MEMBER, THE ORDER OF THE GOLDEN RULE

July Fourth

All the country celebrates July Fourth as the birthday of American Independence; the anniversary of the signing of that brave Declaration that set before the world the doctrine, then strange and startling, that "all men are created equal."

Since that time, that doctrine has become one of nearly universal belief in the civilized world. It is one which this firm practices in the serving of humanity.

"Baby Take a Bow," introducing little Shirley Temple in her first featured role, opens a three-day engagement at the Craterian theater today. With Shirley in the cast are James Dunn and Claire Trevor in an exciting comedy-drama of a youth, a girl, and a baby daughter—and of that family's struggle for happiness against circumstance and suspicion. However, little Shirley's almost unbelievable artistry and ability, brings to the tiny star all the plaudits she so richly deserves.

'SON OF KONG' AT STUDIO TOMORROW

An entirely different type of story than its predecessor, "Son of Kong," which comes to the Studio theater tomorrow, picks up where "King Kong" left off. Carl Denham (Robert Armstrong), stripped of his fame and fortune after Kong has wrecked New York, hears of buried treasure and sets out for Skull Island. He is followed by the girl (Helen Mack) who loves him.
