'WHEELS OF DESTINY' AT ROXY TOMORROW
A really epic screen play of the early west, said to be the finest of the year, comes to the Roxy theater tomorrow.

It is "Wheels of Destiny," starring the red-blooded Ken Maynard and Tazman, and deals with the trek of pioneers who cross western plains in covered wagons to California in search of gold.

Included in the tense drama is the midnight siege of a mid-western hotel by thieves; a pitched battle between the pioneers and a tribe of enraged Indians in a wild storm on the prairies; a man-made prairie fire and two mad attempts to ford swollen rivers.
