

MEDFORD ROGUES DEFEATED, 8 TO 5, BY GRANTS PASS

The Medford Rogues slipped another notch in the Southern Oregon league percentage column when they were defeated, 8 to 5, by the Grants Pass sluggers at the fairgrounds diamond yesterday.

The game was witnessed by a good sized crowd and was featured by home runs by Hooper Hoffard and Charles Pritchett.

Grants Pass started scoring in the first inning. Garrett's infield fly was lost in the sun and fell safe for a two-base hit. He scored on Droulette's single to right. Again in the third Droulette's single drove in Hammerich, who reached third on a triple. McCarty walked in the fifth, reached third on Ogle's sacrifice and scored on Droulette's infield out. Hammerich and Ogle scored in the seventh when Hoffard, after fielding Ogle's single, started to make a throw to third, but changed his mind and in attempting to hold back the throw the ball got away from him, going further to the outfield in the opposite direction of his attempted throw.

The Cavenen scored two more in the eighth. Garrett hit for three bases and scored on Ostrum's single. Nelson's single brought in Ostrum. Ogle scored the final tally for the victors in the ninth by singling to left, reaching second when Blevins walked, and scoring on Sargent's error.

The Rogues, after being held hitless and runless for three innings, scored their first run in the fourth inning. Swanson walked, Pritchett struck first and Swanson second on an infield error. Hoffard struck out. Haight singled, scoring Swanson, and Gardner and Sargent struck out to retire the side. Three more runs were scored in the sixth. Swanson, first man up, grounded out to third. Pritchett hit a home run to center field, the ball going way out to the race track. Hoffard singled. Haight hit an infield single, and went to second and Hoffard to third when Ogle threw wild to first. Both scored on Sargent's two-base drive to right field.

Hoffard scored the home team's fifth and final tally in the eighth when he hit one of Nelson's curves for a home run, the ball also going to the race track.

U. S. TENNIS TEAM GAINS NEW HOPE

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 23.—(AP)—George M. Lott, Jr., and Lester Stofen today paired to defeat Jack Crawford and Adrian Quil, of Australia, in doubles and give the United States a fighting chance in the interzone final series of Davis Cup play. The scores were 6-4, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.

The way in which Lott and Stofen reached out their victory revived American hopes, which had but waned after the crushing double setback in the opening matches.

The Americans' victory sent the series to the final two singles matches tomorrow for decision, with Australia leading two matches to one as a result of its two singles triumphs Saturday.

Frank Shields will play Vivian McGrath and Crawford will meet Sidney B. Wood, Jr.

INDIANS SPURRED TO NEW EFFORTS

(By the Associated Press.) The criticisms of Walter Johnson's managerial actions seem to have been just the stimulus that was needed to send the Indians flying back into the midst of the American league pennant race.

In the past week the Indians won four games in a row, dropped one to one, then smashed their way back into third place yesterday with a double triumph over the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 2 and 6 to 5.

The second game Yankees celebrated Babe Ruth's return to action by walloping the White Sox twice, 8 to 2 and 15 to 2, while Detroit's pace-setters split a twin bill with the Athletics.

Ruth smacked his 19th homer and a single to knock in four runs, and started the Yanks off on a assault that netted 22 hits for 47 bases.

Old Favorite Coming Back

Bob Kruse, long time favorite of Medford muscle mauling fans, will be seen here again Thursday when he tangles with Sam Lethers in one-half of a double main event card slated by Promoter Mack Lillard to pick an opponent for Joe Savoldi through elimination. Kruse, a past-master of the wristlock, is shown above applying his favorite hold on an opponent.

BILL ISAACS WINS CASTING ACCURACY EVENT IN TOURNEY

With a three column cut on the sport page of the Sunday Oregonian, William "Toggerly Bill" Isaacs, southern Oregon's veteran fly-caster, and sportman, made his entrance in Portland for participation in the Western Association of Scientific Angling club's annual tournament, held this week-end at Sellwood park, by winning the accuracy-fly event with a score of 98 per cent.

Under the picture, which shows Toggerly Bill at the edge of the pool with rod in hand, a caption reads as follows: "Rogue River Fish are Old This Fellow's Goss."

William Isaacs, star Medford angler and caster, is in Portland this week-end for the Western Association of Scientific Angling club's annual tournament and the steelhead of the Rogue are probably jumping for joy upon the realization that they will get a few days' rest from his tempting flies and salmon from his tenting flies and reel gear.

Isaacs placed above several veteran casters of the Portland casting club, repeating his performance at the recent Diamond Jubilee tournament here, in which he kept the most coveted prizes at home by winning over experienced casters of the state. In this event, he made a distance record of 112 feet, a mark well beyond that of any of his rivals. He also placed first in several other events.

GOOD SCORES IN SUNDAY'S SHOOT

Shooting under perfect conditions Sunday morning, a number of perfect scores were turned in at the Medford Gun club traps. Dr. Bradford broke 80 straight, with Bill Bates right behind with a 49. Clarence Eads also broke a 25 straight.

At the skeet traps, Sam Jennings turned in a 21 for high score. Two challenge matches for the Pickard trophy resulted in no changes in the lineup on the ladder. Jim Moore successfully defended his position against Ron DeVore, as did Dan Daniels in his match with Ralph Green.

Interest is keen in this ladder tournament as there is now only a few more weeks of competition. The finals will be shot off at the Labor Day tournament.

The scores at 80 targets:

FIGHTERS' WORKOUT WATCHED BY THROG

PORTLAND, July 23.—(AP)—Two thousand fight fans visited a Portland amusement park Sunday to watch Young Peter Jackson, California Negro lightweight, and Cecil Payne, Kentuckian, go through final workouts in preparation for their 10-round main event here Tuesday night.

Both boxers appeared in fine condition and ready for the struggle, in which the Pacific coast lightweight championship is at stake.

MINERS WIN 17-15 OVER PROSPECT IN BATTING CARNIVAL

Crawling up from behind a 13-run lead in the last three innings, Jack Bolding's Prospect nine gave Jacksonville's Miners a close race on the Copee diamond Sunday when the game ended in a 17-15 victory for the J'villites. With the score 17-4 in the first of the seventh frame, Manager Hall of the Miners took over mound duties with the expressed intention of surrendering a few runs, but when seven errors cropped out in the last two frames, found a rally on his hands which threatened to lose the game for the gold-diggers, when a timely strike-out, with tying runners aboard, ended the indifferently played contest.

Bill "Screwball" Turner started on the mound for Jacksonville, surrendering seven hits and four runs in three frames, while Bill Hammerley, shut out Prospect for three innings, allowing no hits or runs and whiffing four. Hall then granted the remaining 11 tallies by donating seven hits, L. Rawlings, Prospect twirler, surrendered 21 hits—half of them through lack of support—and struck out nine. Heavy attackwork for Prospect was handled by Dewey Hill, who took three out of six chances, one for a home-run with two on. Williams, Ferris and Hill led the Miner batting with four each. Little Peeves VanGelder socked out a home-run with the sacks loaded, to take his share of limelight.

LETHERS UTILIZES ROCKING SCISSORS TO SECURE FALLS

Sam Lethers, 320-pound grappler from Dallas, Texas, will employ the same hold that Jim Browning uses, the rocking scissors, when he tangles here next Thursday with "Broccoli King" Bob Kruse, double main event at the armory.

Harry Kent, 236, former O. S. C. star, will bring "Dynamite" Gus Sonnenberg's famous flying tackle back to the Medford ring for the second half of the card in a grapple with Al Karasick, Russian muscle-mangler.

With these prospects for plenty of color, this week's card should provide dynamite in good proportions, and at the same time start the elimination rounds for a worthy opponent of "Jumping Joe" Savoldi, former Notre Dame grid star and ex-champion wrestler, who is scheduled to appear here about August 15.

Kruse and Karasick, who have both grappled here many times, are favorites of local fight-goers, and provide many a twist to the game that have earned them reputations as dangerous ringmates. Kent and Lethers will give the show a touch of new naughtiness, and with their rocking scissors and flying tackles, anything is expected.

Promoter Mack Lillard has announced reduced prices for the affair, and expects a repetition of the crowd that attended his last card here two weeks ago.

PICKERS AVAILABLE AT EMPLOYMENT OFFICE

Lewis Ulrich, manager of the local offices of the National Reemployment Service, announced this morning that orchardists who wish to hire men for picking may telephone the reemployment office in the city hall, number 187, where plenty of labor has been registered. Ulrich said that men who wish orchard employment should report to the city hall, but must be local residents before their applications will be accepted.

SALEM LOSES LEAGUE LEAD TO ALBANY NINE

SALEM, July 23.—(AP)—The Salem Senators relinquished their hold on first place in the State Baseball league Sunday as Albany handed them a 9 to 2 beating here and advanced into a first place tie with the local team.

CLAYBAUGH NEW CLOUTING HERO

Out of a week-end that saw San Francisco increase its first place lead to three games, Moose Claybaugh of Portland has emerged as the Coast league's newest clouting hero.

The Beaver left fielder's three singles Saturday didn't prevent the Portlanders from being beaten, 5-3, by Los Angeles, but yesterday he personally accounted for Portland's only victories of the series as he homed in each half of a 20-inning bargain bill.

He waited until the 13th inning of the opener to drive the ball over the right field fence, and score Coonart ahead of him, to give the Beavers a 6-4 triumph. With the score tied, 3-3 in the eighth inning of the nightcap, Moose walloped another to decide the game for Portland, 4-3. In addition to the four baggers, Claybaugh pounded a double and two singles during the day. Los Angeles walked off with the series, 5-2.

CRIME IS DEALT SMASHING BLOW BY GOVERNMENT

Neither offer stipulated that Dillinger be taken alive.

J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the department of justice investigation bureau, said today he also had ordered a concentration of federal forces in the hunt for John Hamilton, Homer Van Meter and Lester Gillis, alias George "Baby Face" Nelson, three of Dillinger's chief aides.

Hoover named Gillis as the man the department is most anxious to apprehend. He has been mentioned as the assassin of W. Curtis Baum, federal special agent, in the Dillinger outbreak in the Wisconsin Woods last April.

Hoover said it was "unlikely" that Dillinger had participated in any bank holdups since the Wisconsin shooting.

Although the desperado died with but $7 in his pockets, Hoover expressed confidence the bandit was by no means financially embarrassed.

Portraying Dillinger as "relieved," Hoover said, however, "he had his weaknesses—women for one thing, and a flair for the spectacular."

He cited the fact that Dillinger had his face lifted, eyebrows plucked and a mole removed as evidence of his cunning.

Asked about the details of the shooting in Chicago Hoover said "the despoiled to be killed and he was killed."

Coatless, Dillinger carried his gun last night in his trousers pocket. This, Hoover said, frustrated the Dillinger routine of carrying a weapon under his belt.

Speaking further of the dead man, Hoover said: "He was a man of the worst imaginable type. He was audacious, but his courage was of the type which required a brace of guns to keep it up. We don't see any brilliance in these fellows."

Dillinger's ingenuity received recognition from the investigator chief, however, as Hoover told when during the various twists of the bandit's career he had posed as a crime magazine writer and thereby gained access to a middle west police station and secured information that formed the basis for a Dillinger raid a few days later.

SCATTERED RAINS LIGHTEN HAND OF DROUGHT IN EAST

The highest temperature reported yesterday was 107 in Aurora, Ill. Springfield, Ill., smelted at 105; Minneapolis 104, St. Louis 102, Omaha and Chicago 101.

The heaviest loss of life was in Missouri, where 78 have died from the heat. Illinois has forfeited 66 lives, Nebraska 41, Ohio 15, Kansas 12, Iowa and Minnesota 11, and Texas 10.

The east was favored with a cool breeze in the fourth day of its siege yesterday, holding the maximum temperature at New York to 89, but the weather bureau said warmer temperatures may be expected in the next few days. The mountain states were cooler with general showers.
