Mrs. P. W. Hamill Arrives from East For Medford Visit

An interesting visitor this summer, who arrived in Medford yesterday, is Mrs. Phillip W. Hamill of New York city, who came via San Francisco. She is the house guest of Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, who entertained Saturday at a luncheon.

Today, Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly have invited Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark and E. W. Carlton to their river place to greet Mrs. Hamill, who is a former resident.

Mrs. Peggy Hamill plans to come to this city the latter part of the month, and will be the guest of Miss Roxane Ruhl. She will arrive here from San Francisco, following the wedding there of Miss Edith Baldwin on July 23. Miss Baldwin has a number of friends in the valley, where she has visited previously.

Mrs. Alex Sparrow is expecting Miss May Coffeyberry of Cleveland, Ohio, the latter part of the month to visit here.

Local social folk are also anticipating the return here of Mr. and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, who left Chicago Tuesday en route to Medford. Mrs. Egan, with her sister, Miss Adela Barrett of Chicago, toured the European continent while Mr. Egan was in Scotland as a member of the Walker cup golf team. They left here in April, sailing from New York the 20th of that month.

Picnic and Swim at Rogue Are Enjoyed

A very pleasant day was spent at the home of Mrs. Cora Davis, who lives at Eagle Bridge. A number of her friends surprised her by bringing a picnic lunch, who was enjoyed on the banks of Rogue river. After lunch swimming was the diversion.

Those present were Mrs. Cora Davis and her mother, Mrs. French, Mrs. Marian Hedgepath and daughter, Phyllis; Mrs. Kathleen Youim, Mrs. Martha Mitchell, Mrs. Virginia Purcell, Mrs. Florence Drake, Mrs. Olive Garver, Mrs. Theima Lay, Mrs. Alice McNeil and Mrs. Flora Saltmarsh.

Excelsior Club Has Program on Friday

The Excelsior club enjoyed a pot luck dinner Friday evening at the Girls' Community club. The theme of the evening was "Ships that have found harbor in my heart" and the decorations were carried out as on board ship under a sky of silver stars.

Entertainment for the affair was furnished by toasts, carrying out the theme: Lordship, Dick Fraley; Stewardship, Caroline Cook; Partnership, Erma Fraley; Worship, Price Shafer; Friendship, Irwin Doty; and the Harbor, Mrs. Della Mann.

Other special numbers were a violin solo by Miss Doris Wade accompanied by Mrs. Wade; Miss Betty Childress gave two readings, and Perry Johnson gave an impersonation of a negro minister. Miss Claribel Jennings officiated as toastmistress. Mr. Johnson was presented a gift from the group in appreciation of his efficient work and leadership of the group.

FOR JUST ONE DAY

HAVE YOU been trying to persuade your husband to buy you an Electric Range? Chances are, he doesn't fully realize the drudgery involved in preparing meals with your old cook stove. But that's easily corrected. Persuade him to help you with next Sunday's dinner. Give him your apron — for just ONE DAY!

Make him your partner in the watching, basting, turning, tasting, pecking — all of the worry and drudgery associated with old fashioned cooking. Then explain that these new automatic electric ranges are not only clean, cool and convenient, but that the use of an electric range will entitle you to a greatly reduced average rate on the electricity you use. After he has scoured and scrubbed the pots and pans, explain that electric cookery is as clean as sunshine. Never fear, he'll see the light. Just as soon as he understands the difference between old fashioned methods and modern electric cookery he will insist that the extravagant waste of energy, time and money be stopped with the installation of a new and up-to-date Electric Range.

Through the company's cooperation with electrical dealers you can purchase almost any good make of modern electric range completely installed with all necessary wiring and water heating equipment for as low as $3 a month. This offer may be withdrawn at any time. Phone for complete details now.
