

SCHERMERHORN'S FRIENDS IN MOVE TO SAVE LIBERTY

Plea for Leniency for Former Sheriff, Convicted on Ballot Theft Charge, May Be Made to Governor Meier

Attorneys and friends of Gordon L. Schermerhorn, long time resident and former sheriff, under a three years' sentence to state prison for conviction of complicity in the ballot thefts, have launched a movement to save him from the stigma of a penitentiary term. According to Frank J. Newman, this will take the form of a plea of leniency from the governor, or a modified sentence, through action of the attorney general's office.

The supreme court this week dismissed Schermerhorn's appeal and allowed him 20 days in which to file a petition for rehearing. At the end of that period, unless there is official intervention, commitment papers will be issued for the aged and worry-worn former official.

Newman Sees Collier Attorney Newman has been in Portland the past week conferring with Attorney John A. Collier on a future course of action in behalf of Schermerhorn. Collier, well remembered here as chief counsel for Hugh DeAutremont in the Siskiyou tunnel attempted train robbery and quadruple murder of 11 years ago, was retained two months ago.

The district attorney's office said this morning they had been advised by Attorney Newman, by telephone from Portland, that steps to lighten the burden for the former official were under way but that all matters in connection therewith rested with the attorney general's office. The local officials know nothing of any negotiations.

Had Agreement It has been revealed that before Schermerhorn went to trial for ballot theft, the attorney general's office, through the pleadings of friends of many years standing, agreed to allow Schermerhorn plead guilty to malfeasance in office, with a minimum sentence, with a recommendation of parole for that period. It was thus thought that the ends of justice could be served and the ex-

MAHONEY FRIENDS EXPENDED $1652 DURING CAMPAIGN

SALEM, June 1.—(AP)—The first major expense item reported to the secretary of state in support of the Willis Mahoney candidacy for the democratic nomination for governor was that of R. E. Bradbury, secretary of the Mahoney for Governor club, who reported today he spent $1,652.30.

James W. Mott, republican congressman from the first district, spent $1,081.76 for nomination to his office, while J. M. Devera, who contested Mott's renomination, spent $571.68. R. R. Turner, democratic candidate for congress from the first district, spent $669.81, he reported.

Among the expense items filed by non-partisan candidates for seats on the circuit court bench, were Frank E. Manning for department 7 in Multnomah county, $158; C. H. Leonard, for judge of the ninth district, $316; R. Frank Peters, for judge of the 19th district, $100; Edward B. Ashurst, for judge of the 13th district, $459; Thomas H. Goynne, for judge of the 19th district, $71.

Others who spent more than $50 in the campaign include Robert S. Farrell Jr., republican, for representative Multnomah county, $97; Walter E. Pearson, democrat, senator from 14th district, $57; Lowell C. Page, republican representative Multnomah county, $288; William L. Graham, democrat for representative Multnomah county, $76, and Edwin E. Moser, republican representative Multnomah county, $57.

ROOSEVELT SEES SON'S GRADUATION

GROTON, Mass., June 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt attended the graduation of his youngest son, John, from Groton school here today, motoring here just before noon from his special train at Worcester.

Mr. Roosevelt attended this same preparatory school, and he planned to spend the day on the campus visiting. This private institution continued very private today. Newspaper men accompanying the president from Washington were not permitted on the ground. Mrs. Roosevelt and the president's mother, Mrs. James Roosevelt, with the president in an open car over the 30-mile route from Worcester.

WILLIAMS DENIES WOULD LEAD G. O. P.

PORTLAND, June 1.—(AP)—Declaring he is not a candidate for the permanent or acting chairmanship of the Republican national committee, Ralph E. Williams, committeeman for 28 years, and national vice-chairman for 12 years, left last night by train for the meeting of the national committee in Chicago, June 5.

He said further he could not see if elected, and stated further he will not be a candidate for re-election when his term expires at the next Republican national convention.

FORMER INSURANCE COMMISSIONER DIES

PORTLAND, Ore., June 1.—(AP)—A. C. Barber, 70, former insurance commissioner of Oregon, and widely known in the state as an ardent amateur photographer, died at his

$17,000 PAYROLL TAKEN FROM MAIL

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa., June 1.—(AP)—Two sacks of mail, one containing $17,000 in cash intended for factory payrolls, were stolen today by five men dressed as laborers. They were masked and carried pistols. They held up a mail messenger and two other men, snatched the sacks from the Reading company station platform, where they had just been thrown from a train, and fled in a motor car.
