

G. O. P. OF OREGON NAMES CHILOQUIN EDITOR AS CHIEF

S. S. Smith returned this morning from Portland where he attended the organization of the new Republican state committee of which he is representative from this county.

The meeting was attended by representatives from 30 of the 36 counties of the state, and from the harmony and enthusiasm that prevailed all through the meeting it is evident the Republicans are united for party success at congressional, state and county tickets this fall.

Arthur Pizault, publisher of a weekly paper in Chiloquin, Klamath county, was unanimously chosen chairman of the committee, and was authorized to appoint an executive committee of 20.

The selection of a vice-president from each of the three congressional districts and the secretary and treasurer was left to the chairman, executive committee and state candidates.

The resolutions gave full approval of the principles recently set forth by the national Republican committee and its plan of campaign this fall; condemned General Martin for claiming the credit in securing the approval of the development of the Columbia river, when in fact it was declared Senator Charles L. McNary was primarily responsible for the same and condemned the extension of federal bureaucracy, adding of 89,000 more persons to the government pay roll thereby by the present administration.

Joe Dunne, Republican nominee for governor and other prominent men made short talks.

Mrs. Susie Moyer, 75, passes while guest of son in Medford

Mrs. Susie Moyer, long-time member of the Methodist church, Rebekah lodge and Relief Corps, passed away at the home of her son in this city at 9:20 a. m. Monday, at the age of 75 years.

Mrs. Moyer was born in Porter township, Michigan, September 3, 1858. Her church and fraternal membership was at her old home town of Three Rivers, Mich. She came to Medford one month ago to make her home for a while with her son and daughter-in-law. Prior to that she had resided with another son in Portland.

She leaves three sons, all of whom were present when the end came. They are: Ivan Moyer of Medford, Harry H. Portland, and Elmer G., of Detroit, Mich. Also two brothers and one sister reside in Michigan, and five grandchildren in Portland.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Conger chapel by Rev. W. R. Baird, at 2:30 Wednesday. Services at the grave in the Medford I. O. O. F. cemetery will be under auspices of the local Rebekah lodge.

TOASTMASTERS GIVEN GRAPHIC ACCOUNT OF STRIKE BY GILSTRAP

C. W. Gilstrap, who recently returned from San Francisco, gave a graphic eye-witness account of the strike riots, at the meeting of the Toastmasters' club at the Holland hotel, Monday evening. Louis Richardson, toastmaster for the evening, led the discussion on problems arising from the coastal strike.

Leonard Terkelsen painted an interesting word picture of "Famous Strikes of the Past," and Frank Hull spoke on the Idaho mining strike during the early part of the century.

William Wellington reported the local labor situation on the eve of the packing season and was followed by Henry Fisher and Larry Pennington, both of whom were able to present interesting angles on this subject.

Brief talks by Dr. J. S. Johnson, U. C. Groves and Dr. B. R. Elliott brought the meeting to a close.

The club members voted the gathering highly interesting as well as educational, and are looking forward to Monday, August 6, when C. W. Gilstrap will be toastmaster.

Dr. Robert E. Lee, president, invites anyone interested in public speaking to attend all future meetings.
