

CITY LIFE BANNED FOR FARM YOUTH BY NAZI DECREES

Drastic Measures to All Prevent Urban Hausfraus From Hiring Country Maidens For House Work.

BERLIN (AP)—Drastic measures which even prohibit urban hausfraus from hiring country maids for housework are being taken by the Nazi government to check the drift of the farm population to the cities.

For Berlin new working permits will be issued hereafter only in rare instances for workers from outside whose wages are likely to be below $1,400 a year. This applies to all categories of labor including servants.

The federal labor office is being impounded by Berlin women of the wealthier classes to make an exception for the Pommeranian or Mecklenburg peasant girls whom these women prefer as maids or cooks.

The girls themselves having mingled with the city life, so long as there are unemployed city servants.

Summer Resorts Hit
A ban also has been placed upon the hiring of farmers' daughters by summer resorts as chambermaids, waitresses and barmaids.

Summer resorts, especially in Bavaria and the Black Forest, have been in the habit of recruiting their help for their busy season from the surrounding country.

This had a two-fold effect: the farmers complained that at the busiest time of harvesting their daughters were away from home; the girls themselves having mingled with the city life, often tried to drift to the cities.

Another industry which has been affected is the state-owned railways. Many section or divisional managers found it cheaper or most convenient to hire farm hands from the neighborhood for construction work.

This, too, is to stop as jobless city workers are to be employed.

May Force Farm Work
If these measures do not succeed in arresting the farm-to-city movement, the federal labor office has power to comb the industrial plants for men with farming antecedents, and to send them back to agriculture.

Care will be taken, however, not to raid the skilled trades. Germany is as much in need of really skilled workers as she is of farmers.

If, therefore, a country boy is learning to be a watch maker or carpenter, he need not fear that he will be yanked back to the farm.

MISFORTUNES HIT SILVER SHIRTS IN EXTRACTING COIN

Proton and Aides Are Now Facing Blue Sky Law Charges in North Carolina Stock Selling Efforts

By Ed Werkman
United Press Staff Correspondent.
ATLANTA, Ga.—(UP)—At an annual rate of $10 per member, William Dudley Pelley imparts mystic messages from eternity to his Protestant Christian Militia of America—the Silver Shirts, on how a Christ state was to be established in America.

The weekly magazine, "Liberation," published by the Galahad Press, Inc., was one of the means by which Pelley gave his messages. Now Pelley and two aides, Don Kellogg, and Robert Summerville, face charges of violating North Carolina's blue sky laws in connection with selling stock of the Galahad Press. A federal court has declared Galahad Press bankrupt.

Hard Luck
Other misfortunes have befallen the Silver Shirts. A United States marshal has confiscated personal files of Pelley on orders from a congressional committee seeking to determine the Silver Shirts' suspected connection with a Fascist or Nazi movement.

The Silver Shirts' doctrine is anti-Jewish. The fable is that the day Adolph Hitler was chosen dictator of Germany, Pelley called his aides together to tell them the time had come to bring the Silver Shirts into the open. A message from heaven told him to take such action, he said, when a dictator controlled Germany, and opposed the Jews.

Idea Broadened
Not until the spring of 1933 did Pelley's idea broaden into the organization of a militant army. He revealed his plans of organizing a new Christ state through the agency of the Silver Legion of America, or the Silver Shirts. Annual dues would be $10, which would include 62 issues of "Liberation" and 22 articles telling how the Christ government is to be organized in America.

The confidential "L" booklet issued to all members who paid their dues described how a Christ government would develop after organizing the United States into one large corporation. Each citizen would have one share of stock entitling him to approximately 883 per cent in the form of a certificate to be cashed in at government stores for goods. Pelley also advocated force against anti-Christian teachings, such as Communism.

At one time Pelley claimed a membership of 75,000, most of them in the southwest and California. Headquarters were opened in Oklahoma City and Fort Worth, Texas.
