

Local and Personal

Daring Fan Dancer On Craterian Stage Today

Mrs. Bloom Here—Mrs. L. Bloom of San Francisco is visiting in this city with her brother, Joe S. Polson.

Miss Rogers to Ashland—Miss Lucille Rogers was a visitor in Ashland yesterday, making the trip by train.

Here on Business—Maurice Tedrow, district ranger from Klamath Falls, was in Medford yesterday on business.

Bishop Returns—Lee Bishop returned yesterday morning by train from Portland, where he had attended an advertising convention for two days.

Mrs. Howard to Cottage Grove—Mrs. S. W. Howard left by train for Cottage Grove yesterday to spend a few days visiting with Mrs. W. A. Spray.

Hanley's Arrival—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hanley of Burns, Ore., arrived in this city by train yesterday to visit with Mr. Hanley's sister, Miss Alice Hanley.

Tengwalds Return—Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Tengwald returned Thursday evening from Salem, where Mr. Tengwald took the state bar examinations.

Frank Noyes Leaves—Frank Noyes of San Francisco, who has been vacationing at his summer home on Rogue river, left by train yesterday for the south.

Jones to Union Creek—W. L. Jones, construction foreman of the forest service, left yesterday morning to spend the day on business at Union Creek CCC camp.

Boggs Here—Stanley Boggs, who has been attending Willamette university, arrived in Medford Thursday night, after having taken the state bar examinations in Salem.

Mrs. Tilton Leaves—Mrs. I. A. Tilton has been visiting in this city for a few days with her niece, Mrs. Frank B. Cooper, and left for her home in Seattle on the Shasta yesterday.

Arrives from South—Mrs. Bob Stevens arrived by train from Stockton, Calif., yesterday to visit here with Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Smith for a few days. Mrs. Stevens is Mr. Smith's sister.

Accident on Bartlett—Mrs. Henry Van Hovenberg of Gold Hill reported an accident on Bartlett street Friday to city police, stating that she had struck a car that pulled out from the curb.

Leaves for Salem—Mrs. Pearl Wheeler, formerly of this city, left by train Saturday to make her future home in Salem. She had spent the winter in Phoenix, Ariz., before returning to Medford.

Auto Sideswiped—Harry Polley, 386 Ross Lane, reported an accident on North Riverside Friday in which his auto was sideswiped and forced into the curb by a car whose driver's name is unknown.

Return South—Mrs. Alex Paris and Mrs. Tom Condacos and children left yesterday for Oakland, Calif. They were guests in Medford of Sam Goltz. Mrs. Paris' brother, who accompanied them south Saturday.

Jack, Billy Moffatt Leave—Jack and Billy Moffatt, small sons of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Moffatt, 104 Florence, left on the Shasta Saturday morning to visit for several weeks with their grandmother in Roseburg.

Visit in West Phoenix—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Eason of Minneapolis, Minn., are visiting with Mrs. Eason's brother Wm. E. Thomson and his family in West Phoenix. The Easons have been attending the K. T. convention at San Francisco.

McCredes Return—Chief of Police and Mrs. Clatous McCredie returned Friday night from five days' auto trip along the coast from Crescent City to Astoria, and then to Portland, where they visited for a few days with Mrs. McCredie's uncle, J. V. Whipp.

Cars Collide—A car driven by E. R. Bossi, of Yreka, collided Friday with one driven by Bernice K. Neely, 801 South Peach, who reports at the city police station show, was slowing down at the intersection of West Main and Orange, when her car was struck in the rear by the Bossi auto.

Hollingsworth Return—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hollingsworth, formerly of this city, returned recently from Seattle to make their home here where Mr. Hollingsworth is employed as a radio operator. He was transferred to Portland some time ago and then to Seattle, before returning to Medford.

Services Conducted—Rev. David A. Forbes, who administers to the spiritual as well as physical welfare of the CCC men of Camp Indian Creek, conducted religious services there last week. Rev. Forbes is also a medical doctor and is the camp contract surgeon.

Parasite on Pine—Evidence that mistletoe will grow on pine trees as well as oak, was brought to the Mail Tribune this week-end a branch having been found by W. B. Richardson of Sams Valley. The growth has greatly enlarged the joint of the branch, where the mistletoe was thriving.

Flowers on Display—The brilliant hues of gladioli transformed the little office room at 214 East Main street into a charming flower garden yesterday. This location has been secured by Pruitt and Raimey's Table Rock glad gardens. Nineteen acres of these beautiful blossoms are now blooming in the Table Rock district and hundreds of varieties are included.

Road Open—Norman C. White, assistant supervisor of the Rogue River National forest, announced Friday that the Beaver creek road to Wrangle cap is now in excellent condition. Mr. White stated that a drive along this road, combined with the Dutchman Peak-Demonore-Cinnabar-Oak Knoll road to the Klamath river, makes a very interesting Sunday trip. The roads are the typical mountain type, narrow and full of curves, but the scenery is said to make the drive well worth while.

Undergoes Operation—Mrs. E. G. Pruitt underwent a minor operation Saturday at the Community hospital.

Guests from Roseburg—Mrs. Norman M. Kerr and two children, Richard and Jerry, of Roseburg are guests in Medford of Mrs. Artie Stephenson. They arrived Thursday and expect to be here about a week.

Receives Treatment—J. L. McReynolds of Prospect, who suffered several broken ribs, the result of an automobile accident Friday evening, is receiving treatment today at the Community hospital. Hugh Muklee, who had two fingers cut off in a machine accident, is in the Community hospital also, for treatment.

"Hi, Nellie!"

Paul Muni, veteran of innumerable stage and screen successes comes to the Studio theatre today in "Hi, Nellie!"

The story by a newspaper man, deals entirely with newspaper work and newspaper characters in their contact with the outside world in the gathering of the sensational stories of the day. Muni has the role of a managing editor who is sentenced to write the Heart Throbs column because he has displeased the publisher. The manner in which he accepts his bitter pill, after writhing under the gibes of his fellow workers, and works back into a stronger position than ever, is one of the most hilarious, as well as thrilling, dramas ever to be screened.

Fay Baker in Dance Creation

Fay Baker, fan dancer from the Streets of Paris of the Chicago World's Fair, brings to Medford, for a three-day engagement on the Craterian theatre stage, starting today, the same originally daring and artistically beautiful dance creation that was presented at the Century of Progress. On the screen Constance Bennett's "Moulin Rouge" will be shown. The fan dance, which has been much publicized for the last year, was one of the outstanding attractions at the fair, and Miss Baker, with Sally Rand and Faith Bacon, was the reason for this publicity. As presented on the Craterian theatre stage, the dance will be shown in Melway in from Lake—B. F. McRay, road foreman for N. R. A. stationed at Lake of the Woods, was in Medford on business yesterday. From Indian Creek—Captain Wm. C. Ryan of the CCC camp at Indian Creek, was a visitor in Medford Saturday, and reported that the boys at camp are constructing a tennis court there. Leave for North—Rev. and Mrs. E. N. Long, and their daughters, Lois and Jean, left Friday evening for Salem and Portland, to attend the annual camp conference of the Free Methodist church. They plan to be gone two weeks, and during their absence, services at the local church will be conducted by the Rev. L. M. Phillips, Rev. A. S. Embree and Rev. Archie Embree.

"The Party's Over," at Rialto

That great American institution—the family—takes it on the chin in the hilarious farce "The Party's Over," playing today and tomorrow at the Rialto theatre.

big brother who supports an indolent, but well meaning father, a scapegrace brother in college, a mother wrapped up in women's clubs and super-patriotic activities, and a frivolous, extravagant little sister in love with a would-be crooner. To escape his family troubles and forget the turmoil at home, Erwin spends his Sundays and holidays dabbling paints on canvases. Then the girl, Ann Sothern, touches his heart where the others had only been interested in his purse strings, and Erwin changes his methods of dealing with his family in a riotous climax.

Fredric March In "All of Me," Roxy

With Fredric March and Miriam Hopkins as products of the Park Avenue social world and with George Raft and Helen Mack as graduates of the slum sidewalks, "All of Me" which opens at the Roxy theatre today, proves that while there may be two kinds of women, there is after all only one kind of love. Different in every respect, the girl from the school of bitter experience in Hell's Kitchen and "her man"—an ex-convict—teach the highly-bred, socially important girl from Park Avenue that real love is not kin to her kind of selfish romance. Fredric March and Miriam Hopkins have long been in love, but when he goes to her with the idea of marriage so that she can share his engineering career in the west, she declines. She wants to be sure, she tells him. On a stunning trip one night they become interested in the conversation of George Raft, ex-convict, and his girl, Helen Mack. March and Hopkins meet them and listen to their problem.

Visitor Here—Frank Buchter of San Francisco, is visiting in Medford this week-end.

Attend Service—About forty members of the Tillier CCC camp attended the religious services conducted there Tuesday evening by the Rev. O. M. Whitman of Dillard.

Use Mail Tribune want ads.

Shows Today
1:45-3:15
7:00-9:00

CRATERIAN

Mats . . . 25c
Eves . . . 35c
Kiddies . . . 10c

STARTING TODAY FOR 3 DAYS! Sensation of Chicago's Century of Progress!

On the Stage FAY BAKER in PERSON! Direct from a record-shattering tour from the "Streets of Paris" . . . with her sensationally thrilling . . . and lavishly daring FAN DANCE

Exactly as interpreted at the Century of Progress of Chicago's World's Fair!

ALSO
On the Screen

Zippier Than the Folies Bergere!

A fascinating whirl of gay romance . . . song . . . and laughter—with two Connie Bennetts — luscious blonde and ravishing brunette!

Constance BENNETT

She made her own husband fall head over heels (the heel) in love with her! . . . But Oh! how the toast of Paris burned up when he kissed her . . . for his kisses were those not meant for a wife!

MOULIN ROUGE

FRANCHOT TONE

TULLIO CARMINATI • RUSS COLUMBO THE BOSWELL SISTERS

Song hits . . . beautiful girls . . . dance numbers!

NO RAISE IN PRICES!

Shows Today
1:45-3:15
7:00-9:00

RIALTO

Adults
25c
Kiddies-10c

TODAY and MONDAY!

The Laugh Riot of a Worm Who Turned!

Meet the sap of the family tree. He worked, the family loafed, his wife walked out—and then the fun began! . . . It's an avalanche of laughs . . . an earthquake of roars . . . a landslide of mirth!

The PARTY'S OVER

A Columbia Picture

with STUART ERWIN ANN SOTHERN

Arline Judge Chick Chandler Patsy Kelly

From the stage comedy hit by Daniel Kassell Directed by Walter Lang

ADDED SHORTS
"The Doggoned Babies"

Where Is My Wandering Boy? — Newsreel