

BRIDES OFFERED CHANCE IMPROVE COOKING ABILITY

"It may be hard on the professional humorists, but now is the time to render obsolete the standard joke about the 'bride's biscuits — and dumplings that bounce.'"

So decrees Miss Estella Calkins, home economist of the Safeway Stores Homemakers' Bureau, who will conduct a three-day cooking school in Medford, beginning Tuesday, May 22, at the Rialto theater.

Under the auspices of the Safeway store, Miss Calkins will guide homemakers along that royal road to a man's heart as she offers, free of charge, the knowledge gained through intensive food and recipe research by the bureau at its steaming kitchen.

This bureau, unique in the west, is designed for the especial guidance of western women, explains Miss Calkins. Under the direction of Mrs. Julia Lee Wright, noted home economist, the bureau, starting in a modest manner in one room, is now in its third year. Mrs. Wright, also founder of the testing kitchen, now has under her direct supervision, 150 cooking schools, covering territory from Kansas City west, and from Canada to the Mexican border.

Services dealing with all household and culinary problems are offered free in response to inquiries addressed to the Homemakers' Bureau at Oakland.

"Bring a pencil and a friend," is the slogan adopted by Estelle Calkins as she prepares for the modernized cooking school which will be conducted in the Rialto theater from 2 until 4 p. m. each day. The doors also announce, will be open each day at 1 o'clock.

"All shopping for food products to be used at the classes, I shall do in Medford in person," says Miss Calkins, "and the three days of the sessions will offer a wide variety of menus. These," she says, "will range from hearty meals to lighter luncheons and entertainment dishes and delicacies to tempt palates of the family and guests."

During the two hours of each session, ten complete dishes will be cooked or made in the mechanical refrigerator. The purpose of this schedule is to show that there need be no drudgery or "fussing about" in preparing meals.

This modern art of cookery, executed in a speedy, efficient manner, is what we mean by "kitcheneering."

PAGEANT TICKETS FIND EARLY SALE

Quite a number of tickets were sold and reservations received at Oregon's Diamond Jubilee headquarters today for the pageant "Oyer-Un-Con," and for Norman Cowan's Roundup, two of the feature attractions of the jubilee celebration next June 3 to 9.

A ticket booth has been established in the headquarters, with Miss Vivian Menden in charge. She will receive calls for reservations for tickets which must be purchased before June 1 if such reservations are not to be cancelled. Mail orders are also being received. Local residents are urged to make early purchases to assure them of seats for the attractions.

Mrs. Pennington Honored on Birthday. Miss Margaret Pennington was honor guest at a surprise birthday party given last evening by her mother, Mrs. L. Pennington, at their home on the Jacksonville highway.

Bridge was enjoyed during the evening, with prize for high score going to Miss Maxine Robinson, low to Miss Lamurle Beck, and traveling prize to Miss Everette Gillespie.

Invited to join Miss Pennington for the evening were Miss Ethel Slagle, Miss Bethel Slagle, Miss Leabel Miller, Miss Mary Kern, Miss Mary Roseberry, Miss Alene Ray, Miss Evelyn Herman, Miss Gillespie, Miss Beck, Miss Helen McAllister, Miss Janet Wray Smith, Miss Jean Hamilton, Miss Maxine Robinson, Miss Catherine Robinson and Miss Louise Elrod.

Degree of Honor Party Enjoyed. Several tables of auction bridge and pinocle were in play at the Degree of Honor card party last week, which was held in the club rooms of the city hall.

Ladies' prize for high score at bridge was awarded Mrs. Louis Knips, and high for men to H. G. Wilson. Mr. Schofield was awarded prize for high score at pinocle.

An interesting guest of the meeting was Mrs. Shadel of Billings, Mont., who plans to make her home in Medford.

The butterfly quilt, made by the Carnation club, was on display at the party, and attracted much attention. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Home and School Circle Will Meet on Friday. The Roosevelt Home and School circle will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, instead of 3, the usual meeting time, it was announced today.

The graduating class, students in the 8-A, will present two plays, "Robin Hood and the Unfortunate Knight" and "Cinderella in Flower Land."

All members of the club are invited to attend.

Miss Backus Hostess At Farewell Party. JACKSONVILLE — Miss Winifred Backus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Backus, entertained with a farewell party Saturday evening in honor of Misses Alberta, Eleanore and Georgia Hart, who left Sunday with their parents to make their home in Shasta City, Cal.

Dancing was enjoyed during the evening, with music furnished by members of the Gold Hill orchestra. Supper was served at midnight.

Class Meeting Thursday Afternoon. The Golden Links class of the First Baptist church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. D. Roberts, 1011 West Tenth street, at 2:30 o'clock. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Mrs. Potter Arriving Today. Mrs. M. Milton Potter is expected to arrive in Medford this afternoon by motor from Fort Lewis, Wash., to join her husband, Captain Potter, who is on duty as an assistant executive officer at the civilian conservation corps district headquarters here.

Eagle Point Party For Miss Anderson. Mrs. Lester Throckmorton and daughter Eleanor entertained at their home in Eagle Point yesterday with a shower for Miss Verita Anderson of Medford, whose marriage to Edward Goodwin of Fort Jones has been announced for early June.

A color scheme of pink and white was carried out about the rooms, with sweetpeas dominating in the floral decorations. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Alice Walker and Miss Lucille Coy, who were dressed in pink and white.

Guests at the party were Mrs. S. E. Howlett, Miss Hattie Howlett, Mrs. Roy Harnish, daughters Helen and Mary, Mrs. Sam Coy and daughter Lucille, Mrs. William Holman, Mrs. E. W. Rogers Stage Debut In Hollywood Given Film Folks' Acclaim. HOLLYWOOD, May 23.—(P)—With the same acclaim that Hollywood always has paid to Will Rogers' screen productions, the film colony accepted him today as a stage actor.

The noted comedian made his first appearance here on a stage in Eugene O'Neill's "Ah, Wilderness!" last night. The audience reminded the fans of a movie premiere. Everybody who counted in the films was there, from directors to stars.

As the last curtain dropped, Rogers was drawn from backstage by thunderous applause.

"I wonder what Barrymore would say now?" he said as the hand-clapping died down.

"The cast does all the work and I take all the bows; I don't know what drama is all about but I am trying to 'wrasse' with it; it's the only racket I've never been mixed up in before."

Bacterial Wilt Kills Tomatoes. WALLA WALLA, May 23.—Bacterial wilt has killed off every 10th young tomato plant in the Walla Walla valley, F. E. Mojonner, shipper, reports. Plantings were about 20 per cent less than last year, but unless the wilt attack spreads there will still be a good crop, he said.

Slightly more than 1,500,000 tomato plants were set out this year, as compared with 2,000,000 last year. Eighty cars of tomatoes were shipped in 1933.

HEIMROTH WOULD COLLECT MONEY LOANED TO FEHL

Ted Heimroth, of Griffin Creek, has filed suit in circuit court against Earl H. Fehl, serving four years in state prison for vote stealing, for the collection of a promissory note and mortgage in the sum of $1,750. A deficiency judgment is sought. The transaction was made July 2, 1928, and no interest has been paid since 1930. The mortgage covers the property at 905 Park avenue, this city.

Jackson county is named as one of the co-defendants. The county has filed a lien for $5,094.50—the cost bill for the Fehl trial and change of venue to Klamath county. The complaint holds that the Heimroth mortgage takes precedence over the county's claim.

L. A. Banks, serving life for second degree murder, is also named as a defendant. The property is involved in a purported transaction whereby the "Daily News" became the "Medford News."

Relatives of Fehl, who assertedly claim some right or title in the property, are also listed as co-defendants. Heimroth, with Jesse Thomas of Ashland, recently took legal steps for possession of the property on Sixth street, formerly occupied by Fehl's weekly, in lieu of money due on loans secured by mortgages.

Many term of the circuit court, Judge H. D. Norton presiding, is scheduled to start next Monday, May 27. A petit jury for the term has been called. A grand jury can be drawn, but it is discretionary with the court to continue the present one, which held one session, since it came into existence last February.

Two cases are scheduled to be brought to the attention of the grand jury—May Murray and E. L. Pritch, charged with criminal libel for the alleged distribution of defamatory circulars from the pen of E. H. Fehl, in which the courts and law enforcing agencies were maligned, and the charge was made that Fehl was "framed" for his conviction of ballot theft.

The criminal docket is one of the lightest in years. Two cases held over from the last term are listed for trial. They are Manzie Hiden, indicted for a statutory offense involved with a 17-year-old girl, and Alfred Poston of Pinehurst, indicted for alleged threatened assault with a weapon upon a state trooper last September. Poston's trial was postponed last spring when he was unable to reach court in time for opening of the Greensprings Mountain road.

A number of civil cases are scheduled to be heard at the coming term. Most of these originated in the last six months. The court has cleared the calendar since last fall of a great many civil actions, several of long standing on the docket.

GASOLINE SALES OVER LAST YEAR. SALEM, May 23.—(P)—Gasoline sales in Oregon for the month of April totaled 14,615,261 gallons, a report released today showed, representing the first month in 1934 in which an increase in sales was shown over last year. Sales for April were 2,666,984 gallons over the same month last year.

April's sales brought the total for the year to date to 48,985,436 gallons, 1,267,333 more than for the first four months in 1933. Tax receipts to the state for last month were $730,763, and for the year to date, $2,448,271.
