BOOST BENEFITS TO VETS' WIDOWS UNDER NEW BILL

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today approved a bill liberalizing laws covering compensation for World War widows and orphans.

The president also acted upon the farm mortgage moratorium and the railway pension bills, but deferred announcement of their disposition until he could prepare a statement later in the day.

Driving toward a cleanup of government affairs, the president definitely fixed his departure for his Hawaiian cruise for late Sunday afternoon from Annapolis, Md.

Another day at the White House gives him opportunity to look over more completely the personnel for the new stock exchange and communications commissions.

The widows' and orphans' measure was passed shortly before adjournment and had the approval of the administration. Chairman Rankin (D. Miss.) of the house veterans' committee estimated it would cost the government $4,000,000 annually. The act applies to the widows and children of veterans who had a minimum 30 per cent disability rating. The monthly rates are as follows:

with one child, $30; with $4 for each additional child; one child without a mother, $15; two orphan children, $22 equally divided; three orphan children, $30, equally divided, with $3 for each additional child, the total amount to be equally divided.

The total compensation to any one family group is limited to $56 a month. The payment to children is to be dropped at 21 years, provided their education is not completed before they reach 21 years.

Widows who have remarried are not allowed the compensation and those who married veterans who died after July 3, 1931, are not eligible to the compensation.
