WILL ROGERS SAYS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—Well, for a little fresh air away from Hollywood. Made a little two-hour flight up to Frisco last night. Lovely historic old place, but it seems nothing ever happens here. Never saw it as quiet. About the only news, Max Baer, who lives near here, announces that he won't fight this fall. That set the old town kinder agog.

NAVY PLANES RESUME MASS ALASKA FLIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—(AP)—Six big navy seaplanes took off today from Paradise Cove in the bay here, resuming their mass flight to Alaska.

Will Rogers says: I see among the hotel arrivals is General Hugh Johnson, who is passing through going to Los Angeles. He is lecturing for the NRA. I want to see "Bobbie" before she gets out of town. Some talk of President Roosevelt pulling in here for fuel, but I see where he has gone to Honolulu instead. Nothing ever happens in this town. Oh yes, the national guard is using the old town as a summer camp, instead of Monterey. That brings in a little extra money. The Chamber of Commerce landed them, to kinder stir up a little interest in the place. The governor spoke on the radio last night on "Civic Pride." Certainly a quiet, restful old city, but nothing ever happens here.
