In Hospital—Mrs. Jack Myers of Central Point, underwent a minor operation at the Community hospital Thursday.

Here on Business—H. D. Roach left on the Shasta this morning for Portland. He had been in this city on business since last night.

Get Parade Numbers—Persons who are to participate in the Oregon Diamond Jubilee parade, are requested to call at the headquarters in the Sparta building for their numbers.

Desire Flowers—The chamber of commerce and the Jubilee headquarters have requested as many flowers as possible during Jubilee week, to add to the attractiveness of the two offices.

Mr. Schanahls Here—W. R. Schanahls of Portland, who is head of the amateur aeronautics club in Portland, is here today and said that a number of ships plan to come here from that city for the jubilee.

Pleads Not Guilty—Earl Akers, of this city, who was arrested recently on charges of being drunk, entered a plea of not guilty in city court yesterday and was cited to appear in court this afternoon.

Ships in Today—Two O-25 army ships, flying from Grassy Field, San Francisco, to Pearson Field, Vancouver, Wash., were expected to stop this afternoon at the Medford Municipal airport.

Fly to Portland—W. H. Muirhead and City Airport Superintendent Tom Culbertson, left today noon by plane for Portland. They plan to remain for two days, and Culbertson will confer with the chamber of commerce officials concerning the flight of Portland ships to the Diamond Jubilee next week.

Pictures of Shriners—A. E. Peasley, local photographer, has arranged a window display, in the chamber of commerce, which includes a number of prominent Shriners, wearing the fez. There are also several group pictures of committees, which have been attracting the attention of passers-by.

Plans are Completed—The result of a meeting yesterday, the committee in charge of the variety food sale being sponsored by St. Mark's Altar guild at the Economy market tomorrow, reports there will be a number of appetizing dishes on the list. Persons anticipating guests for the week of the jubilee are especially invited to the sale.

Has Model Stage Coach—In the window at Lee's Men's shop, in the Diamond Jubilee display, is a model of a Concord stage coach, made by A. H. Hopper of Omak, Wash. The stage is fashioned after that which used to ply between Atchison, Kans., and Placerville, Calif., for Russell, Major and Weddell, from 1850 to 1856. The stage is well constructed, and is painted red and black, with yellow wheels.

"Smoky" at Roxy

"Smoky," Will James' best seller, that has thrilled millions of readers, makes its appearance on the screen of the Roxy theater tomorrow. The author, known as one of the most colorful figures of the West, is a member of the cast, and he participates both as actor and narrator. Victor Jory, who has the leading role, portrays the part of a cowboy, who tames and befriends "Smoky," the wild horse, born and bred on the plains of the West. The friendship of man and animal becomes so great that when "Smoky" is stolen, his friend gives up love and job to go in search of him. The life of "Smoky," his rise and fall, forms the basis of the film. And the final reunion of man and beast is said to bring the picture to a stirring climax.

MELODY BOYS PLAY AT DREAMLAND SAT.

Reg Fifer announces that his Melody Boys orchestra will move to Dreamland Saturday night for a pre-jubilee dance. Mr. Fifer says the Fairgrounds pavilion is being made ready for the Jubilee dances, which will be held there Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, next week.

After 18 months of separation, Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, the screen's most romantic team, will be reunited in "Change of Heart," which comes to the Craterian theater Sunday. Heeding the requests of thousands of fans to re-team these two screen sweethearts, the studio started an intensive search for a story that would be suitable for their reunion. Kathleen Norris' great modern novel, "Manhattan Love Song," was finally selected out of hundreds of stories as the perfect vehicle.

The screen play adapted from the novel is a modern drama of youth's epic struggle for love and happiness in the turmoil of Manhattan. The film relates a big city's grim challenge to four youngsters just out of college, two boys and two girls, who banded together by ties of loyalty and common interest, enter its portals, accept its challenge and begin their brave fight to achieve success, realize their dreams of ambition and possibly fame.
