

MEN AND NATIONS
MAR GOD'S PLANS
PASTOR'S WARNING

Speaking from the local Church of the Nazarene pulpit yesterday, Fred M. Weatherford, pastor, used as his topic, "The Vessel That He Made Was Marred."
In a challenge to the people of this generation, the speaker drew his message from Jeremiah, 19th chapter, and said in part:
"Jeremiah discouraged and depressed over the moral failures of the people, resorted to the potter's house at God's behest, where he could learn a lesson from the potter molding clay. He looked on as the potter fashioned a vessel of clay on the form, but the vessel that he made was marred 'so he made it again another vessel."
"The Supreme Artificer fashioned man of clay and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul, but the vessel that He made was marred, because of man's unwieldiness. It was sin that marred this vessel. That mar was deep enough to defile the whole stream of human life, but God rearranged the pattern that He might fashion man again into a new vessel."
"Hath not the potter power over the clay of the same lump to make into dishonor? The potter has power over the clay as long as it will yield to His touch. If it is non-responsive, then it must remain a marred vessel—a vessel unto dishonor."
"This truth is universal in its application. Whole nations have been known to mar the plan of God. It is recalled that Samsun pulled down the pillars, letting the house of Dagon crash, killing its thousands, without a chance to escape; so the unyielding attitude of national leaders has served to mislead whole nations."
"Turn to ancient Israel—sorrow fills the heart when we recall that Israel marred God's plan. Christ came to His own, and His own received Him not."
"Likewise we look back at ancient Egypt, Rome and Babylon. Then we look at France and Germany—what is their record? They defied and ignored the laws of God and down they went to certain disaster."
"But what about America? Haughty, and forgetful of her God-given trust, will she recover economically, without repenting for her God-forgottenness in the pulling down of her many altars? Others did not."
"Can we rebuild our nation upon the disintegrated morals of a cigarette and liquor participating motherhood? Our own nation was made great because of its fidelity to God and the Bible, in the home, the shop, and the state. To save us from the humiliation and remorseful stigma of being buried in the cemetery with the nations that have forgotten God, let us pray God of our fathers, redeem us from our forgetfulness. If we are to recast our nation, love, and not hate must come to birth. Christ and not greed must rule on this earth. Our industrial strife must find an equitable solution in the halls of arbitration."

Miss Cherry Weds Mr. Selt Sunday

Beneath an arch of greenery and blossoms, arranged in the Full Gospel church, Miss Alice Marie Cherry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cherry of Griffin creek, was married to Harold Selt of Klamath Falls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Selt, also of that city.

The three o'clock service was performed yesterday, with Reverend J. L. Stuart, pastor of the local Full Gospel church officiating. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played and Mrs. Stuart, wife of the pastor, sang "I Love You."
The bride was attired in white, and wore a veil of floor length, caught into a coronet by white gardenias. Her bouquet was of rosebuds and sweet peas. Her maid of honor, Miss Edith Malenkus of Trail, wore pink organza, with a white hat and a corsage of summer blossoms. Miss Lucile Pederson of Ashland was bridesmaid and was attired in blue organza and a white hat. She also wore a corsage.
Robert Cherry, brother of the bride, was best man and Wilbur Mead of Medford was usher. Little Dorothy Keene was flower girl and the ring bearer was Bobby Watson.

Following the service, the wedding party of 18 was entertained at dinner at the Cherry home. Mr. and Mrs. Selt then left for Klamath Falls, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Selt, parents of the groom, were included among those in attendance at the wedding and dinner.

Elliott Entertains For Wilbur Mead

Wilbur M. Mead of Washington, D. C., who is spending the summer as a ranger in Crater Lake National park, was a week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Elliott at 5 Cornish Court.
The following young people were dinner guests Saturday evening: Virginia Lindley, Betty Vilim, Shirley Chadwick of Portland, Amy Elliott, Russell Ulrich, Dolph James, John Koppen and the honor guest, Wilbur Mead.

After attending the Craterian theater the young people returned to the Elliott home to dance.

At 1:00 o'clock Sunday a swim at Two Pinnacles in Ashland was enjoyed after which the group went to Lithia Park for a picnic dinner.
Wilbur Mead is the elder son of Dr. and Mrs. Sterling V. Mead of Washington, D. C., at whose home Dr. Elliott and Amy were entertained while in the East recently. Dr. Mead is a nationally known author of dental text books and owns and operates a dental hospital. The Mead family expects to visit here late in August.

CANNON PLACES LIQUOR BLAME

MILTON, Ore., July 6.—(UP)—Prohibition is as much of a national problem as the boll weevil, Bishop James H. Cannon, Jr., said Sunday before leaving the Methodist Church, South, conference for the east and Europe.
He denied prohibition had been unsuccessful, and said failure lay not in prohibition but its enforcement.
"The principal factor in failure of enforcement was Andrew Mellon, whose interests were so widespread that prohibition was just a bump on a log, especially in view of his association with the distilling industry," the bishop said.

POSTMASTER SPEAKS AT CARRIERS' MEET

Frank DeSouza, local postmaster, gave a short and interesting address Saturday evening at the banquet of the Oregon federations of the National Association of Letter Carriers and the National Federation of Postal Clerks and their auxiliaries.
Through an error, the report of Mr. DeSouza's talk was omitted from the convention report in Sunday's edition.

Medford Friends At Bagley Party

A farewell gathering for Dr. W. R. Bagley and family, who left Saturday for their home in Duluth, was given at the Bagley home in Talent, Friday evening, and was attended by friends from Medford, Ashland, Talent and the Valley View section.

More than 50 guests were in attendance, and enjoyed a pleasant evening with the former valley residents. Interesting pictures were shown during the evening, which were clearly explained by Dr. Bagley. They showed the large balloon with which atmospheric conditions were checked.
John H. Fuller of Ashland expressed the appreciation of those present, in being able to greet the Bagley family once more.

Miss Wallace Leaves For Study in Portland

Miss Imogene Wallace left yesterday for Portland, where she will take master class work under Marguerite Melville Lismiewska of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, who is now in the northern city.
Having been associated with Theodore Leschetzky in Vienna for eight years, Mme. Lismiewska has attained musical triumphs throughout the European continent. She is a brilliant pianist, and is accepted as an outstanding instructor.

Although taking the master class work, this study does not mean that Miss Wallace will conduct group instruction classes, she pointed out.

Returns from East - Lieutenant Wallace S. Douglas, district surgeon with the Civilian Conservation corps, returned to Medford Saturday evening from Chicago and other Illinois points, having gone east two weeks ago with the special CCC train, as surgeon. He spent some time at his home in Hillboro, Ill., and also at the fair in Chicago.

TRIO ACCUSED OF PAMPHLET LIBEL PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Electa A. Fehl, wife of the penitentiary-detained Earl H. Fehl, where he is serving a four-year sentence for vote-stealing; May Murray and E. L. Fitch, indicted by the grand jury, Floyd Ross, Central Point, foreman, on a charge of criminal libel, were arraigned this morning before Circuit Judge H. D. Norton and entered pleas of not guilty.

May Murray and Fitch requested the court to appoint counsel, which will be done.
Fitch, detained in the county jail since his arrest last May, complained to the court that his visitors could not gain access to the jail. The court said the matter rested with the sheriff and the jailer.

As soon as preliminary matters can be arranged it is expected trial date will be set.

The trio are charged with distribution of a campaign pamphlet entitled "Black Political Crime Exposed." Mrs. Fehl is alleged to have transported the pamphlets to this city from Salem and May Murray and Fitch to have distributed them.
The text of the pamphlet, which authorities claim, was written by Fehl, assailed in typical Peblian style the state police, district attorney and other established agencies of law and order.

The criminal libel charge is based upon the paragraph in the pamphlet reading:
"Jackson county expended $65,000 in the ballot-theft trial, which money was used largely in bribing witnesses and juries and handling the court."

ELWOOD SCHAUER, RESORT BOATMAN, VICTIM OF UPSET

possible, brought it to shore. Soon after this, J. C. Parrott, deputy game warden at the lake, reached the scene, accompanied by a state officer from Roseburg, in a boat from the lodge. Burdette Kindred, a resort employe, arrived 10 minutes later in a boat with J. J. Smith, of Portland, and Mr. Higgins of Medford. Searching parties stayed for two hours and a half, before giving up until daylight.

Authorities at the lake stated the party had decided to enjoy a ride on the lake late Saturday night. They had reached the center of the cove on the east side of the lake near the lodge, at a spot estimated at from 100 to 200 yards off shore. The exact position was hard to ascertain, due to the darkness and confusion during the upset. Members of the rescued party stated the outboard motor had stalled, and Schauer was working on it when Mollaris stepped on the side of the boat, causing it to turn over.
Clothing Hampers Victim.
They stated Schauer was pulled under by heavy clothes, having worn a pair of coveralls over his working suit. The efforts of searching parties to find the body with hooks or nets is impeded by a heavy growth of weeds on the bottom. A strong wind Sunday also made the work difficult.

Equipment especially constructed for lake work was brought from Klamath Falls and put into use before Sunday noon.

Grappling work is being supervised by state officers from Roseburg, Medford and Klamath Falls, Deputy Game Warden Parrott and Guy Corodon, district attorney from Roseburg. As the lake is in Douglas county, Coroner Harry Stearns of Roseburg is in charge.

Schauer was a nephew of Lee Garlock, manager of the local AAA, and a cousin of Lyle Garlock of Walnut Grove, clerk at the Diamond lake lodge. He came to Diamond lake about May 10 from his home in Minnesota. He is survived in his immediate family by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Schauer of Walnut Grove, and three brothers, Fayette, of Los Angeles, and Herbert and Shirley, both of Walnut Grove.

FRYE HOME DAMAGED BY BLAZE ON SUNDAY

Considerable damage resulted from the fire at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the A. D. Frye residence, 728 Oak street, according to the city fire department, which was called to place the blaze under control.
The fire started in the attic, either from a defective flue, or a spark from the chimney, Fire Chief Roy Elliott said today. The damage was confined to the roof and attic.

Get Limit Catches From Crater Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Greene and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Pilling returned to Medford from Crater lake last evening, each bringing the limit of cut-throats from the lake. The fish averaged 2 1/2 pounds, they reported.
The party enjoyed a picnic lunch at the park, and fishing during the day.

THE END OF THE RACE!

IT TAKES A MAN like "Bill" Horn, who won the Gold Cup in 1932, to wind a big racing hydroplane up to 3000 r.p.m. and hold her to a speed of 60 to 70 miles per hour...for mile after mile. And when he's tired Camels quickly increase his vim and energy.

YOU'LL LIKE this delightful way of "turning on" your flow of energy
A famous New York research laboratory reveals that smoking a Camel produces a definite increase in your flow of natural energy. The effect is delightful, completely natural.
Many smokers have learned of this "energizing effect" in Camels for themselves. "Bill" Horn, winner of the gruelling Gold Cup race, refers to his experience in these words:
"The man who drives a Gold Cup winner needs the last ounce of energy he's got. After a championship race I 'break out' my pack of Camels quickly, believe me! In no time at all I get a 'lift' and everything is all serene! It's a swell feeling—just to smoke a Camel and be your real self again! That's what I do whenever I feel played out, and Camels never get on my nerves."
Turn to Camels and learn the truth of the saying, "Get a lift with a Camel." Like to smoke steadily? Smoke as much as you wish! Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand. They do not get on the nerves.
