

Revamp Fair's Enchanted Island

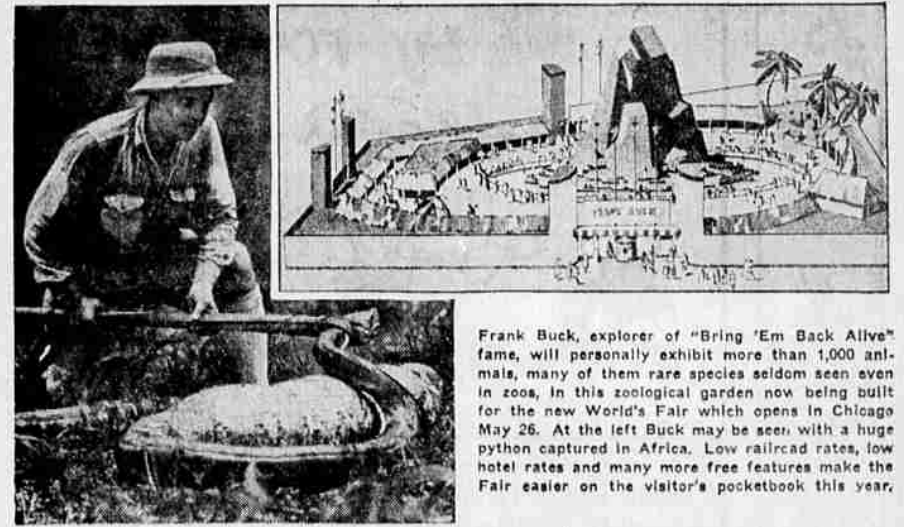

Forty brand-new features will greet children to the Enchanted Island when the new World's Fair opens in Chicago May 26. Chicago Junior League girls were helping with the repainting when this photo was taken. The fairyland is free to children. Many free features in the Fair, lower transportation costs and low hotel rates make a visit to Junior League girls were helping with the repainting when this photo was taken.

SOVIET FLIERS RESCUE REFUGEES FROM ICEPACK

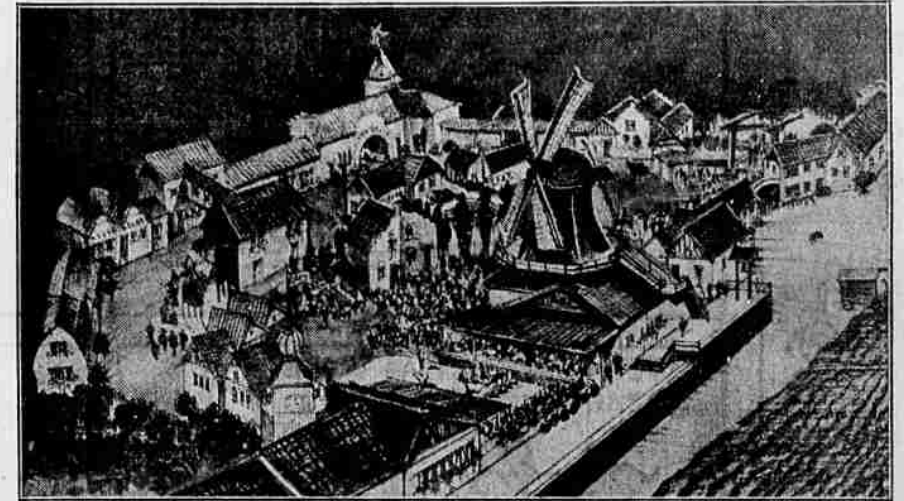

In a swift sortie over the Arctic, three Russian aviators saved 81 persons stranded on the icepack off the northern coast of Siberia. They were aboard the Cheliuskin when it was crushed by the ice and sank last February. Upper: standing at left, the three aviators (left to right), M. T. Sletneff, Prof. George Ushakoff and F. A. Levansky at Fairbanks, Alaska, before the takeoff. Lower: two of the American-built airplanes used in the work. Others have been rescued. (Associated Press Photos)

Frank Buck's Wild Animal Show in New Fair

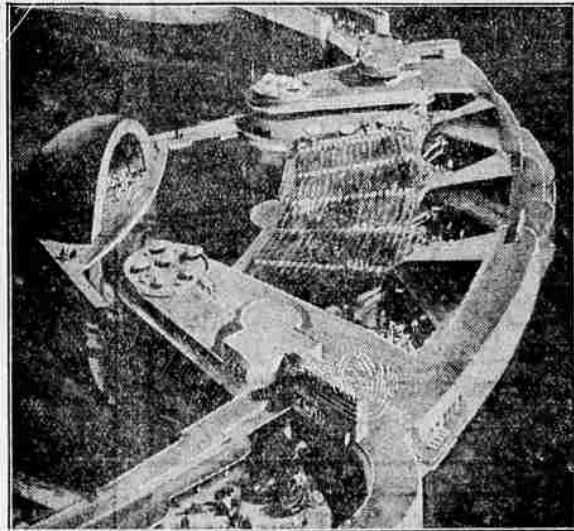

Frank Buck, explorer of "Bring 'Em Back Alive" fame, will personally exhibit more than 1,000 animals, many of them rare species seldom seen even in zoos, in this zoological garden now being built for the new World's Fair which opens in Chicago May 26. At the left Buck may be seen with a huge python captured in Africa. Low railroad rates, low hotel rates and many more free features make the Fair easier on the visitor's pocketbook this year.

Land of Wooden Shoes in New World's Fair

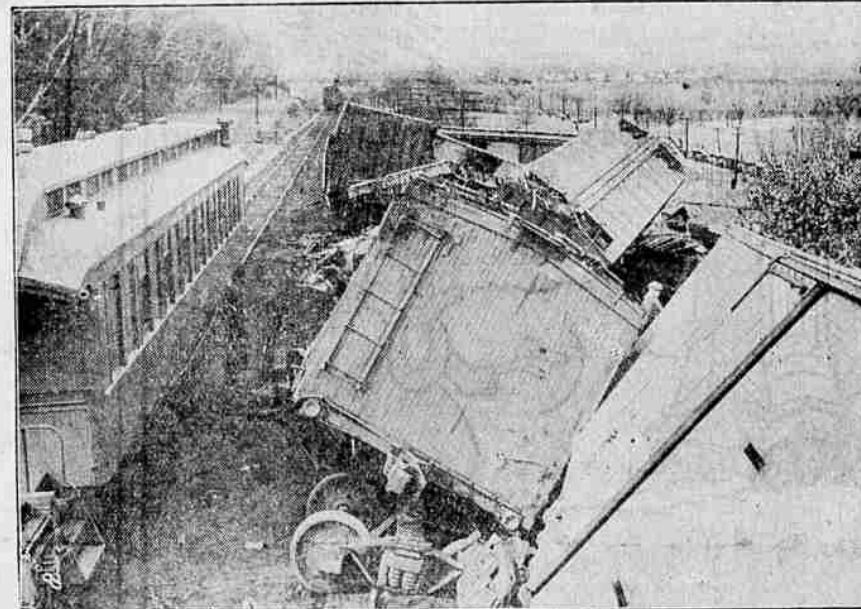

Quaint cottages, a giant windmill, dikes and natives in bright costumes and wooden shoes will greet the visitor to this Dutch village at the new World's Fair which opens in Chicago May 26. Fifteen "foreign villages" offer the visitor the unique opportunity of "touring the world" in a single day. Lower Fair has 84 miles of free industrial railroad rates, low-rate accommodations and scientific exhibits.

For Free Concerts at New Fair

In this great lagoon amphitheater, Swift and Company will present the Chicago Symphony orchestra in ten weeks of free daily concerts starting July 1. In the new World's Fair, this is but one of many new free features which will make the visitor's dollar buy more this summer. The Fair opens in Chicago May 26.

FLOOD SENDS TRAIN INTO DITCH; THREE KILLED

Flood waters that swept over a large area of western Wisconsin and southeast Minnesota took nine lives and caused heavy property losses. A washout sent this train into a ditch near Hudson, Wis., causing the pile-up shown and killing three trainmen. (Associated Press Photo)

OWNER-MANAGER HAS HANDS FULL

Versatile Earl McNeely, owner-president-manager of the Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast League, gives a working illustration of how he keeps up with his many duties. In addition to the three jobs mentioned, McNeely, the youngest ball magnate on the coast, expects to take a turn as an outfielder this season.
