

FALSE IMPRISONMENT CLAIM OF KINKADE TO JURY TODAY, OUTLOOK

Hearing of testimony in the damage suit of James T. Kinkade, COG worker, against the sheriffs of Klamath and Jackson county, for $3500 damages for alleged false imprisonment continued in circuit court today before Judge Harry D. Norton, and was expected to be in the hands of a jury composed of eight men and four women late today.

A special venire, composed of Chester Hubbard, Richard Payne, I. Ross Klina, Mrs. Louise E. Janney and Esther Van Dyke was drawn for the case.

Sheriff Olmscheid and Deputy Phil H. Stansbury were on the stand this morning and testified to routine details of the arrest of Kinkade last February. The county officials testified that Kinkade was arrested on a felony warrant issued by Klamath county and that they had no knowledge of the case, beyond that.

Evidence in the case showed that Kinkade is the father of five children, and the charge against him was non-support. A divorce action was also instituted against him.

A motion of the defense for a non-suit was denied by the court yesterday, upon conclusion of the plaintiff's case.

The sheriffs are represented by District Attorney T. R. Gillenwater of Klamath county and District Attorney George A. Coddling of Jackson county. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney M. O. Wilkins of this city.

AGEE PURCHASES
MEDFORD STORE

Koke-Chapman Stationery Co., 34 North Central, is now open under the name of Medford stationery store. It was announced this morning by Z. N. Agee of Eugene, who has purchased the store from A. H. Miller, and will devote his personal attention to its management.

Mr. Agee stated the detail of the new firm's personnel is not complete, but that Mr. Miller will remain at least temporarily with the store.

The new manager has had experience for the past 25 years in stationery and paper business, both wholesale and retail. He was formerly manager of the Eugene branch of Zellerbach Paper Co., and is at present a representative of the Carter Rice Co. of Portland. Mr. Agee is experienced in both inside work and as traveling salesman, and has sold office equipment in a Roseburg firm.

There will be some improvements made in the store, Mr. Agee said, and a few lines of merchandise will be added.

DR. MOFFATT HAS X-RAY EQUIPMENT

F. J. Moffatt, M. D., who recently opened office in the Medford building, at room 416, has received during the past two weeks, some of the most modern and complete radiology equipment available. Its installation in the Medford building makes this city a center for Roentgen diagnosis and therapy, skin diseases and the special pelvic radiation, in which Dr. Moffatt specializes.

Local physicians and surgeons will be greatly benefited by the new equipment, as it is the only complete set in southern Oregon, and includes everything necessary in the practice of radiology.

Dr. Moffatt brought much of the equipment with him from the east, where he has been doing post-graduate work for the past few years, and purchased the remainder for the offices here.

YOUNGSTER LIKES
GRANDPA'S PIPE

PITTSBURG — (AP) — Two-and-a-half year old Mickey Baehr's favorite pastime is smoking his grandfather's cornob pipe—which is plenty strong. The pipe prodigy, whose parents live on Pittsburg's north side, comes from a long line of smokers.

On the feminine side, his great-grandmother—aged 103—still smokes regularly. The child's father, W. J. Baehr, said Mickey learned to smoke by soothing his gums on the cornob while the grandfather nodded in his chair. He had formed the habit before he was found out.

"If you want to see him raise a rumpus," said the father, "just try to take the pipe away from him."
