THE GRANGE

Talent Grange

Flag day was observed with a fitting patriotic program at the Talent Grange, Thursday evening, consisting of patriotic songs, a reading "The Yankee Flag," by Mrs. Bates, two bagpipe solos by O. M. Goddard, a talk on "Lincoln and True Patriotism," by Harry Weagant, and a few tricks of magic by Elmer Whipple of Medford. The program closed with a whistling contest, the prize being won by O. M. Goddard.

Lake Creek Grange.

Although farmers of the Lake Creek section are very busy harvesting their hay, Lake Creek grange enjoyed a good attendance at its last meeting.

Since the last writing two weddings have occurred among the grange members, that of Dorotha Meyer and Wallace Ragsdale, both of Lake Creek and Donna Brown of Lake Creek and Donald Young of Eagle Point.

A marriage only a few days prior to these and one previously mentioned in this column was that of Frances Wilson of Sams Valley and Harry Tonn of Lake Creek.

Following these numbers the master's report on the state grange session at Roseburg was given. This account was very interesting and outlined for the members in a comprehensive manner the most important points of the meeting.

Advice to the newlyweds on "How to Preserve a Husband" was read by Beth Zundell. Another number for their benefit was an "Advisory Letter" by Anna Tonn, which was a reading exceptionally well given.

Refreshments were served in honor of the bridesand grooms.

GRANTS PASS TOT DROWNS IN DITCH

GRANTS PASS, June 26.—(Spl.)—Efforts to revive the 16-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ingram, lower river road, after the child fell in an irrigation ditch were unavailing Monday afternoon.

A gas inhalator operated by Dr. R. G. Wilbur and Ward V. Hammond, local California Oregon Power company manager, was used without success for nearly three hours.

It was believed the boy had been in the water only a minute or two when he was taken from the ditch. None of the family knew how the child fell in, though they believed he must have been playing too near the edge.

An invitation is extended to Ladies and Gentlemen to attend a card party Wednesday evening at the Parish hall. Sponsored by St. Ann's Altar Society. Prizes and Refreshments. Admission 25c.

BIBLE SCHOOL AT PHOENIX CLOSES WITH A PAGEANT

A beautiful candlelight worship service, followed by a pageant, marked the closing program Sunday evening, of the Phoenix Community Bible school. The school, participated in by the Christian and Presbyterian churches, was an outstanding success in co-operation and Bible teaching.

Wm. Cottrell and Mrs. Ralph Peterson were in charge of the dramatization of the story of the baby Moses and the stories of the boy Joseph and the Good Samaritan which were interwoven with the memory work of the school in a clever way, and presented before a very large audience as one play.

Between scenes the map, chart and memory work was demonstrated, interspersed with songs and speeches. Little Miss Sanden presented Mrs. W. S. Gilmore with a beautiful gift from the teachers and pupils of the school.

Mrs. Gilmore was also recipient of a poem written by Miss Grace Garrison of the Christian church of Phoenix.

"The Two Painters.

I saw two painters at work one day
And I marveled how each one painted a different way.

I saw one paint on the hearts of men
A dark stamp of hatred and lust and sin.
And I saw where the other had arched the dawn
A mystic bow of new-born gold across my window drawn.

I saw one paint a bare wooden cross
On a naked wind-swept hill,
And I saw the other paint the delicate moss
By the side of a sheltered rill.

I saw one paint the blood and strife
Of a death-strewn field of battle, wild
And I saw the other paint a kingdom of love
In the heart of a little child.
—By Grace Garrison.

PHOENIX GRANGE ENJOYS MAGICIAN

At the Phoenix grange hall Saturday night, an interesting two-hour entertainment was put on by Elmer J. Whipple, well known magician of this section, which was greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

Some "spooky" acts caused much excitement, especially when the "spirit of Jesse James" came forth. Sleight of hand, and several magical tricks were also put on by Mr. Whipple, who was aided in some mental telepathy acts by his wife.

Following the program, dancing was enjoyed the remainder of the evening, and refreshments were served.

Rare Fair Art

Among the rare and priceless exhibits in the Hall of Religion at the new World's Fair is this ivory scepter of a Phoenician king. Inscription on it was written 900 B. C., and shows the Phoenician alphabet in the form it was borrowed by the Greeks, and we in turn received it from the Romans.

HITLER NEAR END OF GERMAN RULE SAYS EXPATRIATE

Nazi Dictatorship Will Be Succeeded by Military Rule Is Belief — Schacht Is Declared Real Ruler

NEW YORK, June 26.—(AP)—The New York Post, in the first of three copyrighted articles by Johannes Steel, says today that Adolph Hitler's rule of Germany has come to an end and that the Nazi dictatorship will be succeeded by a military dictatorship.

Steel predicts these seven steps in Germany:

"1. Tool of forces stronger than himself, Hitler will be stripped of power, possibly within two weeks.

"2Hjalmar Schacht, real ruler of German for the past six months, will remain dictator of economic and commercial policies.

"3. The aged Von Hindenburg will retire.

"4. The former crown prince, or one of the kaiser's grandsons, or Hitler himself, will be made regent or president.

"5. Franz Von Papen or Hermann Wilhelm Goering will become chancellor.

"6. If Hitler is made president, executive power will be vested in the chancellor; if a Hohenzollern becomes regent executive power will be theoretically his.

"7. Fritz Thyssen, steel and power baron, will hold his grip as czar of the Ruhr and Rhine basins."

Steel (the name a nom de plume) was for several years economic advisor abroad for the German ministry of economics. He served as a member of the Prussian diet and later became private secretary to the president of the reichsbank, Hjalmar Schacht. On the day Hitler was appointed chancellor, Steel was arrested and sent to a concentration camp. He escaped, made his way to England and then to America. He has contributed to several American magazines.

ANOTHER CRASH IN UNDERPASS

ASHLAND, June 26.—(Spl.)—Another automobile accident has graced the record of the north railroad undercrossing. Two cars came together in a crash that might have proved serious had it not been for the reduced speed and the angle of the impact beneath the tracks Sunday morning.

The brakes on a car driven by Fred Gordon, of Fort Klamath, locked, and his car, northbound, skidded over to the far side of the road and sideswiped an automobile driven by Louis Hagberg, who had just entered the short "tunnel" beneath the tracks. Both cars were rather seriously damaged, but no one was injured.
