

P. E. O. DELEGATES MAKE PILGRIMAGE TO CRATER LAKE

Husbands' Group Arranges Trip for State Convention Visitors — Banquet Tonight at Hotel Medford

Following the session this morning at the Presbyterian church of the P. E. O. Sisterhood state convention, during which time they heard the supreme president, Miss Mabel D.

Mrs. E. A. Moore of Medford, Program Chairman for Tonight's Banquet

Dowd of Aurora, Ill., speak, the sisterhood, as guests of the B. I. L. A., journeyed to Crater Lake, and had luncheon at the Rogue Elk hotel.

Crawford O. Lemmon of the B. I. L. group, husbands of P. E. O. members, was chairman of the committee in charge of today's trip.

This evening at seven o'clock, the sisterhood will have a banquet at the Hotel Medford, at which time Mrs. Amy O. Welch of Portland, state president, will give the address of the evening.

Mrs. Edgar Allen Moore of the Medford chapter, A. A., will be program chairman for the banquet.

At this morning's meeting, Miss Dowd spoke on the educational problems of the sisterhood, and Mrs. Dorothy Seymour of Forest Grove also spoke.

A symposium on P. E. O. ideals was given, in charge of Mrs. McFadden of chapter AN, Portland.

Monday evening Mrs. H. E. Marsh presided at the organ, and Miss Louise Woodruff of Ashland sang a solo at the meeting.

A short memorial service was given for a member who was connected with the work in the welfare trust fund, and Mrs. Ferris Kirkpatrick of Portland sang a solo.

Mrs. Bertha Denton of Ashland played a flute solo.

Mrs. Jessie Dodge of Ashland, who was in charge of the evening meeting spoke on the education fund as related to Oregon, and Mrs. Earl Lee of Corvallis gave a resume of the education of women.

The welfare trust fund projects were spoken of by Mrs. Myrtle Gill of Lenanon.

Opened by President On a platform banked solidly with beautiful flowers arranged by Mrs. L. A. Mentzer, chairman of decorations, Mrs. Arthur E. Welch of Portland, state president, opened the twenty-third annual convention in the Presbyterian church yesterday.

As honor guests and past state presidents and state officers took their places on the platform and were introduced by Mrs. Welch, they were presented with great baskets of lovely blossoms, the gifts of chapter friends and the hostess chapter. A huge bouquet was presented the convention by the Medford Elks, and another by Everett Faber, manager of Marsh's store. Mayor E. M. Wilson in welcoming the convention said he had concluded that the secret meaning of the letters, P. E. O., was "Feminists Everywhere Objectionable."

Mrs. J. F. Fliegel, president of the hostess chapter, in her welcome said that plans for the convention were started eleven years ago. She presented the hostess chapter members. Music Enjoyed

During the Monday evening session Miss Louise Woodruff of Ashland gave two soprano numbers accompanied by Miss Harriet Baldwin, Medford, and a flute obligato by Mrs. Bertha Denton, Ashland.

Mrs. Jesse E. Dodge of Ashland, vice-president, stated that the sisterhood has an educational loan fund of $751,186.00 and 4281 American girls have been assisted through this fund, yet only one-third of the applications can be granted. The type of girls sponsored for a P. E. O. loan is carefully selected, and is limited to juniors and seniors alone, who must be outstanding in ability, character and ambition.

Seventy-nine Oregon girls have been assisted through this fund.

The sisterhood has a growing welfare and trust fund for old age insurance of members and California maintains a P. E. O. home at Alhambra. The idea of this fund originated in Colorado in 1921. It is administered in Oregon by a board of three, Mrs. Myrtle Gill, Lebanon, Mrs. Maude Sestak, Portland, and Mrs. Zulu Brown, Eugene; Mrs. Ora Harkness Buhl, Portland, is incoming member.

Mrs. Kate Leslie Thom, Portland, gave three readings, and Ferris Kirkpatrick, Lebanon, sang, accompanied by Miss Baldwin and Mrs. Marsh.

Messages of sympathy from the P. E. O. convention were sent Monday to Dr. Harriet Lawrence of Portland who was injured in an automobile accident at Albany, Monday, as she was enroute to the convention, and to Mrs. Eva MacDonald of Medford, who is ill.

The convention will continue in session tomorrow, with the regular meetings to be held in the Presbyterian church.

DISRUPTION OF STATE HIGHWAY PLANS FEARED

tribution of the relief construction projects we have planned for the coming year," said Baldoek. "It would bring emergency relief operations on Oregon roads, which are now giving work to approximately 5,000 men, practically to a standstill after July 1."

"All new highway construction now under way on Oregon highways is being paid for out of federal funds. Ninety per cent of this work will be completed by July 1. No state funds are available with which to continue the program and without a sizeable federal appropriation we will have to close down on all major highway improvement jobs."

Baldoek pointed out that reduction of the federal appropriation to $100,000,000 for the coming year would reduce Oregon share to about $1,500,000 to be dispensed on a basis of $750,000 on primary highways, $225,000 on secondary highways and $225,000 on primary routes through cities.

GEORGE W. COLVIG LAID TO RESTS IN G. PASS MONDAY

The funeral of the late Judge George W. Colvig, who passed away at his home in Grants Pass, Saturday, May 19, 1934, were held Monday at 2:30 p. m., at Hall's Funeral Home, and interment was in Hillcrest Memorial park.

The funeral was conducted by the Masonic order, with Rev. Frank L. Wemett of the Methodist church officiating. A Masonic Lodge of Sorrow at the lodge hall at 2 o'clock preceded the service. Jas. Trimble, past master and lifelong friend, conducted the services at the grave.

George W. Colvig was born November 12, 1848, at Parkville, Mo. In 1851 the Colvig family came to Oregon and settled on a farm near Canyonville. In 1872 he married Mary Dyer. To this union three children were born, all of whom survive.

Mr. Colvig was the first station agent at Riddle, Ore., when Riddle was the terminal. He was a member of the first railroad commission in Oregon, serving two terms. At the age of 26 years he was elected senator from Douglas county, serving two terms.

In 1889, with his family, he moved to Grants Pass, Ore., where he practiced law until his health failed about three years ago. He was elected representative from Josephine county in 1901.

Under President McKinley's administration Mr. Colvig was appointed United States consul to Barranquilla, Colombia, South America, where he with Mrs. Colvig spent 26 months, returning to Grants Pass he resumed his law practice. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, the Grants Pass lodge No. 84, A. F. & A. M., and of the Reamee chapter No. 28, Royal Arch Masons, and of the Southern Oregon Bar association.

Of close relatives, he is survived by his widow, Mary Dyer Colvig; two daughters, Mrs. Jennie Chausse of Medford and Mrs. Adelaide Stone of San Francisco, and one son, Fred L. Colvig of Medford; his brother, Wm. M. Colvig of Medford, and four grandchildren, Colvig Chausse of San Francisco, Dorothy Chausse of Everett, Wash., and Frederick and Bob Colvig of Medford.

ROOSEVELT GIVES CONGRESS OUTLINE FOR LEGISLATION be subject to a fine of $10,000 or 10 years imprisonment.

Under the nationalization clause, the President, when in his judgment action was deemed necessary to regulate the value of money, "may" by executive order require the delivery to U. S. mints of "any or all silver by whomsoever owned or possessed."

Such silver would be coined or otherwise added to the monetary stocks and paid for in standard silver dollars or their coin or currency at the monetary value of the silver less deductions for seigniorage, brassage, coinage, or other mint charges.

The price could not be less than the fair value at the time acquired, value to be determined by the market price over a reasonable period prior to acquisition.

Any silver withheld in violation of the executive order shall be forfeited and the violator subjected to a fine equal to twice the monetary value of the silver withheld.

On all transfers of any interest in silver bullion, whether by purchase or otherwise, if the price exceeded the total cost and allowed expenses, a tax of 50 per cent of the amount of such excess would be levied.

Violators of this provision would be subject to a fine of $1,000 or six months in prison.

The secretary of the treasury, with the approval of the President, would be authorized to issue whatever regulations he saw fit to carry out the purposes of the proposed act.

The President's message was the outgrowth of weeks of agitation which reached its climax when Senator Thomas (D. Okla.) offered mandatory silver legislation as an amendment to the Glass industrial loan bill.

Senator Pittman (D. Nev.) introduced the bill in the senate and in a speech declared it represented the culmination of long years of effort to bring about legislation to give the white metal a more prominent place in the monetary picture.
