

Edited by
Irva K. Fewell

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Mrs. Black Invites River Colony Folk In for the Holiday

Entertaining on the Fourth of July were Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Black, who invited to their river lodge about 20 guests, including members of the river colony from San Francisco, vacationing at their homes on the Rogue.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Carline, Mrs. P. H. Lyon and the Black's house guests, Mr. Horn and Mrs. Rutherford, all of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. V. Carpenter and their house guests, Mrs. J. Diabrow Baker and daughter, Marguerite, of Phoenix and Pasadena.

On the evening of the Fourth the Leonard Carpenters entertained the Alfred Carpenters and their guests, the S. M. Tuttle and Miss Margaret Hubbard at their home on the hill, where fireworks were enjoyed.

Mrs. Baker and daughter, who have been visiting here the past ten days, left Thursday for British Columbia.

A much-entertained visitor in the valley is Mrs. C. V. Simpson of Port Mason at San Francisco, who is the house guest of Miss Anne Livingston. The latter was hostess at a luncheon complimentary for her one afternoon the past week, and last evening Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter invited Mrs. Simpson, her son, Miss Livingston and Archie Livingston to dinner.

On Tuesday, Mrs. H. D. McCaskey is to be hostess at a buffet luncheon and a theater party for the pleasure of Mrs. Simpson. Invitations are being issued to 11 guests, who will attend the showing of "The House of Rothschild" in which George Arliss is featured.

Saturday evening Mrs. McCaskey was hostess at a buffet supper for the Balade family group.

A house guest this week-end at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhes, is Douglas Burrell of Portland, who is returning north from Santa Barbara, Cal.

DIAGONAL STRIPES ARE POPULAR

Diagonal stripes, fashion's touch of smartness this season, are shown to advantage in gowns worn by these two film actresses, Bette Davis at left wears a cocktail gown of black and white. A satin evening frock is worn by Margaret Lindsay. The color is maize with a diagonal stripe of gold. (Associated Press Photo)

Miss Thomas Weds Roger Mitchell at Burlingame Church

Friends in Medford of Miss Mary Elizabeth Thomas, who formerly resided here, will be interested in the report of her marriage recently to Roger Mitchell at Burlingame, Calif. An account of the wedding follows:

Miss Mary Elizabeth Thomas of San Mateo was married to Roger A. Mitchell of San Mateo at an attractive ceremony read on Saturday evening at 9 o'clock in the Burlingame Methodist church, Rev. H. E. Milnes read the service before approximately 500 guests.

Garlands of stocks and yellow daisies with golden privet decorated the altar and there was a profusion of Douglas gladioli, ferns and palms.

White satin made in princess style and trimmed with French rose point was worn by the bride. The dress, a French copy from Molynieux, was fashioned with a long train and with long fitted sleeves. The veil, which had been worn by her sister, Mrs. C. Carlton Evans of Portland, Ore., was made in Roman coronet style and trimmed with pearls and orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of orange blossoms, lilies of the valley and white roses.

The bride, teacher at the Little Oxford school, Burlingame, is the daughter of Mrs. L. I. Thomas and the late John Isaac Thomas. She came to the Peninsula four years ago from Medford, Ore.

Her going away costume was a blue French model with blue and white accessories. She was given in marriage by Fred Penton, who first introduced her to the bridegroom.

Mrs. C. Carlton Evans, matron of honor, wore yellow organdie made in bouffant style and she carried Tallinn roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Harnish of San Francisco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Harnish, and Mrs. Fred Penton of Baywood. The former was in blue and carried a bouquet of white and pink and carried a like bouquet.

Norton Mitchell was the best man and the usher John Thomas, Jack Gaggigan, and Frank Argo. Mrs. E. Young sang "All for You" and "I Love You Truly" with Mrs. Henry Woods presiding at the organ.

Mrs. Thomas, mother of the bride, was in the lace with hat and accessories of the same shade and her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Ruby Glenn of San Francisco, mother of the bridegroom, was in black lace with matching accessories.

Carl Kube, son of Mrs. B. Kube, was the ring bearer and he carried a white satin pillow trimmed with French rose point lace, similar to that which trimmed the wedding gown. Joseph McBride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rexford McBride, was the flower girl, and in blue organdie she carried an arm basket with sweet peas.

Only members of the bridal party and a few out-of-town guests were at the reception at the home, 216 Harvard road, San Mateo, following the ceremony. Home decorations consisted of white and blue with sweet peas and gladioli used to carry out the motif.

Mitchell, son of Roger C. Mitchell of San Mateo and Mrs. Ruby Glenn of San Francisco, is connected with the First National bank of San Mateo.

Mitchell and his bride have departed on a two weeks' wedding tour to Los Angeles and vicinity and after July 1 will be at home at 117 Park road, Burlingame.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Mays of Coquas, and some friends of the bridegroom from Marshfield, Ore.

Mrs. McLean

Mrs. Edward B. McLean of Washington, D. C., shown as she sailed from New York recently, for London. She is wearing the famous Hope diamond at her throat. (Associated Press Photo)

Rebekah Lodge Has Installation Work For Official Group

On Monday evening, July 2, Grace Hamlin, district deputy president, assisted by Lona Bergman as deputy grand marshal and staff of eight noble grand, installed the following officers of Olive Rebekah Lodge No. 38: Noble grand, Beatrice Stubbs; field; vice grand, Irene Sherley; recording secretary, Mary Wiley; treasurer, Carrie Rickett; chaplain, Catherine Satterlee; conductor, Olive Pence; warden, Kate Young; R. S. N. G., May Stuart; L. S. N. G., Lottie Howard; R. S. V. G., Dorothy Scribner; L. S. V. G., Margery Pearson; outside guardian, Elsie Mallard; inside guardian, Cora Wilson; and musician, Caroline Leaders. Carrie Dannel was elected degree staff captain.

Eight young ladies, dressed in white, and carrying wands of pink and green, acted as guards and added much to the beautiful installation ceremony.

After the installation the noble grand declared a recess and Joe Ann Mole, granddaughter of the district deputy president, dressed in butterfly costume, presented each of the elective officers and the deputy marshal with a beautiful gift. Mrs. Gaul presented the district president with a large basket of flowers from the Past Noble Grand club.

The P. L. girls club also presented flowers. Refreshments were served by the Brother Rebekahs.

Kitchen Shower Honors Bride

TALENT—Mrs. H. Good gave a kitchen shower at her home Tuesday evening honoring her sister, Iona Bates who was married to W. Dooms of Medford Friday. About 35 guests were present.

Pollyanna Club To Draw Names

Royal Neighbor Pollyanna club will meet for a farewell party, Wednesday evening, July 11, with Florence Laing at her home, 260 Beatty street. All members urged to be present, as names will be drawn for the ensuing term.

Mrs. Overmyer Will Entertain Grace Circle

Grace Circle of the Presbyterian church has postponed its picnic and will meet on Tuesday, July 10 with Mrs. O. L. Overmyer. The group in charge of the entertainment will be Mrs. Al Littrell, Mrs. Earl Littrell, Mrs. Diamond Flynn, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. Charles Reames, Mrs. B. G. Harding, Mrs. Charles L. Wood, Mrs. C. W. Spencer and Mrs. Herbert Meusel.

Weatonka Council Installs Officers

The Weatonka council had installation of officers by the district deputy, Pocahontas, Gladys Dooms, assisted by Rosa Young. The following officers were installed: Prophetess, Bernice Sears; Pocahontas, Mabel Quackenbush; Wenonah, Sarah Tolle; Powhatan, Richard Singler; acoutis, Blanche Rinsberger and Bernice Wilson; runners, Carrie Milnes and Notie; councilors, Mildred Ward and Dorothy Watkins; warriors, Frank Martin, Wm. Milnes, Bud Lawrence and Ed Shackle; guards, Walter Wilson and O. A. Hubbard.

An interesting report was given by Sisters Nellie Purdin, Esther Dooms, Bernice Wilson, Zilphia Armstrong and Brothers Jack Dooms and George Armstrong who visited the council at Alameda, Calif., at the home coming meeting of the Great Pocahontas of California.

Refreshments were served by Gladys Dooms and Frances Moffatt.

Friday, July 13, there will be initiation and the team captain, Jack Dooms, requests that all degree team members be present.

Woods Will Attend Conference at Milton

Rev. and Mrs. N. D. Wood will leave Tuesday morning for Milton, Ore., where they will attend conference and assembly of the Methodist church South. They will be accompanied by Virginia Goodman and Cherokee Sells, who will also attend assembly.

Auxiliary Meeting at Mrs. Wilson's Home

Next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will hold a combined business and missionary meeting at the home of Mrs. E. M. Wilson, 340 South Riverside.

All members and friends are cordially invited.

Fast Noble Grand Club To Meet at Rickett Home

Fast Noble Grand club will meet at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Rickett Friday evening, July 13 at 6:30 o'clock for a covered dish dinner. Husbands of the members will be guests for the evening. The dinner will be served on the lawn at the Rickett residence on Valley View drive.

Camp Accepts New Members

Royal Neighbors camp No. 4713 met Thursday evening in business session. New members were accepted. Refreshments were served by the committee. Neighbors Ora Lester, Ellen McRae and Amy Crawford.

Neighbor Marie Gautebeln will be hostess at a covered dish supper and lawn party at her home, 513 West Eleventh street, July 19.

Mrs. Van Dyke Entertains at Ashland

Mrs. Frank Van Dyke of Ashland and a group of her Medford friends enjoyed a no-hostess dinner at her home Friday evening. Miss Laura Drury, Miss Barbara Drury and Miss Elton Mae Wilson of Medford attended. Miss Harriet Baldwin, who is an instructor this summer at the Southern Oregon Normal school, was also present. Cards were enjoyed during the evening.

Epworth League Elects Officers

At the meeting last Sunday of the Methodist church Epworth League, the organization was divided into the High school league, and the College Students' league. The latter group elected officers.

They were: Mildred Walker, president; Helen Power, first vice-president; Florence Neumann, second vice-president; Jeannette Trill, third vice-president; Joan Cowden, fourth vice-president; Josephine Power, secretary; Arthur Cook, treasurer; Lullis Corn, song leader and Rose Knotts, pianist.

Mrs. Getchell and Daughter Gloria to Tour Through East

Miss Gloria Getchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Getchell of this city, who has been attending the University of Washington during the past year, is leaving for the east with her mother and Miss Lella Condit of Seattle, for a trip through the New England states.

The trio plans to travel east from Seattle by train to Minneapolis, then continue by motor to Chicago where they will be joined by friends on a motor trip through the New England states.

They are to spend some time with other friends at Pelham Manor, New York; Bristol, Providence and Newport in Rhode Island and also visit the ancestral home of Mrs. Getchell's mother in Boston.

For three days during the Fourth of July holidays Miss Getchell was a guest at the house party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Clarke on Bainbridge Island.

In compliment to members of the debutante group, Miss Getchell was a luncheon hostess on Monday, according to the Seattle Daily Times.

A photograph of the local Miss accompanied the "portrait of summer" in the Georgian room of the Olympic, as reviewed by Virginia Boren.

Of her luncheon, Miss Boren said: "A group of charming young girls gathered at the table where Miss Gloria Getchell, daughter of Mrs. Delroy Getchell, entertained in compliment to Miss Lella Condit and Miss Dorothy McCaskey. Mrs. Getchell is taking her daughter and Miss Condit east soon for a leisurely trip along the Atlantic coast and through the New England states."

"Guests of Mrs. Getchell were Miss Condit, Miss McCaskey and the Misses Ruth Buschmann, Dorothy Tupper, Lucia McAuland, Virginia Mason, Katherine Poe and Kay Cunningham. Miss Getchell wore a very pretty frock of light blue silk crepe with matching blue-brimmed hat, on which she wore smart blue flowers."

Leave Today For Seattle

Mrs. Harold Dagg and children are leaving today for their home in Seattle, being accompanied by Mrs. Dagg's mother, Mrs. R. W. Clancy and Mrs. Helen Conroy.

St. Ann's Society To Sponsor Card Party

St. Ann's Altar society is sponsoring a card party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. A. Dalley, 704 South Oakdale avenue. An invitation has been extended to all ladies of Medford and the community. Mrs. Jens Jensen, assisted by members of her committee, will be in charge.

Irene Shirley Entertains Club

The Wenonah met at the home of Irene Shirley for the regular covered dish luncheon and business meeting last week. The new officers took over their respective duties. They are as follows: President, Blanche Rinsberger; vice-president, Harriet Watson; secretary and treasurer, Carrie Milnes; reporter, Florence Rusk.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Alice Lewis and Mrs. Dorothy Scribner. Assisting the hostess were Gladys Dooms and Blanche Rinsberger.

The next meeting will be a card party to be held at the home of Frances Moffatt, 227 South Oakdale, on July 19.

Miss Ramstrom's Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ramstrom of Green Acres, near Central Point, are today announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth, to Stanley L. Stark of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Stark of Hillsboro, Ore. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss McFadden Is Married Saturday To Maynard Grove

VALLEY VIEW—The L. O. Penland home was the scene of a pretty wedding last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Jeannette McFadden, daughter of Mrs. L. O. Penland, became the bride of Maynard O. Grove of San Francisco.

The groom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Witham were their attendants. The bride wore an ensemble suit of blue silk. The room was beautifully decorated with baskets of large gladioli. Mrs. L. Frank sang "I Love You Truly."

Rev. Sidney Hall of Ashland used the impressive ring service before the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Borg and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stratton, Mrs. Frank Talbot, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Bagley, Miss Mary Bagley and Chas. Bagley, Jr. of Duluth, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bush and family of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. C. Witham and son of Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Penland.

After congratulations the guests drove to the Ed Borg home, aunt of the bride, where a lovely buffet luncheon was served. Mr. Grove is in business in San Francisco. Mrs. Grove grew to womanhood in Talent and Ashland, graduating from Ashland high school three years ago. She graduated in May this year from the Stanford School of Nursing. Mr. and Mrs. Grove left that evening for Lake of the Woods where they spent two days. They left for San Francisco July 5, to make their home.

Monday afternoon Mrs. P. Bush, Mrs. W. A. Stratton and Mrs. E. C. Gardner entertained at Mrs. Clara's home for Mrs. Grove with a shower. After games, the gifts were opened by the bride and refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. Clements and daughter Elaine of Ashland, Mrs. Ed Robison, Mrs. Geo. Galbraith, Mrs. O. Goddard, Miss Eleanor Powers, Mrs. Ed Borg, Miss Dorothy Borg, Mrs. Bagley, Mrs. Mary Bagley, Mrs. L. O. Penland, Mrs. T. Bell and the hostess.

Missionary Society To Meet on Tuesday

In the First M. E. church parlors, the Home Missionary society and the Foreign Missionary society will conduct a joint meeting Tuesday, July 10, at 7:30 p. m. The Home Missionary society will entertain. Mrs. E. C. Koppen is in charge of the program and Miss Mae Phipps, Mrs. B. F. Van Dyke, and Mrs. E. S. Hedgler will be hostesses. A general invitation has been issued to all ladies of the church and especially to members of the younger set.

Fountain Lunches
Gardner Drugs

LARRY SCHADE
The Schick Dry Shaver
Is Economical

There are no blades to buy—nothing to sharpen or replace. You need no brush, creams or lotions.

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

DR. H. P. COLEMAN
Chiropractic and Physiotherapy
Oregon License 264
California License 3029
14 Years in Medford, Ore.

LET ME SOLVE YOUR PROBLEM
I'll make a beautiful plate for you that will improve the whole appearance of your mouth. They don't have that "false" look that is so unattractive.

Hundreds of Southern Oregon people will recommend my plates because they look natural and are comfortable to wear.

DR. I. H. GOVE
PHONE 612-J OFFICE
235 EAST MAIN ST.

What will I do to keep Sonny and Sister fed, clothed and in school... It's almost impossible to find a job and take care of the children at the same time. If only we could have foreseen the future, I know that Bob would have made some provision for our future so that I would not have had these terrible responsibilities and worries to cope with. Bob was so thoughtful in other ways, why didn't he prepare for this great emergency.

Safeguard the Future of Your Family!

YOU do not know when you will be deprived of your position as head of your family... you will want to safeguard your future no matter what happens... isn't it better to divide your property yourself to assure financial independence and freedom from worries for those you love?... You know, better than anyone the best disposition of your savings and property... Why not be sure that you are the one to decide?

Don't Delay!
—arrange NOW to see our trust officer—Talk over YOUR problems with him—you'll find him glad to assist you and capable of intelligently advising you.

The First National Bank
"A Departmentized Bank"

Mann's Semi-Annual REMNANT SALE Starts on Wednesday July 11th... Don't Miss This Sale!...

Relief Corps Entertains Group from Central Point

The Women's Relief Corps held a regular meeting Thursday afternoon. Two applications for membership were read.

Members of Central Point corps were guests and refreshments were served.

Pleasurites Plan Evening's Entertainment

The Pleasurites are making preparations for a pot luck dinner to be held Monday evening, July 15 in the Girls' Community club rooms at 7 o'clock.

An interesting and entertaining program is being planned and all the members and friends are invited to be present.

At the last meeting Harold Grove favored the group with several musical numbers. Miss Betty Mae Childers gave a reading. Lewis Parker entertained with some clever readings and the girls' quartet from the Excelsior club sang. Miss Elaine DeVries had charge of the devotional meeting, which was impressive, closing with a vocal solo by Miss Harriet White.

Excelsior Club Dinner Is Friday

The Excelsior club announces a pot luck dinner to be held in the Girls' Community club room on Bartlett street, Friday, July 13, at 7:00 o'clock. The committees in charge have been working hard to make this a pleasant evening and all members are urged to be present.

Friday, June 30, the club enjoyed a swimming party at Jackson Hot Springs, after which a camp fire meeting was held and picnic supper served.

Committee in charge of the entertainment is Mrs. Bert Freeman and Mrs. J. R. Clary of Ashland and Mrs. Lester Lewis of Medford.

Leach Home Scene Of Family Re-Union

A family reunion was held on the Fourth of July at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Leach in this city, which was attended by a group of relatives including Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Reese, and their sons, Paul, Jr. and Charles, of Harrisburg, Pa.

Other members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boussem and daughters, Ethel and Audrey. The group had not been together for 28 years, and the day spent together was most enjoyable.

On Saturday the Reese family motored to Crater lake for the day.

Carnation Club Meeting Scheduled for Wednesday

Carnation club will meet on Wednesday instead of Thursday, with Mrs. John Hubler at 250 East Ninth street. The gathering will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock, and all members are urged to be present.