Table Rock

TABLE ROCK, July 6.—(Spl.)—Many beautiful blossoms are now to be seen in the gladioli beds here, and people from many sections of the valley call here for bouquets. The bright situation here is showing improvement except in one orchard which it seems is neglected. This orchard belonged to an estate previously and has been one of the best paying orchards in the valley. It is almost destroyed by the blight. Not only is this an eyesore and detrimental to the district, but is working a hardship on neighboring orchardists who are trying to keep their orchards clean. Among the visitors here during the past week were Prof. V. A. Davis of Siskiyou, Mrs. Ruth and daughter, Elaine of Sams Valley, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dodge and family, Howard Gault and Miss Jerry Robinson of Medford and Jimmy Fleischer of Central Point. Mel Atkins returned last week from his annual sheep shearing tour which took him to many localities in California and Oregon. At the annual school election Ralph Wilson was elected director and Mary Myers, clerk. The clerk's report showed the district to be in excellent financial condition. There were no bids received for the yearly supply of wood so the board has extended the time for bids. According to reports a barrel of gasoline was stolen recently from the Harden ranch and efforts are being made to locate the guilty party. A man representing a St. Louis company was soliciting orders here one day last week. According to the salesman, his company requires the salesman to use horses in traveling over the country, which they claim is less expensive and more satisfactory. Those who claim to have checked
