

GILMORES TAKE MINERS, 15 TO 6 TO EVEN COUNT

Medford's Gilmore Lions strode to another well-earned victory yesterday on the Jacksonville diamond when they took the Miners of that city, 15-6, to even their summer's meetings.

2-2. It was Gilmore's fourth consecutive win over strong nines in southern Oregon and northern California, and the filling station fellows are training their sights on Hal Haight's Medford Rogues, in an effort to end the season in a blaze of color.

With three of Shorty Miles' proteges—Ray and Jim Tungate and Tommy Kenton—strengthening Gilmore's lineup, the Lions converted 14 hits into 15 runs when Dick Sakralski, Jim Tungate, Dick Lewis, Bob Smith and Cap Stoddard hit for extra bases in crucial moments, while the Miners, also garnering 14 hits, could convert but six runs from the effort.

Reinking and Greening were the only Miner extra-base clouters, Don Greening coming through with a home-run that lodged in a garage more than a block from the diamond.

Ray Tungate threw to Stoddard for Gilmore, while in the absence of Bill Hammesley, Skinny Wilson handled mound duties for the Miners, throwing to St. Johnson. Wilson, though allowing no more hits than his rival, was socked by spotted support in outfield. He nevertheless fanned 11 batsmen. It was Skinny Wilson who whiffed 21 of the 27 men who faced him at Klamath Falls recently in a Junior Legion encounter, to set a new all-time pitcher's record for the Pelican City.

In a special one-inning preliminary, Managers Bob Lewis and Leonard Hall pitched, Smith's men scoring twice on Jim Tungate's home-run, while Hall managed to whiff Gilmore's heaviest hitter, Dick Lewis. Immediately following the game, both nines were treated to a keg of beer to end their last meeting of the season with good-fellowship.

Gilmore, to date, has no game lined up for Sunday, but has been eyeing Medford's Rogues with visions of another certain victory. If Hal Haight's men are willing to take their chances, Jacksonville's Miners will journey to Cold Hill next Sunday to play off southern Oregon's Twisted series, both nines having a 2-2 tie standing for the season.

ROGUES BAFFLED BY K. F. PITCHER LOSE GAME, 9-0

The Medford Rogues went down to their fourth straight defeat when they lost to the fast Ewanna Red Sox at Klamath Falls yesterday by the score of 9 to 0.

The Boxmen touched Jack Hughes, Medford pitcher, for a total of 15 safe blows with Kiger and Oakes leading the attack with three hits each. Oakes, a new addition to the Red Sox pitching staff, held the Rogues to four scattered hits, and retired six via the strike-out route.

Hoosier Haffard poled out a two-base hit in the sixth inning to win a case of beer.

SERAPHS RETURN TO LEAGUE LEAD

Revival of the pitching form that gave Los Angeles first ball honors has lifted the 1933 champions back into the second half Coast league leadership.

Playing as they did when they bowled over every other club in the circuit in the first half, the Lehigh men swept their three week-end games with San Francisco to take the series 6-1 and move two games ahead of the Seals.

Fay Thomas started the week-end yesterday Saturday as he hurled a three-hit game to win, 2-1, over Walter Mails of the Seals in 10 innings. It was Thomas' 18th victory of the season. J. Millard Campbell stopped the San Franciscans, 6-5, in the Sunday opener with seven safeties. Campbell finished the last inning of the nightcap for Lou Garland as the Angels won, 3-2. Frank Demaree boosted his league leading home run total to 35 with a long one in the second game.

COACH SELECTION VOTING IS CLOSE

CHICAGO, July 30.—(AP)—Two western conference coaches, Dick Hanley of Northwestern and Noble Kiver of Purdue, are running one-two today in the voting to name a pilot for the all-star college team which will meet the Chicago Bears, national champions, at Soldier Field August 31.

Hanley had 8,814 votes, to 8,611

WALTER M'CREIDIE BEAVER MANAGER, CALLED BY DEATH

PORTLAND, Ore., July 30.—(AP)—Walter McCredie, 56, manager of the Portland baseball team of the Pacific Coast League, died here Sunday on the eve of a scheduled baseball game here in his honor.

For weeks McCredie has been unable to be with the Portland team. After managing Portland for a number of years McCredie went into semi-retirement and only this year returned to baseball actively.

No Walter McCredie might ever was held for the kindly old Scot during the years he turned out Coast league championship teams and developed many major league stars.

Baseball ardent planned this big baseball bouquet for him tonight, but the flowers were ordered too late. However McCredie was cheered in his last days with news of the preparations underway for the game.

"And it was his last request that the game be played and the benefit proceeds go to his wife.

and was near, and he requested that end was near, and he requested that members of the Portland team be his pallbearers.

Baseball was his whole life. And he was crushed to disappointment when he returned to baseball only to have a cellar team.

When he was able to purchase the players he wanted Portland won five pennants and made money. Pennants came in 1906, 1910, 1911, 1913 and 1914.

LETTERS TO FACE HUGE RUBE WRIGHT ON THURSDAY CARD

When "Jumping Joe" Savoldi, ex-Notre Dame grid star, steps into the Medford army ring for a bout here some time within the next three weeks, it won't be Promoter Mack Lillard's fault if he doesn't find at least his equal there.

Last week in the first of a series of elimination bouts to provide an opponent for Savoldi, "Sad" Sam Lethers, tall Texas grappler, and Al Karnick, Russian muscle-mangler, came through with honors.

Next Thursday the 209-pound Dallas man, who wins matches with his supple legs, will tangle in the first half of a double main event with Rube Wright, 235, of Los Angeles, a big-time wrestler who is scheduled to give Lethers an anxious evening.

Fete Belcastro, belligerent Italian from Sacramento, will grapple with Pat McGill of Nebraska in the second half of the card. The same reduced admission rates that drew one of the largest crowds of the season last week will be in effect.

Both Lethers and Belcastro furnish colorful grappling, and treat their ringmates as rough as they come. Belcastro has been tangling with all comers in Seattle and other Washington cities for the past few weeks, and has stored up a good supply of fresh tricks to turn loss in the local ring, where he is welcomed as a strong favorite.

UMPQUA PROVIDES STEELHEAD FISHING

A letter received today by H. L. Noblit of this city from Robert App of the Old Kentucky home resort on the North Umpqua, stated that guests there during the past week have been successful in catching a number of steelhead in the vicinity of Glide.

Mr. App reported that the guide for the Zane Grey party said fishing was also good further up the Umpqua.

Due to the poor fishing in the Rogue at the present time, Mr. App thought local fishermen might be interested in visiting the Umpqua region.

PRO TITLE TO RUNYAN THROUGH VICTORY OVER WOOD IN EXTRA HOLES

PARK CLUB, Buffalo, N. Y., July 30.—(AP)—Paul Runyan, whose introduction to golf consisted of chipping balls for four bits an hour, ruled the American professional ranks today.

Doing it the hard way, the 26-year-old former Arkansas caddy conquered Craig Wood, the betting beauty of Hollywood, N. J., one up in a putting duel yesterday over the short park course.

The 38-hole final tied the record for extra-hole finals in the 17-year-old tournament, matching the 38-hole battle of 1923, when Gene Sarazen won from Walter Hagen. It also marked the second time that Wood had come close to a major title. Last year he was denied the British open title in an extra inning battle with Denny Shute.

The most important point of the whole show was that the little 130-pound Runyan—for four years a thorn in the side of the game's big winter-horned stars—had arrived. Over the 1933-34 winter, hard training campaign he won $7000 and his victory yesterday netted him another $1000 with the title ultimately estimated to be worth $12,000.
