Truck Drivers, Police Engage in Wild Battle. MINNEAPOLIS, May 19—(AP)—Twenty farmers were injured in disorders in the market district today as attempts were made to move trucks with armed convoys after striking truck drivers had tied up commercial truck transportation since Tuesday night. Serious trouble began when a large truck pulled up in front of the fruit company offices. Pickets rushed it as soon as it halted, but police clubs drove them back temporarily. The pickets then hurled rocks and bits of loose paving at the strikers, and advanced again. Once more the strikers were injured. Their comrades carried them off. A patrol wagon and several squad cars arrived at the market as reinforcements. The crowd of strikers and bystanders milled about shouting at police. Nearly 80 strikers swooped down on the trucks with rocks and clubs. Twelve police cars were rushed to the scene and the fight was on. Strikers were clubbed and returned the police fire with clubs. Ambulances were rushed to the scene. The first battle resulted in victory for the police as two trucks moved out, under police escort to make their produce deliveries. A second riot broke out at the O. Thomas Stores headquarters, when from 10 to 15 strikers, armed with an army of stoned the Thomas garage. They blocked two trucks, breaking the windshields and cab windows and inflicting severe lacerations on the two truck drivers. A second riot broke out at the O. JOBS OPENING UP ON RELIEF WORK Several projects for Jackson county have been approved during the past week, according to the Jackson county relief commission, which will put a number of persons now on the relief rolls to work. There will be an assistant librarian employed at the Ashland library, and a number of men are to start work tomorrow on laying 1200 feet of 8-inch pipe for the Ashland sewage system. Repairs are also to be made for the athletic field in Ashland. The Southern Oregon Normal school building and grounds will be fixed up as part of the program, and two seamstresses will instruct women in sewing for the Welfare exchange, the announcement shows. DISABLED VETERANS BARN DANCE will be held at 35 So. Riverside Wednesday, 22nd. Come have a good time, where the crowd goes.

ANNE WHITEAKER JUBILEE MOTHER Selected on merits of being one of the most outstanding pioneer women in the state, Anne Whiteaker, well-known resident of Eugene, Ore., has accepted the invitation to be Queen Mother of Oregon's Diamond Jubilee celebration in Medford and Jacksonville next June 3 to 9, observing 75 years of statehood. The Queen Mother is the daughter of the first governor of Oregon, John Whiteaker, who served from 1850 to 1862, and is well known throughout the state. She has been active for many years in Eugene civic affairs. She will be the center of interest Monday, June 4, set aside for the coronation of the Queen Mother at the county fair grounds. An impressive program is being prepared for this important event of the week, including a children's pageant with a cast of over 400 characters. Rehearsals have been under way for several weeks. Display at Church—The quilt display to be conducted in Jacksonville during the Oregon Diamond Jubilee, will be held in the Presbyterian church instead of at the old courthouse as previously announced.
