

Gaynor-Farrell Reunion at Craterian Today

At Studio Today

With an impressive array of talent in an all-star cast, "This Side of Heaven" opens at the Studio theater today.

The film, laid in modern settings, tells the story of a typical family with all their troubles, tragedies, romances and disappointments, deftly woven into a picture that maintains interest and suspense from beginning to ending.

Lionel Barrymore plays the head of the family, and the cast includes Fay Bainter, Miss Clark and Eddie Nugent.

'Suzanne' at Roxy

Studded with lovely girls, beautiful revues, numbers and photographic wonders, "I Am Suzanne" opens at the Roxy theater today.

It offers a perfect setting in which Lillian Harvey, the internationally famous star, shines with a greater brilliance than ever before, either in Hollywood or in Europe. The film, with its background of Parisian night life and the Podrecca Piccoli Marconettes, offers Miss Harvey a splendid chance to display her versatility and she takes full advantage of this opportunity.

Rogue River

ROGUE RIVER, June 2.—(Sp.)—May 18, the younger Girl Scouts enjoyed a slumber party in the Girl Scout home. They cooked their supper and breakfast there. Early in the morning they enjoyed a hike. Miss Maxine Love, Miss Velma Smith and Miss Helen Witheral of Roseburg chaperoned the party.

Mrs. Sarah Wakeman, Mrs. Mabel Paine and daughter, Lois Jean of Klamath Falls, spent Decoration day in Rogue River and enjoyed a picnic lunch with relatives on the Beers lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenwood spent Thursday in Medford shopping and visiting friends.

Mrs. Sadie Scott, who has spent much time in Roseburg with her husband who is in the hospital, returned home here Wednesday. She was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elva Witheral and daughter, Helen. Mr. Scott will have to remain in the hospital about two weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sandy spent Decoration day at Medford visiting their daughter, Mrs. Willard Grim. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burkhart left Thursday morning by motor for Portland where Mr. Burkhart has employment.

Thursday seemed to be moving day. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dangler moved from the Burkhart apartments to the furnished house of R. J. Sterkic on Pine street. Prim Johnson and family moved into the Robert Burkhart home, and R. C. and John Cummings and their families left by motor for Astoria where they will be employed for the summer.

Mrs. Lee Skelton returned Wednesday from a two weeks' visit to Los Angeles. Mildren Miller, who cared for the children during Mrs. Skelton's absence, returned to her home here Wednesday evening.

Dr. Wilbur of Grants Pass, was a professional visitor here Monday.

Mrs. Martin Burkhart, who has been ill for some time, shows some improvement which is good news to her many friends.

Dr. W. S. Cary returned Tuesday from a visit of several days in Portland.

Miss Felicia Tuberville of Sacramento, is visiting her grand mother, Mrs. Tom Wilson.

W. F. Wright starts a crew in picking his large crop of berries Friday morning. Mr. Wright reports an extra heavy yield this year of both red raspberries and youngberries.

Mrs. A. T. McVain was shopping in Medford Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thrasher of Jacksonville, were dinner guests Decoration day at the J. M. Whipple home.

Walter Mock of Wolf creek is spending part of the summer vaca-

Four of the screen's most popular players are together in "Change of Heart," which brings together, after separation of two years, Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor. James Dunn and Ginger Rogers have the principal supporting roles in the picture which starts its run at the Craterian theater today.

Taken from the Kathleen Norris novel, "Manhattan Love Song," "Change of Heart" depicts the comedies, the sorrows, the handicaps that modern youth faces in wrestling happiness from a large metropolis.

La Grande Hotel Sold SPOKANE, June 2.—(AP)—B. J. Sperry of Portland announced here Friday that he had bought the La Grande hotel at La Grande from the Spokane Savings bank, the liquidator, for $23,400 and that he had assumed more than $33,000 in taxes due on the structure.

Leonard Lund returned this week from Roseburg where he received medical aid at the Veterans hospital and reports he is much improved. Herbert Koeppe, who has been at the Community hospital for some time receiving treatment for influenza, has recovered sufficiently to return to his home here.

while doing electric welding. Mrs. Carlos Maguire returned Sunday from Grants Pass hospital where she has been on duty as extra nurse for several days. Guy Bates received medical treatment Thursday evening in Grants Pass for a badly burned eye, injured

WELCOME JUBILEE VISITORS!

Shows Today at 1:45 - 3:15 7:00 - 9:00	RIALTO	Adults 25c Kiddies 10c
-------------------------------------------------	---------------	-----------------------------------------------

TODAY and MONDAY PAGAN LOVES LIVE AGAIN!

THE SCREEN UNITES A PRIMITIVE PAIR!

She brought to his trembling lips the kisses . . . and to his wondering heart the ways of love she had learned from the White Man . . . and while he sang "The Call of Love" under the desert stars, they yielded to its haunting spell!

Ramon NOVARRO and Luscious LUPE VELEZ

Pagan lover . . . and Pagan firebrand . . . united for the first time in the picturization of the Oliver La Farge Pulitzer Prize Novel. . .

Laughing BOY

ADDED ATTRACTIONS
The Ritzy Brothers in "Anchovy Hotel"
"Shadows of Peiping" — Pathe Newsreel

Mrs. Westerlund Operates Holland

The Holland Hotel has been taken over by its former owners. The hotel will be operated hereafter under the management of Mrs. Ella C. Westerlund. It is Mrs. Westerlund's intention to redecorate the building and give the patrons of the hotel improved first-class service in all respects. The coffee shop will continue under its present management.

Election Expense

SALEM, Ore., June 2.—(AP) Carl Abrams, who sought the Republican nomination for secretary of state, spent $795.68 on his own campaign, he reported to the secretary of state today.

Portland, Ore., June 2.—(AP)—A bid of $339,395 for relocation of about six miles of the Spokane, Portland and Seattle railway, necessitated by construction of the Bonneville Columbia river dam, was submitted by P. L. Crooks & Co. of Portland at yesterday's bid opening by United States engineers.

SALEM, Ore., June 2.—(AP)—Oregon has been allotted an additional annual appropriation of $23,817 for vocational education under the George-Eisey act, according to information received by the state board for vocational education today. This sum will supplement the $57,325 already provided under the Smith-Hughes act.

WELCOME JUBILEE VISITORS!

Shows Today
at
1:45 - 3:15
7:00 - 9:00

CRATERIAN

Mats. 25c
Eves. 35c
Kiddies
10c

STARTING TODAY!

After two years - A STORY BIG ENOUGH for their REUNION!...

Sweethearts again . . . in a glorious love story that embodies all the poignant emotions of life and romance . . . a drama of epic struggle and inspiration in the skyscraper world of Manhattan . . . breathing the turmoil . . . the tangled loves . . . the petty hates and jealousies . . . the handicaps . . . chaos and confusion that are the very soul of the metropolis!

JANET GAYNOR CHARLES FARRELL

... Together Again In ...

CHANGE of HEART

And Two Popular Favorites with Them!

JAMES DUNN

GINGER ROGERS

ADDED
Leon Errol in
"NO MORE BRIDGE"

ADDED
Borrah Minnervitch
and His Harmonica
Rascals
Movietone
News

From Kathleen Norris' "Manhattan Love Song"

THE GEORGIA MINSTRELS ARE COMING TO TOWN!

DYNGE'S
DANCE
Oriental Gardens
SMALL HALL
EVERY NIGHT
JUBILEE WEEK