FARMERS & FRUITGROWERS BANK
(Deposits Insured.)

SALEM, July 5.—(P)—William Enzig, state purchasing agent and secretary of the board of control, was limping about the statehouse today as the result of bruises suffered in an automobile accident late last night.

East Texas rose growers supply almost half the nation's rose bushes.

Rialto Star

Tim McCoy, always portrayed as a man of action in the thick of adventure, crashes through to new thrills in "A Man's Game," on the Rialto theater's double feature program for tomorrow and Saturday. "Man's Game" shows McCoy living the dangerous life of a firefighter in a big city. Evalyn Knapp has the leading feminine role. On the same program, John Wayne will be shown in a western drama, "The Man from Utah."

Roxy Comedians

The opening of "Horse Play" this afternoon at the Roxy theater, co-starring Slim Summerville and Andy Devine, introduces a new male comedy team of double-barreled proportions. "Horse Play" is a perfect medium for the drollery of the well-known Slim Summerville, Andy Devine, cast as his cowboy pal, hits to the occasion, proving the perfect foil.

Locale of the film moves from the dusty range of the Montana cow country to the fog veiled country-side of an English medieval castle. Much of the naturally fast action of the picture is enlivened by the ridiculous situations in which Slim's horse is found.

DARROW'S BOARD NOW ABOLISHED

WASHINGTON, July 5.—(AP)—The White House today made public an executive order by President Roosevelt abolishing the national recovery review board, headed by Clarence Darrow.

The president's executive order said that "the board has made three reports to the president in the exercise of its duties and functions and has substantially completed the work for which it was established" and that because "the chairman and two other members have resigned reports would not be representative of the board as originally constituted."

He called upon the remaining members to take steps to discontinue the board.

Awning Catches Fire—An awning on the Medford building in front of the M. and M. department store caught fire Tuesday morning at 11:30 probably from a cigarette being thrown down from an upper story window. The blaze was extinguished by the fire department after it had burned a hole in the canvas.

"Stingaree" Now at Craterian

Reunited for the first time since their great success in "Cimarron," Irene Dunne and Richard Dix are co-starring in "Stingaree," opening a three-day run at the Craterian theater today.

"Stingaree" tells the colorful story of Australia's celebrated highwayman, whose passion for music and beautiful women finally causes him to sacrifice his liberty to fulfill a poor girl's operatic ambitions.

Leslie Seahorn, Medford Archer State Champion

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 5.—(AP)—While her husband, national flight champion, was breaking his own state record, Mrs. Homer Prouty of Portland, competing in the State Archer association tournament here yesterday, shot an arrow a greater distance than any woman archer in the United States has ever been able to achieve in open tournament. Mrs. Prouty's arrow traveled a distance of 366 yards, establishing a new record in the women's division.

Mr. Prouty, in the open flight competition, set a new state record of 461 yards, breaking his previous mark by one yard.

Ralph Miller of Seattle, national target champion, was high scorer in the target events. The state title was taken by Leslie Seahorn of Medford, with Bert Cowling of Marcola second and Dick Adcock of Portland third.

Miss Ruth Tawney of Portland won the women's championship, with Faith Lindross of Corvallis second and Edna Stewart of Coquille third.

Dr. L. B. Schmidt of Salem was elected president of the state association at the business meeting held last night, concluding the tournament. Other officers named included C. W. Davis of Medford, secretary-treasurer.

The state meeting in 1935 will be held in Salem.
