Gilmore Circus at Craterian Sunday

The Gilmore Circus, famous over the NBC network for the past four years as one of the outstanding radio shows on the air, comes to the Craterian theater Sunday for a one-day engagement "in person."

Radio's most dynamic favorites, after being on the air for the past four years, are now making a good-will tour, and have been receiving sensational success in their appearances thus far.

Aunt Addie (above), the Sheriff, Soda Pop, the Barker, the Gilmorettes, Wiley Oats, the Gilmore Clowns and all the other favorites will be with the show.

SNATCH RACKET IS EXPOSED AT ROXY

"The Mad Game" opened at the Roxy theater today. The fact that the story embraces what might be called the country's most menacing crime—kidnaping—stamps the film as one of importance.

Spencer Tracy, who has the leading role, portrays the part of an ex-gangster, who is double-crossed by his associates and railroaded to prison for a five-year term. During his stay in the penitentiary his former aide terrorizes the country with his new-found racket—the snatch racket. Tracy is released from prison to air the government in wiping out the new trend.

R. M. Ray was appointed to the Santa Barbara, Cal., fire department after he had gained a half-inch in height through exercise.

White Robin on Third Visit

LOGAN, Ohio (UP)—A white robin, for the third consecutive year, made its appearance here near the residence of George L. Wright. The bird keeps company with other robins of regular markings and annually constructs a nest and raises a family, all of them regular "redbreasts."

State police were today advised that C. J. Bennett, who was arrested here April 14, this year, has been sentenced to San Quentin state penitentiary in California for a ten year term. Bennett was arrested by state officers here after he had broken from jail in Eureka. He had in his possession at the time of his apprehension a stolen car.

ASHLAND PEANUT SUPPLY SHORT FOR FOURTH JULY

ASHLAND, Ore., June 14.—(UP)—Up to the first of June, G. P. McConnell, proprietor of a local peanut store, sold six tons of peanuts.

Now the townsmen's strike is holding up shipments and he hasn't enough peanuts to last through the Fourth of July.

At the close of the meeting, P. G. Bigham, well known fisherman and chef, will spread one of his famous salmon bakes for the lodgemen
