this county for governorship. Rufus C. Holman who boasted he would receive 6,000 Banks-Pell votes, has 605 on the face of incomplete returns. Holman was given the "Good Government Congress" endorsement. General McClellan was second.

The vote for governor:
 Dunne 1,924
 McClellan 855
 Holman 805
 Loneragan 418
 Brown 223

For other state office incomplete results show:
 Congress:
 Mott 3,471
 Devera 641

Secretary of state:
 Snell 2,197
 Abrams 1,699
 Gram 2,412
 Anderson 1,233

Fifteen precincts are missing from the county for republican offices, in the primary, and 23 from the democratic offices. All are fairly small precincts that cannot materially change the results.

The missing precincts are Gold Hill, Applegate, Antioch, Brownboro, Butte Falls, Cilmax, Deter, Derby, Poota Creek, Sterling, Trail, Wimer, and Willow Springs. Count for democratic candidates are missing from the above, and both Central Point precincts, Mount, Pinehurst, Rogue River, East Talent, Trail, and Lake Creek.

Fall to Leave Trilly
 Failure of election boards to leave the tally sheets outside the sealed packages as instructed, is responsible for the absent figures. A number of the missing precincts are located on the outlying fringes of the county. Approximately 40 per cent of the registered vote journeyed to the polls—higher than the average primary election in this county.

A total of 4,870 votes were cast for circuit judge in this county, and

BUDDY POPPIES METHOD OF V. F. W. AIDING DISABLED

Judge H. D. Norton received the largest vote, 3,582.

Not a candidate endorsed by the resurrected "Good Government Congress" received a vote of any proportions, and all were decisively defeated. A stinging rebuke was administered to Feblism. Every incumbent seeking reelection has apparently been nominated by safe majorities, or decisively.

Constable Race Close
 The democratic party, in its race for constable for the Medford district, furnished the closest contest with Frank Anderson leading Howard McKinney by 40 votes.

The race for sheriff on the democratic ticket, also was sufficiently close to cause interest, for most of Saturday, Brown now having a lead of 278.

Joe E. Dunne had a runaway in the republican race for governor, with General McClellan second, and trailing 1000 votes. Holman, Loneragan, and Brown made a poor showing in the order named. Dunne's strength in this county developed in the last five days before the vote.

"Please buy a Buddy Poppy."
 This city's response to that appeal next Friday and Saturday, May 25th and 26th, will indicate the depth of its respect and gratitude to those soldiers, sailors and marines whose memory will be honored on Memorial day, May 30th, according to officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars post here.

The thirteenth annual Buddy Poppy sale, to be conducted simultaneously here and in approximately three thousand other cities of the United States, is the traditional means followed by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States for obtaining funds for their disabled comrades, and for the orphaned children of America's war dead.

Local arrangements for this city's participation in the national observance are complete. The local sale is being sponsored, as usual, by Crater Lake post, No. 1539, V. F. W., of which I. D. Canfield is commander.

"The Buddy Poppy distribution, as you all know, is the V. F. W.'s one-year endeavor to obtain funds for its local, state and national relief and welfare work. This year we are faced with an almost indescribable condition of need. The Economy act of last March which completely eliminated more than half a million veterans from the compensation rolls of the federal government, has been tragically felt here and in every other community of the United States," said Mr. Canfield.

Pomp and circumstance will mark the ceremony at the Medford Elks club next Thursday night, May 24, when 26 candidates will seek membership and go through the ordaining rites of initiation.

Seventeen new members who have joined the Medford lodge through demit from other lodges will be introduced during the evening's performance, and the entertainment which will be afforded them points to run high.

The climax of the affair will be seen in the sacred rituals of the Ancient and Honorable Order of Buckhounds, which will be presented after the candidates are initiated. The rites of the Buckhounds will be aided over the rough spots by the grand exalted ruler, Ike Dunford, and a solemn time will be had by all.

The list of candidates which will suffer the initiation is as follows:
 Gene Thomas, Eric Westergren, Harry E. Foster, Ivan W. Harrington, Lee R. Allen, Ray W. Johnson, Mack Lillard, Chas. D. Farmer, Jack Bickler, Alfred E. Stoehr, Dr. J. S. Johnson, Walter L. White, Roland A. Smith, Clifford G. Cave, Fred W. Greene, Allison Moulton, O. H. Bengtson, Edwin V. Anderson, Dr. Dwight H. Pindley, N. A. Mead, J. Orbin Cooksey, Glen W. Keith, Melvin Wright, Wm. M. McAllister, T. H. Robinson, Gene Thorndike.

New members to be introduced who have joined by demit from other lodges are:
 Lloyd G. Northland, Frank DeSouza, I. R. Foy, J. D. Mead, K. W. Kendrick, Aubrey Z. Dean, H. E. Armstrong, V. E. Pope, Frank H. Reum, Leland Clark, P. O. Denson, Walter W. Abbey, Oliver L. Overmeyer, H. D. Byington, Herman Burgoyn, Jas. S. Pardee, Dr. W. C. Thompson.

A feed will be held after the initiation ceremonies.

MONARCH Fuel-Electric A Modern Combination Range and Kitchen Heater

Crater Lake post, Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold a big rally at their next meeting, Monday evening, at 8 o'clock at the Medford Armory. Any eligible person wishing to join and those who have already signed membership cards are asked to be there for initiation. As this is the last meeting night before the annual state encampment takes place in Medford, June 3rd to 6th, convention plans will be completed.

Any member in arrears in dues is especially invited, as a plan has been worked out whereby they may be placed in good standing. As Medford post is to be host to comrades throughout the state and wishes to show what Medford hospitality is, it is imperative that every member be present. A "Dutch Lunch" with all the trimmings will be served following the meeting.

Caps for Jubilee—The official headgear adopted by the committee for the Oregon Diamond Jubilee, is being seen more often upon the streets, and local people are urged to obtain the caps at the jubilee headquarters. As there is a limited supply, those interested are asked to get theirs immediately.

All kinds of caps, blanks for sale, for rent, no hunting, no trespassing and other cards for sale at Commercial Printing Dept. of Mail Tribune.

Lucian Clement and Jeanne Quisenberry are to take the leading roles in this year's senior class play "Take My Advice," to be presented in the high school auditorium Wednesday.

Mr. Clement portrays Bob Mannion who is the editor of the Bureka News, in whose office the play is set. Bob Mannion is a man who is a splendid type of young American manhood, he is handsome, conscientious, and has a well defined sense of humor.

Lucian Clement has been chosen for this part because he has had a great deal of experience in dramatics during the time he has attended Medford high school. Besides being a member of the Dramatic club and appearing in their plays he has taken part in several of the Latin club's productions. He has been business manager of the Associated Student Body for the past two years and has made a success in the handling of this office.

The heroine, Miss Jeanne Quisenberry, portrays Peggy Acton, a young and beautiful girl whose manners are faultless. Usually she is in a cheerful mood, but when the occasion demands she is capable of intense feeling, and of fighting for her rights.

Miss Quisenberry has had an unusually active career in Medford high and has proven herself a capable and conscientious worker in all of her undertakings. In her junior year she was a candidate for carnival queen. She has been a member of the Dramatic club for but a short time but during the time she has been she has shown herself to be a good actor.

In the play Miss Quisenberry in the role of Peggy Acton puts a great deal of realism into the plot and in the end is the main point of interest. The play does have a delicate surprise ending to it in which Peggy Acton figures most.

The cast has been rehearsing every day and the play promises to be one of the best ever put on by a Medford senior class.

Mr. Meeker Goes Home—C. A. Meeker, local merchant, who has been ill for a number of weeks, left the Community hospital last night for his home, having recovered from a major operation, undergone some time ago. His condition last night was reported as much improved.

Accident Reported—An auto accident was reported at the city police station yesterday morning in which five passengers and the driver, Leona Marques, received cuts and bruises. The Marqueses car, while traveling north on South Riverside, was struck in the left front wheel and thrown into a telephone pole, by a truck driven by Ben Dietrich, 939 North Central, as he was backing out of the Firestone Service station. The injured were Frank Marques, 35; Leona Marques, 28, driver; Walter Marques, 8; Robert Marques, 10; Lucile Marques, 5, and J. Wattenburg, 35, all of whom were treated at the Sacred Heart hospital.
