

CHINESE LIKE MELON SEEDS BETTER THAN CHICLE FOR CHEWING

PEIPING, China (UP)—Last year China imported $600,000 worth of chewing gum.

This amount is estimated to total about 70,000,000 strips of gum, or about that many chews.

The traditional Chinese equivalent of gum is the watermelon seed of which tons and tons are consumed each year throughout the width and breadth of this vast land.

While western movies and airplanes and bombs have made deep inroads into Chinese social customs, the chewing gum idea apparently has not made much progress, except possibly in the metropolis of Shanghai which is reported to absorb about half the total gum imports.

Few Chinese pass a day without cracking a few black dried seeds between their teeth and it is estimated that every Chinese disposes of at least ten seeds a day. If an arbitrary population of 400,000,000 is accepted it will be seen that gum has a long way to go.

Except for Shanghai the only other places in which chewing gum has been able to get a foothold are Peiping, Tientsin and a few other cities of similar size. Out in the provinces the watermelon seeds remains first in the affections of all Chinese as a tasty pastime.

LISTS FIVE TESTS FOR SUCCESSFUL MARRIAGE

EUGENE, Ore. (UP)—Successful marriage must meet five tests, Rev. Bryant Wilson, pastor of the First Baptist church here, believes.

These tests are:

- 1—Love; 2—Adjustment; 3—Wise economic planning; 4—The giving of well-trained children to society; 5—Faith toward God.

"The Christian conception of married love is embodied in the fifth chapter of Ephesians," according to Dr. Wilson.

INSANITY HEARING FOR NEAR SUICIDE

ALAMEDA, Calif., June 1.—(AP)—Insanity proceedings instead of a promised job and $2,000 were launched today against Frank Bennett, unemployed mechanic who for nearly 24 hours sat on a load of dynamite and contemplated blowing himself to pieces.

The insanity warrant was sworn out by Police Inspector Al Sturzinger, one of the officers who finally persuaded Bennett to abandon his mad scheme yesterday, and the subject was taken to a psychopathic ward for examination.

These proceedings followed a report by Dr. O. D. Hamlin, county physician, that a "cycle of mental depression" was responsible for Bennett's fearsome plot.

Still bearing in mind the police promise of the job and additional cash relief, Bennett protested that he wasn't "nutty."
