M. Roberts, my attorney, in the Medford National Bank Building, Rooms 201-203, Medford, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice. Dated at Medford, Oregon, this 18th day of June, 1934. LOUIS PUEHL, Administrator of the Estate of Elizabeth Coultter, deceased.

Phoenix PHOENIX, June 20.—(Sp.)—At the annual school election held here June 18, Bert Stanchiff and Mrs. Marjorie Wilcox were unanimously reflected as director and clerk, respectively. Thursday afternoon, June 21st, the Circle will hold their regular meeting in the form of a memorial service. Important business is to be transacted and all members are urged to attend. Members of Phoenix Circle motored to Ashland Monday night for the presentation of the Grand Guardian's Album to the Acorn Circle of Ashland. Roy Maust of Santa Rosa, Calif., is visiting for two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Maust. He will return to resume his summer work. Miss Leona Schumaker of San Francisco is here for a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. S. Weir. Senior-Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church is planning a cooked food sale in Medford Saturday to raise money for the summer conference. Medford Young People's Society accompanied by their pastor, Rev. W. J. Howell, had charge of the evening services at the Presbyterian church, June 17th. The service was in the form of a summer conference rally. Helen Wilson of Medford presided. Special music was furnished by the Phoenix group, including a violin solo by Bruce Wilson. New teachers at the Daily Vacation Bible school include Wm. Cottrell and Mrs. Frank Marshall. The vacation school will continue through the Friday morning session, followed immediately by a lunch at noon. The picnic arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Bert Stanchiff. Closing exercises of the Bible school will be held Sunday evening, June 24. Plans are being made to have this open with the candlelight worship service in the church auditorium, with the vested junior children's choir. After the worship service there will be three Bible dramatizations in the Sunday school auditorium. The primary department will present "The Baby Moses"; juniors, "Joseph"; and the intermediates, "Good Samaritan." These plays are being worked out by the children themselves as a project. Young People's Christian Endeavor society enjoyed a plunge party and welter roast at Jackson Hot Springs last Saturday evening. The regular meeting of the Thursday club, which was postponed last week, will be held at the club rooms Thursday, June 28. Mildred Ward and Esther Wilson are on the refreshment committee. Florence Graves, accredited Piano Teacher, Studio, 229 No. Oakdale.

Williams Creek WILLIAMS CREEK, June 20.—(Sp.)—Miss Sofia Igo, who has been visiting at the Joe Varner home, has returned to her home at Bend, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howard, Miss Lynnetta Quinlan and her mother, Mrs. W. P. Quinlan of Los Angeles, were dinner guests at the F. E. Wood home Sunday. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Vineyard last week. A pot luck supper was served at the Grange hall Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gibson were reinstated. Mrs. Joe Varner was chosen as a delegate to the state grange, as Master Harry Gorris was unable to attend. The Grange hall was visitors Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Bullington have been picking cherries in Ashland and bringing back some for their neighbors. The small house owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hammond was broken into recently and a quantity of canned fruit and jams stolen. It is thought the theft occurred gradually, as every one in that vicinity was at the hall. The house has not been occupied since the death of Mr. Hammond's mother. Friends are sorry to hear of the injury of Arthur Farrar when his truck load of logs was wrecked near Rich. He lost control of the brakes while going down a hill. One of the logs crashed through the cab, pinning him down. No bones were broken, but severe cuts necessitated several stitches on his head and face. He is in the Jacksonville hospital. Mrs. Lawrence Purdin and Betty visited relatives in Medford from Monday to Thursday last week. Henry Bennett, who has been at the C. W. Roberts home for the last six months, left Monday for Portland.

Foots Creek FOOTS CREEK, June 20.—(Sp.)—The Foots Creek school house, which burned June 15, was built some 25 years ago when C. C. Carr was chairman of the school board, but since the consolidation of this district with Gold Hill four years ago has been used by the Sunday school. It was a well built two-room school and was left well furnished with piano, etc., for the Sunday school. Fred Champlin and sisters, Mrs. Kettie and Mrs. Jones, have given the use of their house for the Sunday school and Sunday school was held there June 17. Their kindness is very much appreciated by the community. Mrs. Floyd Lance entertained the Past Noble Grand club of the Gold Hill Rebekah lodge at her cabin June 14 at a potluck lunch. Meadames Hittle, Ferguson, Hammersey, Carter, Reed, Gorham, Cook and Kell were the members present and Mrs. Marion Lance and Ruth Lance were guests. H. B. Leneve and Robert Holland of Marshfield, who were looking at a mine on Gralla creek, spent several days last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMerick. Mrs. Marion Lance has been confined to her bed for several days with lumbago. Mr. and Mrs. Fallmand and children of Bend returned to their home June 16 after spending a week with Mrs. Fallmand's sister, Mrs. V. Cerveny. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Perfontain and children spent June 17 on Birdseye creek. Mr. Wright and W. Swayne of Brownboro and Clyde Martin of Birdseye creek visited at the George Lince home June 14. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reames sold their service station at Pruitdale and moved here June 17 and will stay with Mrs. Reames' sister, Mrs. McMerick, until they find a location. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ross and daughter, Theresa, of Gold Hill visited with relatives here June 15. Until her recent marriage, Mrs. Ross was Amy Koste. Henry Miller and Joy Davidson left June 19 on a prospecting trip and will be gone several days. Mr. and Mrs. George Koster spent June 17 on Birdseye creek visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ned Coverdale and daughter. Mrs. Victor Birdseye and daughter, Mary, returned home June 14 from the Granta Pass general hospital. Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoe and twin daughters of Granta Pass called at Rivera June 17. Fred Champlin and sisters, Mrs. Kettie and Mrs. Jones, have given the use of their house for the Sunday school and Sunday school was held there June 17. Their kindness is very much appreciated by the community. Mrs. Floyd Lance entertained the Past Noble Grand club of the Gold Hill Rebekah lodge at her cabin June 14 at a potluck lunch. Meadames Hittle, Ferguson, Hammersey, Carter, Reed, Gorham, Cook and Kell were the members present and Mrs. Marion Lance and Ruth Lance were guests. H. B. Leneve and Robert Holland of Marshfield, who were looking at a mine on Gralla creek, spent several days last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMerick. Mrs. Marion Lance has been confined to her bed for several days with lumbago. Mr. and Mrs. Fallmand and children of Bend returned to their home June 16 after spending a week with Mrs. Fallmand's sister, Mrs. V. Cerveny. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Perfontain and children spent June 17 on Birdseye creek. Mr. Wright and W. Swayne of Brownboro and Clyde Martin of Birdseye creek visited at the George Lince home June 14. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reames sold their service station at Pruitdale and moved here June 17 and will stay with Mrs. Reames' sister, Mrs. McMerick, until they find a location. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ross and daughter, Theresa, of Gold Hill visited with relatives here June 15. Until her recent marriage, Mrs. Ross was Amy Koste. Henry Miller and Joy Davidson left June 19 on a prospecting trip and will be gone several days. Mr. and Mrs. George Koster spent June 17 on Birdseye creek visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ned Coverdale and daughter. Mrs. Victor Birdseye and daughter, Mary, returned home June 14 from the Granta Pass general hospital. Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoe and twin daughters of Granta Pass called at Rivera June 17. Mrs. George West of Medford spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Pauline Wahl, and sister, Mrs. Lou Miller.

Foots Creek FOOTS CREEK, June 20.—(Sp.)—The Foots Creek school house, which burned June 15, was built some 25 years ago when C. C. Carr was chairman of the school board, but since the consolidation of this district with Gold Hill four years ago has been used by the Sunday school. Umatilla Harvest Earliest In Years PENDLETON, Ore., June 20.—(AP)—The earliest wheat harvest in Umatilla county in many years is getting under way, with some ranchers in the Echo, Nolin and Pilot Rock sections already in the field, and others ready to begin work soon. Harvesting is expected to be general by July 4, which is the usual time for starting of operations.

Phoenix Endeavor Plans Food Sale The Christian Endeavor Society of the Phoenix Presbyterian church is sponsoring a baked food sale Saturday, June 23. The sale will be held in the Thursday Club rooms in the Eagle building. Phoenix, and proceeds will be used to send delegates to the summer conference at Glendale, Oregon.

Police Men's 'Dogs' DO BETTER IN WHITE SOX NEW YORK.—(UP)—Scores of New York policemen, who have to do a lot of thinking about the welfare of their feet, protested an order forcing them to wear black socks when in uniform. They said white ones "are easier on the feet."

Swimmer Is Drowned AFTER SAFELY ASHORE LABALLE, Ill.—(UP)—Raymond Memme, 16, went swimming; came out of the water safe and sound, stood on the river bank pulling on his trousers; got a foot caught in one of the pants legs; toppled into the water; drowned.

Huge Mastodon's Tooth Found. CONCORDIA, Kan.—(UP)—A mastodon tooth, weighing 12 pounds, has been discovered in a gravel pit near here. Roy Durham, who found the relic of prehistoric days, is active in archaeological research in this part of the state. Durham said the tooth was perfectly preserved, showing the horny grinding surface of the molar, its enamel formation and a huge nerve channel.
