'Havana Widows'

For good natured, rough and tumble, catch-as-catch-can comedy, "Havana Widows," which begins at the Studio today, is said to be the screen's undisputed champion. Riotously funny and startling situations are created by Joan Blondell and Glenda Farrell.

Fredric March In Craterian Hit

Fredric March, who with his double role in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" won the Academy Award two years ago, once again comes to the front with a striking characterization in "Death Takes a Holiday," opening a three day engagement at the Craterian Theatre today.

MASK

The other day one of our country friends told us "From now on when the kiddies go to the store I'll have them 'mask' for Fluhrer's Spun Bread. It makes such wonderful toast."

Clara Bow with what is reported as the perfect vehicle. Miss Bow heads a cast that includes a number of Hollywood's most attractive personalities. Preston Foster one of the newer lights on the Fox roster has the leading masculine role opposite her. Richard Cromwell the youngster who is fast achieving stardom is seen in the principal romantic role.

Clara Dances In "Hoopla" at Roxy

Clara Bow comes to the Roxy theatre today in "Hoopla." The background of the story is a country carnival, and it presents Miss Bow with a new type of environment. Against its everchanging nature, she offers what has been heralded as her most important role on the screen. She plays the part of a carnival dancer who sets out to win the love of a young man who is removed from carnival life. She starts on her venture as the result of a wager but finds herself enmeshed in a romance that is entirely strange to her. It has a wholesomeness and a sincerity with which she is wholly unfamiliar. It is the method in which this experienced woman works out her life to encompass a simple love that provides

In Rialto Film

Hilarious comedy situations with snappy, rollicking dialogue punctuate James Cagney's latest, "Jimmy, the Gent," playing today and tomorrow at the Rialto Theatre.

The story deals in a highly humorous vein with the racket of digging up lost heirs to cash in on vast inheritances for which there are no claimants. Rival "heir chasers," Cagney and Alan Dinehart are not above bribing hospitals and morgues for information, nor coaching phony heirs to give perjured evidence. It is a revelation in trying to get something for nothing by hook or crook, mostly the latter, but the subject has been treated in a light, touch-and-go manner that makes it acerbically funny throughout.

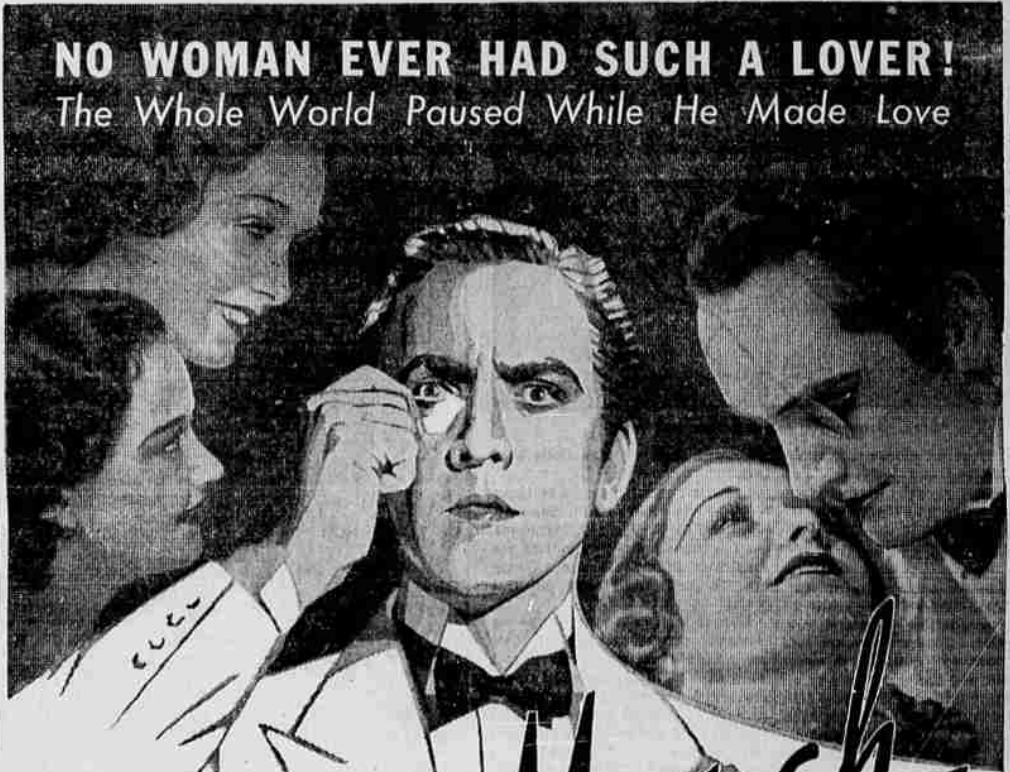

Others in the cast are Bette Davis, Alice White and Allen Jenkins. For Garden Rowing Tel. 915-J.

STARTING TODAY for THREE DAYS!

See It From the Beginning!

"Death Takes a Holiday" is creative in effect. The whole story is beautifully done; the acting is superior in quality; the presentation of its theme unusual and unique. There is new romance suited for everybody, healing for wounded hearts, and power to drive away fear. But, it should be seen from the very beginning to be thoroughly enjoyed, and to receive its full benefits.

NO WOMAN EVER HAD SUCH A LOVER! The Whole World Paused While He Made Love

Fredric March

DEATH TAKES A HOLIDAY

Men shrank from him . . . trembling at the knowledge of his power! Women adored him . . . fascinated by his magnetic charm!

Ships burn! Planes crash! Buildings topple! Cars are wrecked! But no one can die while the mysterious Prince Sirki tastes the pleasures of mortal life and love!

EVELYN VENABLE SIR GUY STANDING KENT TAYLOR

Cited by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts for his performance of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde", Fredric March makes his second bid for this honor with his role in "Death Takes a Holiday".

NOTE: Owing to the audacious theme of this picture we earnestly suggest you see it from the beginning. Features today at 2:00, 3:45, 7:45, 9:30.
