VIOLATORS BOOZE SIGN REGULATION TO FACE ARREST Chief of Police Clatous McCredie yesterday called attention to the Oregon liquor control commission, which concerns the display of signs in connection with the sale of liquor. Violators of this ordinance, Chief McCredie pointed out, are subject to the cancellation of their licenses. The sections of the regulation follow: "No licensee of the Oregon liquor control commission holding a retail beer, club, package store, restaurant, railroad or boat, or hotel license shall display outside of his place of business or premises or on the windows or door thereof, more than one sign, picture, painting, banner, poster or other advertisement indicating or advertising that any alcoholic beverage is for sale on such premises. Such sign shall not project more than eight inches from the exterior of the building wherein such business is conducted nor be of dimensions of more than six inches in height by thirty inches in length and shall not contain the words 'ale,' 'beer' or 'wine.' "Any and all signs not in conformity with this regulation shall be immediately removed or made to conform with this regulation."

Portland, Ore., June 2.—(AP)—United States Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon, Republican floor leader, will make a personal appeal to President Roosevelt to take action in the Pacific coast longshoremen's strike.

In a telephone conversation today with Mayor Joseph K. Carlton of Portland, Senator McNary said he would see the president as soon as the chief executive returns to Washington, D. C.

Mayor Carlson said "I talked with Senator McNary in Washington by telephone today and he advised me he is fully aware of the seriousness of the strike situation. He assured me he will make a personal appeal to President Roosevelt."

Meanwhile there were no developments here toward ending the 25-day strike. Employers indicated they have no immediate plans in mind. Strikers were holding tight at their picket lines.

RAINS FORECAST IN DROUTH AREA (By the Associated Press) Cooler weather and a few scattered showers brought physical comfort to some central and northern states Saturday, but elsewhere throughout the middle west record and near record heat continued to score knockout blows to sun baked crops in moistureless soils. Cheering forecasts of rains in most of the north central states in the near future came from government observers, however, and was one of the factors which sent wheat prices plunging to more than eight cents a bushel under Friday's high point on the Chicago market.
