

Roundup Provides Many Thrills Jubilee Visitors

DARING COWBOYS, UNTAMED HORSES DO THEIR STUFF

Riders Fall in Mud As Wild Mounts Refuse to Surrender—Roping Contests Bring Out Fast Time

Living up to all expectations, Oregon's Diamond Jubilee roundup, presented for the first time yesterday afternoon at the fairgrounds, thrilled throngs of spectators with some of the best riding, bulldozing, calf-roping and fancy roping ever seen in southern Oregon.

Cowboys flaked like mud and limb on a muddy arena in hectic competition which attracted the best in the rodeo world. The untamed broncs of the prairie tossed cowboys off with an ease which even astounded their riders. There was Billy The Kid, the champion wild horse of all roundups. He has never been ridden and yesterday afternoon again demonstrated that age has not impaired his ability.

Blondie Bruzell, Chinook, Mont., attempted to ride him and stayed in the saddle exactly four seconds. Bruzell hardly emerged from the shoot on the outlaw's back until his nose was tugging the mud and sawdust of the arena. Billy The Kid went prancing down to the other end, and once or twice seemed to be howling to the spectators for applause.

Numerous riders felt the touch of Mother Earth while others endured the necessary ten seconds of saddle torture. Screw Driver, another mean one, threw his man, Dale Kennedy, and while so doing went through all the motions of the popular convention for which he was named.

Due to rules making the horse riding a two-day winner affair, the winners will not be announced until tomorrow. Riders who performed to advantage yesterday included Harry Logue of Newhall, Calif.; Dale Kennedy, Denver, Colo.; Dolf Aber, Sheridan, Wyo.; Park Carroll, Pinehurst, Ore.; Tom Bride, Miles City, Mont.; Chuck Wilson, Amarillo, Texas; Bartleman, Arlington, Ore.; Smokey Moran, Santa Rosa, Calif.

An all-time southern Oregon bulldozing record was made by Erwin Collins, Burbank, Calif., when he threw his steer in 3-5 seconds. He made a perfect throw. Johnnie Drayner, Livingston, Calif., took second in 18-4-5 seconds, while Hollway Grace, Eugene, Calif., came in third in 19-3-5 seconds.

Steele, imported from Old Mexico, made their first American appearance in Medford featuring their bucking legs in the first event of the afternoon's program. Bob Lock, a veteran cowboy, took first place. He rode his bouncing, horned steers for the length of the arena. Jack Brown took second money for the honor of Newhall, Calif. Tom Bride was ambitious to take first but was satisfied with third. There were a dozen other riders in this event.

Energetic calves made the calf roping contest plenty of work for the numerous contestants in the second event. Lloyd Anderson, Bonora, Calif., roped his calf in 19 seconds. Dewey Hinton, Brawley, Calif., took second money in 25 seconds, while Al Allen, Los Angeles, placed third in 32 seconds.

Bareback broncs gave the crowd a plenitude of roundup thrills. Riders were spilled freely. Dave Hart was one of the lucky ones to stick on and finish. In first money, followed by Fox O'Gallahan, second, and Shorty Lee, third.

Buff Jones, Hollywood, Calif., Pacific coast trick roper, and Buff Brady, Northwest champion, presented one of the most difficult trick roping exhibitions seen in this section. Their act was a revelation to the many spectators. They will perform again tomorrow afternoon. Trick riding was another feature of the afternoon, presenting Polly Dryer, Livingston, Calif., Pete Genant, Napa, Calif., Donna Cowan, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Buff Brady, Seattle, Wash. They presented feats almost too difficult to believe possible.

BABE IN POUT BECAUSE MATES SEEK BENCHING

By BILL KING
Associated Press Sports Writer,
BOSTON, June 7.—(AP)—These reports that his Yankee teammates consider him a drag anchor have so upset the usually phlegmatic Babe Ruth that he has benched himself until his bruised feelings heal.

The Babe, hitting over 300 and fielding in his customary flawless fashion, despite an ailing ankle, is his own boss, says Manager Joe McCarthy. "Me bench Ruth?" demanded McCarthy. "Why, I did no such thing. You may say for me that he is a regular member of my club. He plays when he feels like it and rests when he wants to."

Although several of his Yankee friends have assured him that they desire to have him out of the lineup is far from general. Ruth is deeply hurt that anyone would wish to see him benched.

"I don't think that is the way to treat a fellow who has given as much to baseball as I have," complained the Babe. "I have been having some trouble with my ankle, but I don't think I am washed up yet. This is going to be my last season as a player, but if I thought I was hindering the Yankees by playing, I could not throw off the uniform fast enough."

When the Babe decided to see the doubleheader with the Red Sox from the bench yesterday, McCarthy sent 24-year-old Myril Hoag to left field and this Newark-trained product amazed the 21,000 cash customers, most of whom paid to see Ruth perform, by hitting safely the first seven of his 11 times at bat.

Medford Going to Grants Pass With Hope of Pulling Out in Front—Klamath Teams Playing at Home

Games Sunday
Medford at Grants Pass.
Ewauna at Shaw Bertram.
Medford Rogues will journey to Grants Pass next Sunday to battle Ken Williams' Grants Pass Merchants in the feature game of the southern Oregon circuit while at Klamath Falls, Shaw Bertram and Ewauna resume their inter-city series which began last week with a 4-1 win for Ewauna.

The Rogue-Merchant game, originally scheduled for Medford, has been shifted to the Cave city because of the Jubilee pageant platform erected at the Jackson county fairgrounds.

Medford and Grants Pass, who both drew bye last Sunday, will enter their game with the undisputed Southern Oregon league leadership at stake. Both teams have won 4 and lost 2 games for the top spot dead-end on Long Island. The fighters have been training for almost two months. And now Baser, the challenger, to the absolute consternation of the garden and the champion, asks for a week's postponement so that he may get in better condition.

The date has been set for months—one week from tonight, fifteen rounds in Madison Square garden's down on Long Island. The fighters have been training for almost two months. And now Baser, the challenger, to the absolute consternation of the garden and the champion, asks for a week's postponement so that he may get in better condition.

Beel and his manager, Ancil Hoffman, and his advisor, Jack Dempsey, will appear at the New York state athletic commission offices Friday to plead for the delay, with Carners and his handlers, the Garden and possibly a few legal lights, objecting just as strenuously, and just a little panicky.

Williams, Grants Pass manager, will probably start his ace hurler, Nelson, on the mound with Al Droulette behind the bat. However, it would not be too surprising if the wily former major leaguer placed Earhart, a southpaw, in the box to bend his curves against the six left handed hitters appearing in the Rogue batting order.

Medford's manager, Hal Haight, has as yet not decided whether it will be Jack Hughes or Cliff McLean who will take the rubber for the Rogues. If it is Hughes, McLean will do the receiving and if the Indian huris, Dean Joy will bear the catching burden.

Medford's chief job will be to put a halt to the wild batting streak of Al Droulette and Ogle, who are leaving the other Southern Oregon league hitters far behind. Of the 47 hits the Merchants have collected in six games, Ogle and Droulette have garnered 21 of them and if Medford pitchers can stop the two wild men, the Rogues should advance to the top of the heap.

With Medford and Grants Pass inactive last Sunday due to a bye in the schedule, no important changes were seen in the Southern Oregon league batting averages.

Al Droulette, Grants Pass catcher continues to lead the league with a mark of .524 followed by Ogle, also of Grants Pass with .416. Paul Hoffard heads the Medford players by pestering opposing pitchers for a .357 average.

Wakeman continues to lead the Shaw Bertram regulars with a mark of .333 while Kiger jumped into a tie with Wheeler to top the Ewauna players; each hitting .350.

Revised pitching averages show Nelson, Grants Pass, atop the league heap with three wins and one loss to his credit. Revision of averages came when it was found that Earhart, instead of Nelson, lost the game at Medford, April 29. Leaving the game in the fourth inning with the bases loaded and the score 4-3 in favor of Grants Pass, Earhart should have been charged with the loss, as Medford finally won, instead of Nelson, who relieved him. As it happened, Earhart left the game with the tying and winning runs on base, which runs scored that inning when Santee dropped Hoffard's long fly. As Earhart was responsible for men on base at the time of his departure from the game, he is therefore charged with the loss.

Official Southern Oregon League pitching averages follow:

Player	G.	W.	L.	Pct.
Nelson, G.P.	5	3	1	.750
McLean, Med.	5	2	1	.667
Hughes, Med.	3	2	1	.667
Earhart, G.P.	3	1	1	.500
Stanish, S.B.	2	2	0	.400
Carstrom, Ewa.'s	1	4	0	.000
Gilman, S.B.	2	0	1	.000

HILLSBORO, Ore., June 7.—(AP)—Earl Belt, 20, was killed near here today when an automobile driven by Charles Vanderzaden, 23, overturned in a ditch. Vanderzaden was not injured. Belt suffered a broken neck.

Have First Aid Station—The Jackson County Relief committee has provided the assistance for a first aid station which has been established in the Sparta building. The committee also constructed the benches along Main street for the parade, and built the bleachers for the pageant at the fairgrounds.

EDWARDS DRAWS WITH FORSGREN

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—(AP)—Neither could gain more than one fall and the one-hour wrestling match between Billy Edwards and Jack Forsgren here last night ended in a draw.

During their rough bout a ring-ender hit Edwards behind the ear. Like an elephant that never forgets, Edwards made his assailant with his eye and when the opportunity came he shot a left hook which transplanted the ring-ender to the third row.

Edwards, 210, Kansas City, gained a fall by a headlock after Forsgren, 220, Vancouver, B. C., took the first one with a Boston grab.

Ted Cox, 230, Lodi, Cal. took the first and third falls to win from John Freiberg, 230, Chicago, with a wrist-lock. Bob Kruse, 210, Oswego, defeated Jack League, 212 San Antonio, Texas, in the second round of their bout.

Swimming's COLLEGE RATING IN BALANCE
EUGENE, Ore.—(UP)—Whether swimming is recognized as an intercollegiate sport at University of Oregon next year depends on the ruling of the state board of higher education on compulsory student body fees.

Swimming was an intercollegiate sport for many years, but was dropped when the financial stability of the student body declined. Recently the state attorney general held the student body had no authority to make fee collections compulsory.

BIG LEAGUE SCOUTS EYE HARVARD HURLER

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(UP)—Several big league scouts are watching the progress of Eddie Loughlin, star pitcher of the Harvard college nine. Loughlin, a senior, was having a perfect season until Cornell beat him on only three hits.

When Charley Devens, now with the New York Yankees, was Harvard's first-string hurler, Loughlin used to double in the infield and the pitcher's box. Though he weighs only 125 pounds, Loughlin has remarkable stamina and control.

Genant is also the clown of the performance, with his pet burro, Harry. One of the dark horses of the roundup is Jack Talbert of Montana, who will be appearing tomorrow and next day. He is scheduled for broncs and steer riding.

Monie Reger, master of ceremonies, and his champion, Longhorn steer, worth $10,000, were another of the numerous features of the program. Reger put the animal through numerous tests. Due to the slippery condition of the field, he was unable to jump over automobiles but made several good jumps this afternoon.

The roundup held attention of all spectators yesterday afternoon and today's performance, making it one of the outstanding features of Jubilee week.

PRIMO RESISTS DELAYING FIGHT

NEW YORK, June 7.—(AP)—This heavyweight title duel of Max Baer and Primo Carnera that once could summon up thrilling visions of high drama at the mere mention of their names has taken on a kind of comic opera aspect—and pretty low comedy at that, if you ask the huge Italian champion.

The date has been set for months—one week from tonight, fifteen rounds in Madison Square garden's down on Long Island. The fighters have been training for almost two months. And now Baser, the challenger, to the absolute consternation of the garden and the champion, asks for a week's postponement so that he may get in better condition.
