Elaborate Plans for Washington Frolic. An evening of fun and merriment has been promised those who will attend the Washington school carnival and frolic tomorrow evening at the school house.

Food is to be sold from booths in the halls, and the doors will be open at 6 o'clock, enabling those who wish to have the evening meal at the school.

Following the supper a splendid program will be enjoyed. The ukulele band from the Erskine studio will open the program with two numbers. The Boy Scout troop, which holds its meeting in the school building, will provide two numbers and Miss Rita Peart will sing.

The final number on the program will be a play by Ray Henderson's troop of Junior High students. The play "Out of the Attic," was given recently at the Junior High school and proved a mirth-provoking number.

The social time and frolic, including the fish pond and other features, will be conducted after the program. A small charge will be made for admission, which is also an admission to the program.

Wedding Given Tea Will Be Repeated. The widespread interest in the Wedding Given Tea given last winter has encouraged the Parent-Teacher association of Medford to produce a similar affair during the Diamond Jubilee.

The more unique of the wedding gowns will form the nucleus of a review, which will present dresses of beauty and interest, through the ages. Many of them were made in America, while some owe their origin to foreign countries.

The charming young ladies who so ably modeled the wedding gowns at the recent tea, will assist in the display of the new collection.

During the Jubilee, the dresses will be modeled at the Baldwin Piano shop on Monday, June 4, from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

It will be greatly appreciated by those in charge of the affair if anyone who has an antique gown to offer, will call Mrs. Eidon Drysdale.

Circle Meeting. At Two o'clock. Graduating students at the Roosevelt school will furnish the program tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the meeting of the Roosevelt Home and School circle.

Two plays, "Robin Hood and the Unfortunate Knight" and "Cinderella in Flower Land," will be presented.

CEMENT PLANT IN GOLD HILL STARTS FULL OPERATIONS

Beaver-Portland cement company's plant at Gold Hill, and its quarry at Wilderville resumed operations on a full time basis this week, according to General Manager W. H. Muirhead.

Improvements costing in excess of $50,000 have been made at the Gold Hill plant in the last 90 days. New equipment consisting of a re-crushing plant, burning system, dust collection system, and additional storage bins have been added.

Limestone from the Wilderville quarry will be hauled over the Grants Pass municipal railroad. From eight to ten cars will be transported daily. The cement plant is operating under the NRA code, which causes employment of approximately 40 per cent more workers. Including employees and their families between 300 and 350 people are dependent upon the cement plant operation.

The plant has been idle during a prolonged shutdown over the past two years, operating but about 90 days during that period. Competition from California plants and lack of building caused the slack. The plant anticipates receiving its proportionate share of cement orders to be used in federal projects at Bonneville and in the central California water projects.

Manager Muirhead says the "buy home products" drive will be extended to cement. The company is listed among the first six heaviest taxpayers in Jackson and Josephine counties.

PENNEY NEWS. SPECIAL DIAMOND JUBILEE EDITION. VOL. I. Number 1. MEDFORD, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1934. PAGE ONE. Published If and When the Spirit Moves Us or When We Are Not Serving On a Committee.

EDITORIAL?

AS a Ruhl, ye editor is Moore or less not too excited about these Jubilee things. But here we are knee-deep in pageants, parades, etc., and with all the covered wagons George Carter has dickered for we defy anyone to call Medford a one horse town. Why this fellow Shangle has more floats on hand than Ivory Soap. Everyone is so wrapped up in this thing, that an election day slipped past the other day and Jackson County was so quiet we could hear the market drop down at Mel Hogan's brokerage office. Jerry Jerome has been working so hard and gotten so little sleep he thinks this guy Oster Moor is a movie star. If Ban loses any more weight he'll be harder to find than Dillinger. Shorty Morris tells us they've saddled a lot on him and now Brother Kubli joins the Four Horsemen. They are going to hang flags on the streets and the deficit on the merchants, but everyone is puttin' their shoulders to the wheel and boy we're just itching to see June 3rd get here and as Fred Tice grabs that old whip of his in the big parade and the rest of the fine old pioneers pass before us—what a thrill, what a joy. But, listen folks, we all gotta get the N. R. A. slogan into our hearts WE'LL DO OUR PART. What say?

SOMEONE said that a man may make a better mousetrap than his neighbor and though he build his home in the wilderness the world will make a beaten path to his door. Maybe so, but listen, your home may be away from the business district some distance; it may be cool and comfortable, but if you haven't a darn good place for your guest to sleep, he may start lookin' for the fellow who has a hobby for makin' mousetraps. So just to be the helpful little fellow again, may we suggest that an eighty-one by ninety-nine size sheet at Penney's sells for only seventy-seven cents, a pillow case is a bargain at seventeen and we have some mighty fine bedspreads for ninety-eight cents, so you see—we're already to do everything except make the bed and help with the house cleaning.

JUST opened the mail and found that six more relatives and friends decided at the last minute to accept our invitation to come down for the Jubilee. We'd plumb forgotten 'em. It's a fact—and was I FLOORED. And speakin' of floors, we can replace that rather shabby lookin' rug you have in the hall with a nice twenty-seven by fifty-four for just one ninety-eight. They're imported, too, but that don't increase the price at Penney's. Novelty chenille rugs at ninety-eight are mighty good.

IF WE GET any more shocks like the last mail, we'll make a tent city outta the back yard. Everybody we sent one of those invitations to took us serious and brother, are we in hot water? Speakin' of hot water, this backyard tent city idea would be a knockout, if we could figure out a shower bath gadget along with it. We're always out of hot water, but just guess we'll have to let the water run out cold and give 'em plenty of towels. Say, how about bath towels? Better check up on that one at home. We have 'em as low as a dime at Penney's. They call 'em Turkish towels, but honest they're made down in North Carolina, and are the famous "Cannon" brand.

BEFORE we ring down the curtain—that brings up another idea. How about new drapes? That smudge on the curtains is like last year's taxes, we'll soon have to do something about them. Penney's are all set to be of service, rayon damask, new crotomes, monk's cloth, panel, nets or you name it. Brighten up the home; the family will like it; so will the guests.

NOW WHILE this Jubilee is goin' on, we who live in the Rogue River Valley, and all of our guests, don't want to miss anything that's goin' on. But, between pageants and parades (say, listen, Professor Bowmer has a pageant ready that the folks 'll write home about) but we just gotta go swimmin' sometime during that week! Bathin' suits at Penney's are cut low in price and as to cut in style, well, you take a look! We've got more bathing suits than Heinz has pickles and plenty more variety.

AM I BURNED UP? Well, I oughta be. Still wearin' a felt hat and the mercury up over ninety! Why die with the heat when pall-bearers are hard to get and a new genuine toyo panama is only ninety-eight cents at Penney's.

TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP (no wise cracks about the three tramps). But that good old ballad may yet be the theme song for a lot of people during Jubilee Week. They'll tramp here, and tramp there and say, durin' hot weather, do your feet ever bother you? Would it be amiss to suggest that you come down to Penney's and get good, cool, comfortable shoes at our moderate prices, or do you want to suffer in silence? Limp in, get a good fit, or forget about it and have the other kind.

THE JUBILEE COMMITTEES are certainly doing a marvelous job. They have taken off their coats and pitched right in. The man-hours spent on this Jubilee would amaze you. That's a fact! But speakin' of havin' the coats off, men, if it gets too hot in June, let's all adopt the same idea. Take off the coats and if you need a few good-lookin' shirts—white, plain or fancy—Brother, Penney's is headquarters for bargains in shirts.

WE'RE HEADED FOR THE LAST ROUND-UP! Don't miss the rodeo that Norman Cowan is puttin' on as a special feature of the Jubilee. It's a real show and you know we wouldn't give you a bum steer. Well, pass it off. This is all in fun, and maybe you call it sheer foolishness, but speakin' of SHEERS—say listen: We just unpacked several hundred smart, cool, sheer dresses in printed organdie and batistes, sizes twelve to fifty-two. Beautiful is a poor adjective to describe them. Real ready-to-wear styles and only ninety-eight cents. Well, that's thirty for tonight, folks, but remember the money you save at Penney's will help buy a lot of those pageant and rodeo tickets, now on sale!
