

King Kong Cox and Charley Hanson on Jubilee Mat Card Tonight

DOUBLE PROGRAM ALSO PITS THYE, PETE BELCASTRO

Thrilling Grapple Assured When Cox Steps Into Ring — Farce Preliminary to Start at 8:30 o'Clock

Stronger ropes were being installed today in the armory ring, scene of Oregon's Diamond Jubilee wrestling smoker tonight. The precaution is being taken in view of Ted (King Kong) Cox's part in the ring program in meeting Charles Hansen, Seattle bone crusher, as a part of a double main event.

King Kong has been strutting around Medford all day telling the world how little regard he has for Hansen's ability, declaring he expects to take two straight falls. Friends of Hansen say Cox is taking in too much territory. King Kong, who thinks Hansen is all that is necessary to win any match, plans to throw Hansen from one side of the ring to the other, catching him on the bounce from the ropes. This is one reason why they were strengthened, although Hansen declares there is little need for this. Hansen is considered as one of the smartest wrestlers in the game.

Pete Belcastro, Sacramento, Calif., whose Italian blood has been boiling for months for a chance to meet Ted Thye of Portland, will realize that ambition this evening. Thye has consented to meet the ambitious Italian boy, whose ring victories have been coming with surprising regularity. These men, tipping the scales around the 200 pound mark, will wrestle for one hour.

"You might quote me as saying that I am fully prepared to defend myself against the wiles of Hollywood," Bob (Man Mountain) Burns said in an exclusive interview this afternoon, on the eve of his match with "Spec" O'Donnell of movie fame as the opener of the card. Burns, whose lumbering has made him locally famous, is a "small" fellow weighing around 270 pounds, all of which he can gracefully handle. O'Donnell, whose heavy 118 pounds have been appearing in movies for 11 years, realizes the seriousness of the match and has been undergoing special training to show the local pride that Hollywood can take care of itself in the square circle.

It is probable that Major Arthur, Medford's smallest man, 80 inches tall and 80 pounds heavy, will be "Man Mountain's" second while Eddie Demmer, one of Medford's biggest, will second O'Donnell.

MRS. THOMPSON WILL PLAY TITLE HOLDER

It was announced at the Rogue River Valley golf course today that Mrs. J. C. Thompson will play the defending title-holder, Mrs. R. B. Smith, in the finals of the Murray trophy tournament, the date for which has not been definitely set. The regular ladies' day competition of next Wednesday has been postponed due to the Jubilee tournaments.

The winners of the ladies' ringer tournament, which has been played from April 15 to June 1, were also announced. First place went to Mrs. Larry Schade, who scored a net 63, a 64, Mrs. J. O. Thompson third with a 65, and Mrs. George Coddling fourth with a 66.

Prospect sought revenge on Sam's Valley and trimmed them 29-6 last Sunday. Dewey Hill, Prospect first sacker, stole the show by clouting a homer with one man on.

The game was played on the new Prospect diamond located near the Coppo plant. Prospect won from Eagle Point 13 to 2 a week ago, and is ready to play any team in the valley. Arrangements may be made with Dewey Hill of Prospect.

banquet at the armory attended by 200 veterans and their ladies. Commander Van Zandt and Nominee Dunne, also made short talks at the affair.

A parade is listed for this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Delegates report that owing to the longshoremen's strike, many members of Portland posts were unable to attend the local sessions.

This evening there will also be initiation of new members, and an initiation by the "Cooties"—the play wing of the organization. Among those scheduled to "scratch" are District Attorney George A. Coddling. The various committees as appointed yesterday are:

Legislative Committee
M. C. Day, chairman, Portland; F. W. Jones, Independence; W. E. McGuffin, Portland; Joe Woods, Medford; R. B. Huntley, Eugene.

Ways and Means Committee
E. J. Welch, chairman, Eugene; E. E. Larso, Newport; Joe Kohler, Portland; Edward Hines, Roseburg; Otto Welas, Portland.

Resolution Committee
Ward Cummings, chairman, Roseburg; Wallace Jenkins, Newport; A. C. McConnell, Grants Pass; Jens Thomsen, Portland; George Kennedy, La Grande.

Reception Committee
B. H. Conley, chairman, Salem; A. L. Newgard, Portland.

PORTLAND GROUP HERE IN MORNING

The following telegram was received today by A. S. Rosenbaum, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific:

"Portland chamber of commerce party approximately 55 headed by Mr. and Mrs. Phil L. Jackson arrive Medford at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Delegation will wear blue and purple badges. It is estimated Portland firms will be represented by 200 or more people in Medford during the Jubilee, many of whom arriving on different days or by private automobiles."

FIVE NURSES CARE FOR QUINTRUPLETS

CORBELL, Ont., June 5.—(AP)—Five nurses attended the five tiny Dionne sisters today, as they began their eighth day of life.

Constant attention is given the infants, all of them below normal weight and afflicted with an attack of jaundice.

A new incubator also reached the humble Dionne farm home. The smallest baby, Marie, who weighs but one pound ten ounces, is receiving special care in one incubator while her four sisters occupy another.

Dr. A. R. Dafos continued hopeful for the lives of his little charges, but pointed out their situation was hazardous.

PORTLAND STAR TAKES JUBILEE TENNIS TROPHY

Elwood Cook Defeats Wayne Sabin in Brilliantly Played Final Match of Jubilee Celebration Sport Classic

Displaying the most brilliant tennis that has been exhibited on local courts, Elwood Cook, 19-year-old Portland star, and dark horse entrant of the Oregon Diamond Jubilee tennis tournament, defeated Wayne Sabin, Canadian amateur champion, 6-4, in the deciding set of the singles finals yesterday, and was awarded the silver cup designating the tournament championship.

The battle lasted three hours, with Cook dropping the first set 6-2, and coming back to reverse the score on the second. The match started slow, with both players watching every stroke, and waiting for breaks. In the deciding set, Cook tightened down on the consistent Sabin, and was leading, 8-2, before the Canadian champion rallied to take one more game, before losing the next for the match.

Both players showed reserve speed that cropped out in occasional rallies, and played consistently up to the final point. Cook showed signs of strain during the deciding set, but held up under the tension with a brilliant performance, holding back his deadly drives until certain of a point, then unleashed a powerful stroke that caught Sabin off his guard. Each player returned shots with sure accuracy, and in one rally the ball crossed the net 94 times without a miss.

"It was luck," and "Sabin was off form," were the modest statements with which the Portland youth accepted the championship cup.

In the fast doubles finals, Jimmy Johnson of Portland and Sabin defeated Cook and Wesley Hartman, also of Portland, for the doubles championship. The winning players each received a Diamond Jubilee cup. Steaming drives marked the encounter, which was played in bursts of speed and fast rallies.

The tournament brought together tennis stars from all points of Oregon and champions of several north-west conferences, in the biggest event of its kind to be staged in this city.

The semi-finals of yesterday's singles matches paired Sabin against Johnson, and Cook against Hartman, all of whom are from Portland. Sabin defeated Johnson, 6-4, 6-2, and Cook beat Hartman 5-2, 4-6, 5-1.

In the semi-finals of the doubles match, Sabin and Johnson beat Rex Applegate, Roseburg and Central Oregon champion, and Kemp, of Bend, 6-4, 6-2. Cook and Hartman defeated Carter Boggs and Bud Deuel, the only local contestants to reach the semi-final stages of the tournament, 6-2, 6-1.

The Jubilee committee, which was in charge of the tournament, consisted of H. G. Wilson, chairman, Leo Glascock, Wilsie Pruitt, Boggs and Deuel.

Rects New Sign—A new "City Hall" sign has been erected on the front of the building at the corner of Fifth and Central streets, having been constructed by City Superintendent Fred Scheffel. The letters are aluminum color, with black-edges, mounted on a dark blue background.

COW ASSISTS IN SCORING BIRDIE

It isn't every golfer on the Rogue Valley golf course who can tee off on the 13th, play billiards on the rebounding ribs of a cow, and score a birdie. This is the boast of Ralph Bardwell, who did just that in the first round of the Diamond Jubilee golf tournament Sunday. Bardwell, whose score was approaching the century mark as he neared the 13th green, with a fence marking the bounds on the right side of the fairway, clouted a shot over the dividing line. It plumped fairly against the sleek side of his friend cow, grazing placidly in her own territory, and bounced in a graceful curve back onto the fairway.

Instead of an eight, Bardwell marked a birdie on his score card. Dance at Rogue Elk Saturday night, June 9.

Oregon Weather

Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; little change in temperature; variable winds.

ASTORIA, Ore., June 5.—(AP)—O. K. Alwood, city auditor, was appointed city manager and auditor of Astoria at the meeting of the city commission here last night. The appointment is effective June 15. City Manager George Garrett recently submitted his resignation, effective after June 1.

George W. Gauthier, 80, has taken up art at a CWA art class conducted by the St. Paul society of artists.
