FOOD SHORTAGE THREATENS AS GENERAL STRIKE PENDS

As frantic efforts were being made to bring peace to strife-stricken San Francisco, striking teamsters threw a cordon around the city to stop trucks bearing foodstuffs from entering. The upper photo shows an overturned truck which had been carrying peaches and strawberries in a residential district. Lower: Pickets congregated at South San Francisco, 15 miles from the strike center, halting produce carriers and warning drivers to cease hauling operations. The teamsters walked out in sympathy with striking maritime unions. (Associated Press Photos)

EVANGELIST PAIR TO OPEN SERVICE

The S. S. S. Girls (Soul Saving Songsters) Miss Barry Morrison and Miss Martha Kelling, are opening an evangelistic campaign in Medford in the Foursquare church, 4th and Bartlett, beginning this morning at 11:00. The Misses Morrison and Kelling need no introduction to the Medford people. They will be remembered in their tent campaign in May and June of last year. They have had a wide experience in the evangelistic field with marked success. Powerful and dynamic in sermon, and gifted in music, both vocal and instrumental, playing several different instruments, they not only delight their audiences but clearly expound the Scriptures with conviction and boldness. Their many friends in Medford and vicinity will rejoice to know that these gifted evangelists will again be in Medford. Today's
