

BARTLETT PRICES SHOW NO CHANGE THROUGH HOLIDAY

There was no change reported this morning by Bartlett pear buyers in the price of canners pears, and packing house representatives said there was little activity along that line.

Court Hall, representative of a packing concern which the first of the week was offering $35 per ton for the 2 1/2 sizes and $32.50 per ton for run of the orchard, announced Wednesday afternoon that he had been directed to drop the price to $30 per ton—the opening price offer.

Hall reported that he contracted several orchards at the $30 and $32.50 price.

It was also reported Wednesday afternoon that an offer of $1.40 net to the grower had been offered for Comice lots, but had been declined by the growers.

Growers, packers and buyers alike admit that at present the canner Bartlett price situation is uncertain. Some of the growers have been holding for $40 per ton, and a few for $37.50 per ton.

Reports from the California district indicate the same situation exist there, where the price is reported to range from $30 to $35 per ton, with $40 per ton reported for Sacramento River district pears.

A number of fruitmen predict that the Bartlett price situation will be clarified by the end of this week or the first of next.

GRAND JURY TO COMPLETE QUIZ PAMPHLET CASE

The grand jury, Floyd Rose, Central Point, foreman, will reconvene Tuesday, July 10, to take final action in the "Black Political Plot Expedition" pamphlet cases. The grand jury held the cases in abeyance, pending the presentation by the district attorney of important new evidence, bearing upon the authorship of the document.

E. L. Fitch, held in the county jail, and May Murray, at liberty on $1000 bond, are charged with criminal libel, as distributors of the pamphlets. The state authorities seek the "higher-ups."

E. H. Fehl, serving four years in state prison for vote-stealing, is generally credited with penning the pamphlet, which contained a vitriolic and slanderous attack upon the courts, the state police, district attorney, and constituted authority in general. The statement was made therein that "most of the $65,000 expended by Jackson county in squelching the late turmoil was used to fix jurors and witnesses, and handle the court."

The pamphlets were allegedly distributed by Fitch and May Murray on the eve of the May primary.

It also contained an affidavit by a former fellow-convict of Fehl's, in which new names were implicated in the ballot robbery, including an Astoria resident, who loaned Fehl money and took legal steps to recover it.

Oregon's Governor Invites President Roosevelt to Eugene for Famed Oregon Trail Pageant

Franklin D. Roosevelt, president of the United States, will be in Oregon during Eugene's great pioneer epic, "The Oregon Trail," and entreprising officials of the event have sent him a handsome invitation on parchment, urging him to come to the university city for one day. Governor Meier enthusiastically signed the invitation in the name of the state of Oregon. Witnessing the signature are Cal M. Young, Eugene, chairman of the world-famous pioneer parade, and Miss Anne Whitaker, daughter of Oregon's first governor and grand marshal of pioneers for the Oregon Trail.

Philosophy of a New Deal.
To the Editor:

The enigmas of western civilization is how to rationalize social conditions. The answer is to relieve social distress by social reclamation work. Total destruction of a false condition to supersede these conditions with modern housing and modern social service, education in a modern standard of living including hygiene and sanitation, with the addition of the opportunity to engage in profitable work with ample time for healthy recreation will solve the enigmas of western social conditions.

Western to the human heart that put life and action into the philosophy of a new deal, millions have been spent and thousands made happy through emancipation from their enforced degradation, caused by mal-economy, both social and economic. The work has just begun, and will not be complete until every man, woman and child worthy of the name of American has been rescued and their lives rehabilitated so they may enjoy the privileges of liberation from the fear of want, with renewed faith and self-respect restored they will become useful citizens who will adorn the diadem of American democracy.

under the banner of the new deal. A work of emulation in a new deal in Christian work. Among Christian nations, the new deal challenges every practice and precept in all phases of Christian life today. Where do we stand? What of the economic life of industry, its function will be under the ethical code of a new deal, purely utilitarian, the mechanized processes of mass production will be rescued from the degrading influences of destructive competition, and hours work and service humanized to harmonize with the new ideal of life in a new era of American democracy, leading her people onward and upward to a healthier appreciation of the blessed privileges of liberty in the pursuit of happiness in democratic America, the land then of the free and the brave. That was the ideal that was dynamic in the faith of our own fathers. What is yours? Let us freely give of our money, time and effort to be able to know the blessing of a thrill that is honest and true when we sing My Country 'Tis of Thee. Under the heading of the new deal lies the death of any other banner that the death of the pride of every American. For we will become the sordid slaves of a soulless mechanical order whose God is mammon. What will you, you shall be, freeman or slave. That's what Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture meant when he said that world economic conditions made it necessary for our people to adopt a new mental attitude toward each other, and toward the people of other nations.

Vacation Meals

"Vacation meals" Come to think of it, aren't you hungrier when on vacation than almost any other time in the year? Either the change in environment or having nothing else to do at definite times, or the exercise in fresh air, or something—anyway, you are pretty sure to look forward to good food during vacation. So, that to me is vacation. It certainly does not mean a vacation from meals! However, she who prepares the meals can quite easily plan a particular type of meal which will be entirely satisfactory and, at the same time, give her more freedom from close supervision and long time preparation of these meals. On really filling hot dish, a good, crisp salad, hot bread (refrigerator rolls or buttered toast) and there you are. Or, perhaps, you've been overlooking the good old waffle iron for supering through the summertime. Creamed chicken, (or what have you) served on sections of crisp hot waffles may so easily be the important part of any summer dinner. What goes before or after is only incidental. Why not line up all the mechanical help you have and use it all this summer so that you too may enjoy vacation meals? One day use the Thrift Cooker; another day the broiler pan will prepare a delicious hamburger, or a good steak. Iron always ready to use for breakfast, lunch or supper. The complete oven dinner, automatically cooked and including meat, vegetables and even a good, fresh pie is perfect for cooler days. And potatoes, what a pleasure! 24 hours of each day. Cold cooking is the "other half" of cold cooking these days. Don't pass up any of the things it can do for you. If you are going on a picnic, be sure to take along your portable cooker or portable casserole. The food will taste doubly good when served attractively out of these containers.
Noodle Casserole
Cook 2 cups of noodles in boiling, salted water until tender.
Heat a small amount of butter and in it brown the noodles. Rub casserole with clove of garlic and butter, add the noodles and 2 cups of diced cooked meat, (veal, ham, chicken, or a combination). Season to taste, and bake either in the oven or cooker for one hour at a low heat, (325 degrees). Serve out of the baking dish with hot rolls and a green salad.
Fried Cornmeal Mush
Make a quantity of cornmeal mush, using the Thrift Cooker. Remove and chill. When ready to use it, slice and fry to a golden brown. (This may be done in the grill or waffle iron at the table.) If you wish you may dip each slice in beaten egg and cracker crumbs before frying.
Serve with maple syrup, heated honey or marmalade. Sliced cold meat and a green salad out of the refrigerator completes this dish.
Escalloped Corn and Oysters.
2 cans yellow corn,
2 eggs.

2 cups oysters,
1/4 can milk,
Buttered crumbs.
Place a layer of corn in the bottom of the baking dish then alternate layers of corn and oysters and season to taste. Cover the top with a layer of buttered crumbs. Cover and bake one hour at 325 degrees. Serve with fresh tomatoes stuffed with cold slaw (out of the refrigerator) and some spiced fruits.
Thrift Cooker No. 1

"City" chicken legs.
New potatoes, steamed.
Whole carrots,
Green apple sauce.
Brown the chicken legs (alternate inch square pieces of pork and veal on skewers) either in a frying pan or in the thrift cooker. Place the perforated rack over the meat and arrange the peeled potatoes and carrots around a covered dish containing the sliced green apples. Sweeten the apples to taste. Leave heat on "high" until steaming, then switch to "low" for one hour.

Swiss steak.
Buttered onions,
Sweet potatoes,
Ginger pudding.
Pork chops, (seasoned) into steak and brown on both sides, using either cooker or frying pan. Over this then pour 2 cups of tomatoes or a cup of hot sauce with a cup of water. Add 2 T chopped onions. Place rack over this combination and on it set the sweet potatoes (peeled or with skins), peeled onions with butter in centers and the pudding mixture in a steamer. (A good sized baking powder can with top will do.) Leave heat on "high" until steam appears through vent then turn to "low" for one hour.
Broiler Pan "Mixed Grill."
Pork chops,
Baked apples,
Baked potato,
Broiled tomatoes.
Make patties of boiled rice, seasoned to taste with a piece of butter on each one. Slice apples one-half inch thick, leaving peeling on. Cover the tomato halves with buttered crumbs. Place patties and apples on greased broiler pan and the chops and tomatoes on the greased rack. Preheat the top element to bright red and set pan close up to it. Leave the door open and turn the meat when it is well browned. Serve on plates heated in the lower part of oven while broiling is done.

Standard Waffle Recipe.
2 c flour,
4 t baking powder,
1/4 t salt,
2 T sugar,
2 eggs,
1 1/2 c milk,
6 T melted butter.
Sift dry ingredients together. Beat eggs and add with milk to dry mixture. Beat until smooth then add melted butter and fold in beaten whites. Bake 4 minutes in preheated iron.
(After pouring in iron you may add slices of bacon, 1/2 cup of chopped ham, 1/2 cup chopped dates or some other bit of flavored food to change the appearance and taste occasionally.) A portion of coarse flour or breakfast flour in place of some of the flour makes quite a different flour, especially good to serve with meat.

F. R. WILL GREET HAITI PRESIDENT

ABOARD U. S. S. GILMER, ACCOMPANYING PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, July 5.—(AP)—President Roosevelt cruised leisurely along the northern shores of ancient Haiti to a rendezvous today with President Steno Vincent of the island republic.

After a successful Fourth of July fishing on choppy Bahama waters, President Roosevelt was scheduled to receive President Vincent at noon aboard the cruiser Houston.

President Vincent, who went to Washington recently to visit Mr. Roosevelt, planned to board the cruiser off Cape Haitien, beneath the Green Island Mountains.
The president had a good haul in his five hours of fishing on the Fourth with his sons, Franklin D. Jr., and John Roosevelt.
