Misses Foss and Hohman Announce Engagement News

Betrothal announcements, which have been on the increase in local society since the advancement of spring came in two yesterday when Mrs. Elsworth Schuler entertained with a lovely luncheon at her home on East Main street.

Ribbons, extending to each place from the dainty corsages which formed a temporary centerpiece for the table, brought news to the guests of the engagement of Miss E. Marie Foss to Henry Hartman of Corvallis, and of Miss Naomi Hohman to Frank J. Van Dyke of Ashland and Medford.

The color scheme of pink and white, beautifully expressed at luncheon table and in the decoration of the rooms, was reflected in the afternoon gowns of pink organdy, worn by the brides-elect.

Following luncheon, bridge was enjoyed, with the following guests invited for the afternoon: Misses Elbow Mae Wilson, Laura Drury, Gertrude Watling, Louise Hollenback, Helen Norris, Marabel Braden of Lebanon, Dorothy MacLean, Harriet Baldwin, Frederica Brommer, Barbara Drury, Mrs. Shelby Tuttle, Mrs. Maurine Duncan, Mrs. John F. Spaulding, Mrs. Louise Salade Jr., Mrs. K. G. Denman, Mrs. Burdette Dodge, Mrs. Hobart Price, Mrs. Wendell Van Loan, of Eugene and the honorees, Misses Foss and Hohman.

Miss Foss, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew O. Foss of Marshfield, is the principal at the Valley school in this city, and Miss Hohman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hohman of Portland, is a member of the teaching staff at the same school. Both are graduates of the University of Oregon.

Mr. Hartman, who comes to this city frequently in the interests of the fruit industry, is horticulturist in the department of pomology at Oregon State college.

Mr. Van Dyke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Dyke of this city, is city attorney of Ashland.

Williams, members of the Good Times committee, of which Mrs. Deuel is chairman, assisted in entertaining. Miss Fay Woolsey was a guest of the club.

Job's Daughters Announce Banquet

A father, mother and daughter banquet will be sponsored by Job's Daughters Monday evening at the Masonic hall, and extensive plans for the affair were nearing completion Saturday, under the chairmanship of Miss Betty Thordike.

Initiatory work will be put on by the chapter members for the benefit of their parents. An interesting program has also been prepared for the evening.

Anyone wishing further information is asked to telephone Mrs. H. F. Nordwick, 726-L.

Chas. Voorhies' Dinner Honorees

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Voorhies, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reames recently entertained a dinner. Covers were placed for ten at the pleasant affair.

The Voorhies', who are recent additions to the young married set here, have been the inspiration of considerable entertaining since returning from their honeymoon.

The club voted to express to Miss Woolsey, the city librarian, the deep appreciation of her untiring and faithful efforts in assisting in so many ways.

Date of the annual picnic, at which time the husbands of the club members will be guests, will be announced later.

Miss Heckman plans to sail on the President Wilson on June 20 from Honolulu, arriving in San Francisco June 25. She will continue to Medford June 27.

Mothers' Day Program Enjoyed at Academy

"Come away from your care and worries, mother, back to the years when youth and activity crowned your girlhood days." Thus spoke by boys and girls of St. Mary's Academy to their assembled mothers in the academy auditorium Friday night, when they entertained with a Mothers' day program.

The opening numbers, expressing dignity and love, were:

Address of Welcome—Warren Lofter.

Dedication of Mothers to Our Lady—Virginia Ginet.

Songs, "Mother" and "Dear Little Mother of Mine"—High school boys.

Tableau, "Mrs. Whistler"—Emma Phillips.

Poem, "Mothers of the World"—Mary Dallaire.

Julius Caesar, adapted by the first year: Caesar, Chester Logan; Antony, John Applegate; Brutus, Verna Lofter; Marullus, Betty Grace Robbins; Flavius, Josephine Hunter; Titanius, Emma Jean Houston; Caius, Maiale Shibley.

Poem, "My Gift to Mother"—Geraldine Wilkinson.

The closing "Fond Memories, Mother," depicted mother in her youth. The old-fashioned gowns and the dancing of the Virginia reel provided the mothers much amusement. Other numbers included the following characterizations:

Mother as a sweet girl graduate, Grace Lou Ivanhoe; Mother serving tea, Jean Barnum; Mother at the ball, Gertrude Louise; Out for the afternoon, Catherine Oliver; At the races, Lucille Estes; With friends, Jeanne Hancock; First met father, Jene Jensen; Receiving father at home, Cecil Blaylock.

"Mother's Wedding" was then presented by the following:

Ring bearer, Kathleen Jay; flower girl, Margorie Dugan; maid of honor, Mary Elizabeth Reddy; best man, Jack Marshall; ushers, Bernard Corum, Norman Moty, Frederick Kempke, Joe Denman; the bride, Elsie Oliver; the groom, Chester Logan.

After the bride's bouquet was thrown out into the audience, the children escorted their mothers to the dining room where refreshments were served. As a close, the boys invited their mothers to join them in a Virginia reel. A song to mother by the boys and one by the girls preceded the departure of the youthful escorts with their happy guests of the evening.

Royal Neighbors Have Social Session

Boys' Neighbors met Thursday evening in Knights of Pythias hall for their regular bi-monthly social session. New members were taken in, and final details arranged for the district convention to be held at Ashland the first week in June, exact date to be announced later. A NEW STERLING PATTERN BY TOWLE

IT'S HERE! THE Airflow DE SOTO FOR YOU TO SEE AND RIDE IN

Come and see America's most talked-about Car... and take your first "Floating Ride"

THE AIRFLOW De Soto isn't just a new model. It's a new way to travel... a complete departure from the old "horseless carriage" tradition that has lasted for more than thirty years.

Maybe you're not thinking of buying a new car. Never mind that. Go and see the new AIRFLOW De Soto just as you would make a trip to the airport... because it's bound to thrill you.

The design of the AIRFLOW De Soto automatically solves the problem of bumpy "back axle" rides. The engine is moved forward... passengers too. Everyone rides comfortably "amidships"... between the axles.

Take your family or friends to see it. Note how easily three can ride in front. Try the new kind of modern seats, cradled in gleaming chromium.

There are dozens of other unique features. See them all. There's a De Soto showroom near you.

MODELS: 4-Door 6-Passenger Sedan; the 4-Door 6-Passenger Town Sedan; the 3-Door 6-Passenger Brougham; the 3-Passenger Coupe with enclosed Rumble Seats. You get Duplate Safety Plate Glass throughout at low extra cost.
