

GRANTS PASS WIN SENDS ROGUES TO SECOND POSITION

Single by Ken Williams in Ninth Inning Gives 8 to 7 Victory and Undisputed Leadership of League

KLAMATH FALLS, June 11.—(AP)—Sunday score: Grants Pass 8, Shaw Bertram 1.

(By Billy Hulen)

Ken Williams, pinch hitting in the last of the ninth inning with the score tied and two men on base, rapped out a high hopping infield single to score Merv Chastain with the run that gave his Grants Pass Merchants a thrilling 8-7 victory over the Medford Rogues yesterday afternoon at Grants Pass.

The game, played before one of the largest crowds in Grants Pass history, saw the Merchants advance to undisputed Southern Oregon League first place and Medford drop to second.

Fighting from behind twice in earlier innings, Grants Pass finally won out in the ninth when, with the score knotted at seven all, Droulette started it off with a single to right. Glpe dived, putting Chastain running for Droulette. On second Garrett sacrificed and then Williams hit Hughes' first pitch to shortstop and the game was over.

After-game guessing, it appears that Hal Haight's managerial strategy was very questionable. Instead of intentionally walking Williams, for years one of the greatest hitters in the National league, and filling the bases so as to get the stage for a double play, there being one out at the time, he decided to let Williams hit, which he did and for the ball game. Strength is lent to that by the fact that coming up after Williams was the tall end of the batting order.

Both starting pitchers, Earhart for Grants Pass and McLean for Medford were battered from the box. Earhart in the sixth was singled by White, Joy and Reinking and McLean's triple to left center accounted for three runs and McLean in the fifth when two errors by Joania, a walk to McCarthy and singles by Wade, Droulette and Blevins scored four times for the Merchants.

TWO TRAGEDIES IN SPEEDBOATS

LAKE ELSINORE, Calif., June 11.—(AP)—Catapulted by sudden lurches from roaring speedboats, two Los Angeles men drowned in Lake Elsinore on what was to have been a gala race day.

John Swanson, 45, mechanical engineer, was hurled into the lake yesterday as he spun around the course in his step-daughter's boat, the Catalina Meow, in preparation for the races.

Five hours later, after the races had been called off by Referee Lee C. Leming of Anaheim, Walter P. Seager, 23, was catapulted into the water as his outboard capsized.

The accident to Seager occurred while the lake still was being dragged for Swanson's body. Both drowned before aid could reach them.

BALLYHOO CENTERS FAN INTEREST ON BIG FIGHT

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 11.—(AP)—For a fight in which one principal allegedly hasn't worked hard enough to get up a sweat and the other now is reported to be overtrained, Primo Carnera's heavyweight title defense against Max Baer is doing right well from a box office standpoint.

The advance sale today was understood to be a shade under $200,000 with indications of a "gate" of $400,000 or more by the time the boxers enter the ring of Madison Square Garden's Long Island box Thursday night.

Designed perhaps as a counter-irritant for the adverse criticism attending Baer's training camp clowning at Aabury park, advices from Pompton lakes began to stress the fear that Carnera might be overtrained. Veteran boxers were quoted to the effect that the giant champion seemed to have reached the peak too soon. There was much headshaking. It was all not very subtle. The more cynically minded readers of news from the rival camps decided that both would enter the ring in prime condition.

Leonard Wood, Wellton, Ariz., took third in the bronco riding. Vera McGinnis of Roscoe, Calif., was carried from the grounds with a broken hip and possible internal injuries after her mount in a relay race fell with her. Merrill Hansen, Livermore, John Bartram, Hayward, and Smokey Cameron, Livingston, Mont., were less seriously injured as they rolled in the dust.

THYE AND KRUSE MEET THURSDAY ON ARMORY MAT

Next Thursday night's double main event mat held at the armory will bring together four of the toughest and fastest grip and grapple artists on the coast, when Promoter Mack Lillard turns loose Bob Kruse, Oswego brocoli king against another Portlander, Terrible Ted Thye, and Chief Little Wolf, colorful Navajo Indian "deathlock" exponent from Colorado against Louie Miller, fast and furious San Francisco grappler.

Lillard announces that there will be no preliminary to this double header, as he says, and most mat fans agree, that it is better to get the best talent on the coast than less colorful fighters in a three-bout show.

Ted Thye saw action here last week on the Jubilee card, when he took two out of three falls from belligerent Pete Belcastro, and is looking around for a tougher prey, which Lillard has attempted to furnish in Bob Kruse, who has a following here from many previous appearances. The brocoli king, who hands out a mean dish of wrestling, is a worthy foe for Thye.

In the first of the double header bouts, Little Wolf and Miller are expected to furnish an equally interesting mixup, as both are fast on their feet, know many a trick of the trade, and stop with nothing short of the ropes. In a bout here two weeks ago, Miller, in fact, didn't step even with the ropes, and applied a vigorous choke-hold with them about Little Wolf's neck. To add to the Indian's disgruntlement, he applied the same hold with a towel, and heaved shoes at the "deathlock" man between times.

Promoter Lillard has announced that the admission has been changed to a uniform price for the entire house and expects a good crowd for the double performance.

MINERS WIN, 7 TO 1 OVER ASHLAND EAGLE NINE ON J'VILLE LOT

The Jacksonville Miners yesterday took Shorty Gosnell's Ashland Eagles 7-1 on the Jacksonville diamond in a fast game featured by Miner Pitcher Bill Hammerley's 17 strikeouts.

Lone tally for the Lithians came in the fourth when Kanasto walked, followed by singles by Stevenson and Jungworth. In last half of the same frame the Miners started their scoring when Coker singled, followed by Coffman's one-base bingle. Hammerley walked, to load the bases, and Pitcher Gosnell walked Farrell, scoring Coker. St. Johnson, youthful gold-digging catcher, drove a hard single that scored Coffman and Hammerley, leaving two on. Manager Hall then led the game with a home run to right field, scoring Farrell and Johnson ahead of him. Gosnell surrendered mound duties to Kanasto at this point.

Kanasto, in his four innings of work, was scored on once, and secured eight strikeouts with his fast ball. Heavy stickwork for the Miners was handled by Hammerley, who connected twice in three trips, and St. Johnson, who converted four trips into two hits. One a three-bagger, Stevenson, first baseman for Ashland, clouted out two safeties in four chances. Hammerley surrendered but six scattered hits, while Gosnell allowed six of the 10 hits garnered by Jacksonville in first four innings.

The Ashland Eagles, rated one of the strong county teams, last Tuesday defeated the Medford Rogues 11-8 on the Jacksonville field. The Miners next Sunday are slated to be hosts to Prospect on the Jacksonville diamond.

LAST APPLES SHIPPED TO MARKET TO CLEAN OUT 1933 FRUIT CROP

Last of the 1933 apple crop shipments of the Rogue River valley went to market last week. It consisted of 13 cars. Total apple shipments for the season, according to the Southern Pacific railroad, were 201 cars.

Ten days ago, the last carload of pears was dispatched. Season shipments amounted to 2079 cars. Thus in the first week of June has the 1933 fruit crop been cleared from storage and placed on the markets. Pears are now developing fast, according to the county horticulturist, and the prospects of warm weather is encouraging to growers. Mid-July is expected to see the start of harvesting the very early varieties. The season is estimated as three weeks ahead of last year. The cool weather of May checked growth slightly.

The wheat crop prospects were pronounced "good" by County Agent Robert G. Fowler today. The same applies to oats and barley. Justin Judy of Griffin creek says the barley looks better than usual. He will start binding some barley this week. Threshing is scheduled to start soon after the Fourth of July. The hay crop is suffering some from the ravages of weevil, according to the county agent. Cutting of alfalfa is now underway.
