

Local and Personal

Joan Crawford at Craterian in "Sadie McKee"

To Portland—Clarence Toy of Portland left for his home yesterday after having spent two or three days here on business.

Back from Visit—Mrs. H. B. Mansfield returned by train yesterday from a few days' visit with her father and mother in Myrtle Creek.

Visits Here—Mrs. J. W. Harris, of Portland, who has been visiting in this city for two days with Mrs. B. E. Peden, left by train yesterday for her home.

To Cottage Grove—Miss Carol Smith of Butte Falls, left yesterday on the Shasta for Cottage Grove, where she will visit with Mrs. B. F. Morris, who was formerly of Butte Falls.

Visits in Grants Pass—Mrs. R. M. Gaton and daughter, Fatsia Ann, arrived by train yesterday from Grants Pass, where they have been visiting with Mrs. Gaton's mother, Mrs. R. E. Gale.

No Wrecking Permit—Albert Fray, of Central Point, was arrested by state police Friday for maintaining a wrecking house without a license. Fray was sentenced to appear at justice court.

Visits Brother—Cherley Conaway is visiting his brother, Claire Conaway at San Rafael, Calif. where he is stationed in the U. S. Army at Hamilton field. He left here Wednesday morning by motor.

Shasta Sled Changed—The schedule for the north bound Shasta has been changed from 10:33 a. m. to 10:53 a. m. It was announced yesterday by A. S. Rosenbaum, local Southern Pacific agent.

CCC Boys Arrested—Harold Flynn, 18, and Glen Mahan, 19, both of the Applegate CCC camp, were arrested by city police Friday night on charges of being drunk in a public place. Both were lodged in the city jail.

P. E. O. Delegates Leave—Mrs. Emmett Rathbun and Mrs. Robert Rogers, both of Portland, left on the train yesterday, after having remained over from the P. E. O. convention in this city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cobb.

Continue Classes—It was announced yesterday that the Medford Art league will continue free classes on Tuesday and Thursday from 1 to 3 p. m., for both beginner and advanced classes. The groups meet at the Medford Business college.

No P. U. C.—Fred H. Johnson, of 250 South Central, was arrested in Grants Pass Friday night by state police for operating a commercial truck with no Public Utilities license. He was fined $10 and costs for the offense, and also $5 and costs for having no license on a trailer.

Season Opens—The fishing season at Diamond lake opened today, it was announced by George L. Howard, manager, who was in Medford recently. Mr. Howard has been at the lake since the first of May, and says that the cottages at the resort have been repaired and repainted for this summer's visitors. He says the fishing in the streams near the lake has been excellent.

Accident at Central and 4th—An accident at the intersection of Central and 4th was reported at the city police station yesterday involving Ruth Minear, Kings highway, and Earl W. Weaver, 54 Rose avenue. The report showed that the Minear car had the right of way, and was struck in the side near the rear by the auto driven by Weaver. The accident occurred at 12:30 a. m. Saturday.

In from Lake of Woods—Hugh A. Ritter, ranger in Lake of the Woods region, is in Medford for two or three days, and will inspect the grazing and timber scale situation in the Koonse creek country before returning. Ritter announces that 10 men are now located in a camp near Heavenly Twins, and are at work on the Skyline trail, which will extend from Lake of the Woods to Mt. Hood, along the Cascade divide.

Three Receive Bruises—Three occupants of a car driven by Cornelia W. Barnes, of Phoenix, received bruises in an accident yesterday at the intersection of 4th and Front. The Barnes car, going west on 4th, was struck by an auto driven by Martha V. Anderson, route 3, who was driving north on Front street. Those injured were Mrs. E. D. Wilson, Mrs. Jim McAbee and Mrs. Barnes. The collision turned the Barnes car over on its side.

Postmaster to Portland—Frank DeSouza, postmaster, left for Portland last night on official business, and will return Tuesday morning. Mr. DeSouza will confer with the central accounting post office about the change in the stamp accounting system which has been recently inaugurated here. Mr. DeSouza says that heretofore all stamps bought by the local postoffice were secured from Washington, D. C., and that the change will facilitate the buying of stamps from the Pacific coast distributing office, located in Portland. The system is receiving a trial throughout the country, with Oregon as the west coast distributing point, and New Jersey the location of the east coast accounting office.

To Ashland—William Vimont, representative of the Nish Clothing Co. went to Ashland yesterday on business.

Mrs. Charley Home—Mrs. L. C. Charley, who has been recuperating after undergoing an ocular operation in San Francisco, returned to her home in Medford Saturday.

Here from Janesville—Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Lovejoy of Janesville, Wis. have arrived in Medford to spend two or three days. Mr. Lovejoy is secretary of the Owen-Oregon Sales company, and is looking over operations in the Medford section.

Neck Yokes Needed—Neck yokes, single-trees and harnesses are still wanted for use in the pioneer parade, a feature Thursday, June 7, of Oregon's Diamond Jubilee celebration. J. Verne Shangle, parade chairman, reported last evening. General preparations are rapidly going forward with every indication that one of the largest pioneer parades in the west will be shown.

Rogers at Roxy

The delightful persons of Anne Cameron's Saturday Evening Post story, "Green Dice," will come to life on the screen, with Will Rogers as "Mr. Skitch." In the film by that name which opens at the Roxy theater today.

For outright entertainment and good, healthy laughs, "Mr. Skitch" tops anything Rogers has done. Always at his best in a modern, topical and timely picture, Rogers has the type of role that lets him loose with sallies of wit, the kind that have made him a national favorite as a humorist.

"Harold Teen" On Rialto Bill

Remember your first cigar? Here's probably how you felt. This is Hal LeRoy, star of "Harold Teen," the picturization of the Carl Ed comic strip, at the Rialto theatre today and Monday.

"Queen Christina" at Studio

"Queen Christina," which opens at the Studio theater today, stirring Greta Garbo, has made film history for three reasons. It reunites Garbo with John Gilbert after a screen separation of five years and brings him out of retirement for a triumphal return to pictures.

duction with sets that rival the Field of the Cloth of Gold for their size and beauty that is to be seen in recent years. The picture is based upon the glamorous life of Sweden's famous Queen Christina who reigned three years ago.

Been to Portland—Jude Sidel, who has been spending several days in Portland on business, has returned to Medford.

Goes to Canyonville—James Pardee, Copco elevator man, left yesterday for Canyonville to visit his brother, Sam. Today is the 30th anniversary of the Pardee family's arrival in Canyonville. Only three people of the number there fifty years ago still live in that city. They will have a celebration today.

Mr. Conger Returns—H. W. Conger, president of the Oregon Funeral Directors' association, returned to Medford Friday evening from Portland, where he presided at the 31st annual convention of the association. Mr. Conger reported the largest attendance on record for the organization.

The motion picture version of "Sadie McKee," Vina Delmar's sensational Liberty Magazine story, brings Joan Crawford back to the screen as the girl who rose from servants quarters to riches. Franchot Tone, Edward Arnold and Gene Raymond are the three men who form the love interest in Sadie McKee's life, Tone as the girlhood beau, Arnold as the millionaire, and Raymond as a crooner. Esther Raiston is also featured in the cast as a torch-singing vaudeville star with whom Raymond skips out following his affair with Sadie.

Mats — 25c Eves — 35c
Kiddies—10c

Shows Today at 1:45
3:30 - 7:00 - 9:00

STARTS TODAY for 3 DAYS! The "Dancing Lady" Has Done It Again!

BREATH TAKING!... In her role of a "come-on" girl... sweetheart of one... wife of another... in love with a third!

Joan CRAWFORD

... "Sadie McKee," born with too much love in her heart—she scattered her affections among too many men!... Her private love affairs made blaring headlines... Her marriages made newspaper extras... Her divorces turned society topsy-turvy!... Here's a woman who played all men as suckers... but found happiness with the man she thought she hated!

"Sadie McKee"

with FRANCHOT TONE
Gene Raymond • Esther Raiston
FROM VINA DELMAR'S SENSATIONAL LIBERTY MAGAZINE STORY!

ADDED ATTRACTIONS
LAUREL and HARDY
in "OLIVER THE EIGHTH"
"Italy, Land of Inspiration" — Newsreel

Shows Today 1:45-3:15 7:00-9:00

HUNT RIALTO

Adults 25c
Kiddies-10c

TODAY and MONDAY!

Hey! Hey! We're All Going to Have the Time of Our Lives!

...with this peppy...snappy... collegiate musical-comedy!

Harold, Lillums, Lilac, Shadow, Pop Jenks and all the others... brought to life in a hilarious jamboree of laughter, song, and flaming youth!... Obey-Obey-Obey!...Wadda Pickshur!

Songs! Romance! Laughs! with Broadway's greatest dancing star, Hal LeRoy, and a whole raft of cuddling co-eds.

HAROLD TEEN

with HAL LEROY
ROCHELLE HUDSON
GUY KIBBEE

ADDED ATTRACTIONS
ANDY CLYDE in "DORA'S DUNKING DOUGHNUTS"
"SCRAPING THE SKY" PATHE NEWSREEL

Essential to Women with "Bad Skin"

LUCKY TIGER Antiseptic Ointment and hot towel treatment—a boon to all women who care.

Buy Yours Today
CLEARS the skin from pimples and dullness when due to clogged pores. Instant relief from burns. A household first skin aid. Get a jar today. A fine companion to old reliable Lucky Tiger Hair Tonic.