STATE GUARDSMEN DEMOBILIZED

News Behind The News

(Copyright, 1934, by Paul Mallon.)

(Paul Mallon, whose signature usually appears over this dispatch, is on a brief vacation. During his absence the column will be composed of contributions from leading Washington correspondents.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—If anyone supposes that only the stranger coming to Washington is unable to find his way about in the bewildering multiplicity of government departments, bureaus, administrations and commissions, he has only to ask the United States information service to be disabused of such a notion.

This service was set up several months ago to answer questions, foolish and otherwise, about where to find this or that agency, whom to see when you got there and which agency to seek on any specific errand. It was intended primarily to meet the needs of the public outside the capital and those who came here on business with the government or even seeking a job.

As it has turned out, the bureau has been extremely useful to the outside public, but, strangely enough, half of its business is in supplying information to persons in the government about some branch of the government with which they are not connected or with which they are unfamiliar. Those in official places don't know their way about.

The government machine was already vast and intricate before the advent of the new deal, but with new commissions and administrations being set up almost every day — there have been between 30 and 40 new ones—it is impossible to keep printed directories up to date, and, without some central clearing house of information, it would be a hopeless task to try to run down the habitat of some of the fledgling creations. For days certain of them were unhoused and went about hunting for a home. In these circumstances the information service itself has to do a lot of scouting to keep up with the procession and be able to justify itself.

Although 50 per cent of the appeals for help come from the government departments, senators and representatives also dump troublesome inquiries from constituents on the bureau, and letters pour in not only from all over the United States, but from all parts of the world. Letters have come from Siam and from China. Great curiosity about the working of the various plans put into effect here is manifested in all foreign countries.

If a department receives a letter concerning a matter which is not under its jurisdiction, it sends it to the information service to be routed to the correct destination. The part of the public which has gained knowledge of the service seems to regard it as omnipotent and omniscient and very soon it probably will be called upon to solve domestic difficulties.

One writer asked that the bureau furnish a formula which will extract paint and sizing glue from shade cloth without injuring the muslin." From the deep south came the Macedonian cry, "Send me a bulletin on termites, boring beetles and other insects."

Besides answering questions about the government and the operation of new laws, the service, as a sideline, is almost a missing persons bureau. When the postoffice, telegraph or telephone companies are unable to find a person at a given address they usually turn to the USIS.

Since his return from Europe, Ambassador-at-Large Norman Davis has several times publicly expressed his belief that there was no immediate danger of war in Europe, but the reasons for this conviction only became known on his visit here.

Mr. Davis reported that there is deep social unrest in all countries, but, so far from this making international conflict probable, it is just the other way around. The disgruntled and disaffected peoples are not angry with their neighbors and have no wish to fight them.

They seem to realize that they and their neighbors are all in the same boat and that their troubles are economic, not political or racial. Hence, the anger that is in them is directed against their own governments and not against the foreigner.

Another check on war moves is the fact that the various governments are quite aware of this feeling among the people. They know the masses have no stomach for war and, if one were undertaken, they could not be sure the people would not change the direction of it.

A good illustration of this state of affairs is in the behavior of Hitler. This dictator has had two big frights within a month and he is now crawling under the bed. The first was at the end of June, when he discovered that a large element of his supposedly devoted followers in the storm troops thought he had sold them out to the big industrialists and were weakening in their allegiance. He was so scared that only the wholesale murder of the alleged ringleaders steadied his nerves a bit. With the

COAST PORTS HUM WITH ACTIVITY ON WORKERS' RETURN

Governor Meier Acts to Send Soldiers Home Soon After Strikers Resume Tasks—Entire Coast Is Opened

SALEM, July 31.—(AP)—The cost of mobilizing 1,100 members of the National Guard at Camp Clackamas for strike duty, will total an estimated $55,000, it was estimated here today.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 31.—(AP)—Oregon ports, after 84 days of commercial paralysis, resumed normal and unrestricted operation today as striking maritime workers returned to their jobs.

Less than one hour after more than 1,500 men had gone back to work on Portland's waterfront, Governor Julius L. Meier ordered demobilization of the Oregon National Guard contingent of 1,100 men who had been encamped within a short distance of the city, ready to quell any waterfront disturbance. The troops were called two weeks ago when a general strike threatened.

Men Eager to Work

The maritime workers, longshoremen, seamen, ships' officers, grain handlers, dock workers and office help, swarmed into their respective positions this morning, eager to return to work. It was in striking contrast to the morning of May 9 when several hundred men gathered at the waterfront hiring hall here—but not to work.

Lunch kits replaced picket signs and sticks today. Hands that for 84 days were knotted into fists, were eager to man slings, cases, bags and barrels at the dock fronts.

The two hiring halls—the same buildings used before the strike

BELOVED ACTRESS IS LAID TO REST

GLENDALE, Calif., July 31.—(AP)—A song by the lovely Jeanette McDonald, the reading of a short poem, an eulogy, a prayer—and Marie Dressler, beloved screen actress, was laid to rest today.

There was sadness in the hearts of the little funeral cortege that gathered in the little chapel of the wee kirk o' heather to pay final respect to one of motion pictures' greatest actresses.

In the quiet church assembled Marie's closest friends of the film colony,—directors, cameramen, actors, writers, a studio waitress, and directors,—representing the high and low in the chosen profession of the great movie character.

The public that had laughed and wept with Miss Dressler in "Min and Bill," Anna Christie," and "Tugboat Annie" was not there.

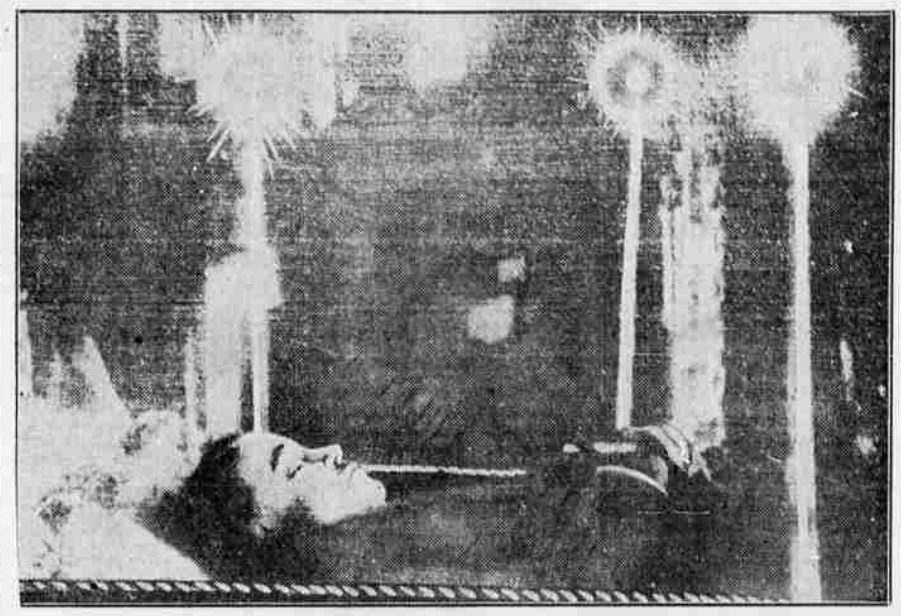
ALLRED LEADS IN TEXAS PRIMARY

DALLAS, Tex., July 31.—(AP)—Tabulation of votes cast in Saturday's first democratic primary swung into its last stages today with James V. Allred, attorney-general, steadily adding to a lead established over Tom F. Hunter, Wichita Falls attorney, and his likely opponent in the August 25 runoff for the governorship.

The latest count showed Allred to have 232,063 votes; Hunter, 203,759; McDonald, 177,260; Clint C. Small, 106,302.

Senator Tom Conally smashed ahead to lead Congressman Joseph Weldon Bailey, Jr., by 409,506 to 250,125, in the United States senatorial balloting.

THOUSANDS PASS BIER OF SLAIN AUSTRIAN LEADER



This Associated Press photo, telephoned from Vienna to London and then radioed to New York, shows the assassinated Austrian chancellor, Engelbert Dollfuss, lying in state in the chancellory in Vienna. His death was the signal for a widespread nazi revolt. Thousands passed through the chancellory for a last view of their fallen leader and other thousands attended his state funeral.

FIRST OF PEACHES AND HOWELL PEARS START TO MARKET

The first 1000 boxes of a 150-ton lot of J. H. Hale peaches, raised in the Voorhies crossing district, and contracted for by Los Angeles fruit brokers were shipped yesterday. The peaches were raised on an orchard leased by A. Wolgamott from the trustees in bankruptcy of L. A. Banks. No price was made public, but was reported as "very satisfactory." A second shipment is expected to be dispatched the end of the week.

Picking of Howell pears is now under way in the valley. The second picking of Barletts is scheduled to start the end of this week and the first of next. County Agent Lyle P. Wilcox reports that the first picking of D'Anjous will start by the end of next week; that the crop will be about the same as last year, and that the variety shows good size and quality.

Olen Arnspiger, general manager of the Medford irrigation district, and the Talent Irrigation districts said today that the issuance of irrigation water quotas would be completed "shortly after August 15." In the meantime, all water will be distributed under the present quotas and regulations. Arnspiger said that the irrigation water had lasted "better than anticipated last March and April."

Arnspiger and Attorney Frank P. Farrell returned this morning from Portland where they conferred with the bondholders' committee of the Talent district on refinancing plans. The bondholders committee expects to hold a meeting shortly and announce a further decision.

Attorney Porter J. Neff, who left the first of the week for Washington, D. C., arrived there last night. He will represent the Medford district in the final details of securing a Reconstruction Finance corporation loan for approximately $400,000 for re-financing.

TELEPHONE HEARING RESUMES TOMORROW

SALEM, July 31.—(AP)—The public utilities commission's investigation of the rates, charges and practices of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, will be resumed in Portland tomorrow as previously arranged, it was announced today.

The hearing will continue until completion, and was expected to last about a month. It will mark the termination of four years' study and work on the case.

TWO ASK DAMAGE FOR INJURIES IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Three damage suits, two originating from auto accidents, and one from a neighborhood quarrel in this city, have been filed in circuit court.

Delbert Tingleaf, 17, of Eagle Point, through his mother as guardian, renewa suit against the C. E. Gates Auto company and R. M. Miller, an auto salesman for $25,000 general damages, $10,000 special damages and $1560.79 for medical services. A similar suit was filed last September, but was dismissed upon an involuntary non-suit last March, after a trial before a jury had started.

Tingleaf, according to the complaint, sustained permanent injuries in an auto accident July 28, 1932, while riding in a sedan, driven by Ralph Dinsmore and Jesse Walton, Eagle Point youths on the Butte Falls road. The auto turned over at a sharp curve. The defense claims that the auto company, through its agent, Miller, was negligent in allowing Dinsmore to drive the auto, as a demonstration test.

Everett Skeeters, Wagner creek logging operator, in a suit filed yesterday seeks $635 damages from Fred C. Abel and Myrtle Susie Birch for damages sustained June 7, last, in an auto accident between his Cadillac and the Abel Ford, driven by the woman defendant, the complaint charges.

The complaint charges that Myrtle Susie Birch, a resident of Ashland, was intoxicated, drove in a reckless and careless manner, possessed no operator's license and that the Abel car bore a California license plate

BIG VALLEY FIRE EATS UP TIMBER

BRIDGE, Cal., July 31.—(AP)—A forest fire, which already had destroyed or damaged timber estimated at more than 10,000,000 feet, raged along a 15-mile front on Big Valley mountain today.

The fire broke out last night and several hundred men, including CCC workers, lumber mill and logging crews, fought the blaze.

It appeared the blaze could be held in check if the wind did not increase.

PIRATES REPORTED ON LAKE EXCURSION SHIP

CHICAGO, July 31.—(AP)—An anonymous tip that pirates were aboard the excursion steamer "City of Grand Rapids," bound for Milwaukee, sent coast guards after the vessel today, but its master radioed a message "Everything okay."

JOHNSON HEADS FOR CHICAGO TO LOOK AT STRIKE

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 31.—(AP)—Headed for Chicago, where he is expected to look over the stockyards strike situation, General Hugh Johnson, NRA administrator, left here in an army plane shortly after 9 a. m. today.

The recovery administrator, however, will stop first at Okmulgee Okla., to visit his mother.

CHICAGO, July 31.—(AP)—Stockyards strike participants were still far apart today and the cattle were few.

Only the arrival of 3,000 head of government-owned cattle kept the world's biggest livestock market from complete inactivity. Ordinarily, the commission men, shopping on horseback through the acres of pens, have 15,000 to 20,000 head to be bought and sold before Chicago finishes its breakfast.

Trading was resumed today on midget proportions. The commission men, who declared an embargo on shipments when the Union Stockyards and Transit company's handlers walked out, began a clean-up market to find takers for a few hundred head of feeding stock scattered about the lot.

MRS. ROOSEVELT DRIVES UP COAST

EUREKA, Cal., July 31.—(AP)—Like any other tourist returning from a vacation, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt motored leisurely through northern California today.

Her vacation as a "private citizen" seeing America, will end Friday in Portland, Ore., when she rejoins her husband and again becomes "the President's wife."

Still just plain Mrs. Roosevelt, she spent the night in secluded Benbow Inn, nestled in among the giant redwoods of northern California.

ABOARD THE CRUISER NEW ORLEANS, En Route with President Roosevelt to Portland, Ore., July 31. (AP) — President Roosevelt steered a course across the Pacific today to make a personal inspection of two great developments.

Proceeding straight from the coast upon his departure from Portland, Ore., Friday, the President will go to the Bonneville dam and power project. From there he will visit the Grand Coulee project in Washington.

SECRETARY ICKES AT CRATER LAKE

Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior, was reported this afternoon as somewhere between Crater Lake national park and Klamath Falls. The cabinet member slipped into the park yesterday, practically without being noticed by park personnel or visiting tourists, and after an inspection of the scenic wonder, went to bed early in preparation for his trip today to Portland to meet President Roosevelt on his return from the Hawaiian islands Friday.

SALEM, July 31.—(AP)—Extradition papers were issued by Governor Julius L. Meier today, for Fred Propp, Jr., escaped prisoner from Oakland, California. He was arrested in Portland.

'HEIL HITLER!' CRY NAZI ASSASSINS HANGED IN VIENNA

Two Convicted Dollfuss Death Salute German Dictator As Last Act—New Reign of Terror Starts

VIENNA, July 31.—(AP)—An official account of the execution of Franz Holzweber today said that as he stood on the gallows before he was hanged he shouted: "I die for Germany! Heil Hitler!" Otto Planetta, said the account, shouted "Heil! Hitler!"

(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press)

VIENNA, July 31.—(AP)—Two nazis accused of high treason in the killing of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss were hanged this afternoon. They had been convicted by a court martial.

The two men—Otto Planetta, former soldier and Franz Holzweber — were hanged after a plea of their counsel for clemency was rejected.

Planetta was accused of firing the fatal shots and Holzweber of leading the nazi putsch into the federal chancellory last Wednesday.

(By the Associated Press)

A campaign of terror by bombing brought new harassment to troubled Austria today.

trian independence.

Injected into the Austrian situation also was an indication by official quarters in Belgrade that Yugoslavia resents the idea of Italy playing a lone hand in guaranteeing Austrian independence. It was said the Yugoslav government held that the question of Austrian independence was a matter for all of Austria's neighbors who should be consulted before any steps are taken.

An Italian spokesman in Rome said Italy was not perturbed by the Belgrade statement and that it had not been Italy's idea to play a lone hand in the Austrian situation.

With their revolt all but stamped out, the nazis started a new reign of terror by exploding bombs in various parts of Austria. Explosions were reported both in the provinces and in Vienna.

The new government headed by Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg struck a heavy blow at the nazis, ordering them placed in concentration camps at hard labor, their propexty to be confiscated

Berlin newspapers predicted that the Schuschnigg cabinet would not last. It stands on "weaker feet" than the Dollfuss ministry, one newspaper said.

The French reaction to the Yugoslav statement on Austrian independence was understood to be a notice by Louis Barthou, French foreign minister, to Yugoslavia, Czechoslavakia and Rumania to "keep hands off. Leave decisions to the big powers."

ONE KILLED BY SOLDIER'S AUTO

MINNEAPOLIS, July 31.—(AP)—One man was killed and four others were injured today when a national guard squad car, running through a traffic signal to where strike pickets were reported dumping a farmer's truck, crashed into a small sedan.

Three troopers were hurt. Carl Wallin, driver of the sedan, was killed and his companion, not immediately identified, was rushed to a hospital with a possible skull fracture and internal injuries.

PENDLETON, July 31.—(AP)—For the third time since last March, the service station of Louis Hearthrong in West Pendleton was held up last night by a lone robber, who obtained ten dollars. Police later arrested Lynn Barnes, 27, of Joplin, Mo., for questioning in connection with the robbery.

HINDENBURG NEAR DEATH IS FEAR OF GERMAN CITIZENS

BERLIN, July 31. — (AP) — The propaganda ministry today ordered the German press not to speculate on the successor of President von Hindenburg in the event of his death, informing journalists "all that has been taken care of."

BERLIN, July 31.—(AP)—Deutschland waited and worried today for news of the venerable President von Hindenburg, leader in war and peace.

Physicians' bulletins from Neudeck, where the 86-year-old soldier lies seriously ill, were anxiously scanned by street corner groups.

Word passed quickly about that the illness might be his last. In the last several months he has suffered prostate and bladder ailments and his feet have been affected.

The news of the serious turn in his illness came unexpectedly to most Germans. Cause for alarm was reported Sunday, but on Monday the president recovered sufficiently to take his daily outing and receive a state official to obtain eagerly awaited reports on the Austrian situation.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—(AP)—Jealousy of a divorced wife who would not talk to him and assertedly shared her apartment with another man caused William C. Malone to kill her, authorities said today as they prepared to file murder charges against the former El Paso hotel man.

Louise Malone, attractive 26-year-old beauty shop employe, died late last night of five bullet wounds.

COUNTY TO REFUSE RELIEF FOR THOSE STIRRING TURMOIL

List of Names Seized in Raid On Stockman Residence Will Be Scanned by Jackson County Relief Agencies

The Jackson county court announced today that it would strike from its relief lists, all members of any communistic organization, engaged in activities having as a purpose the attempted overthrow of the American form of government, or creating of labor discord.

The county court members yesterday discussed the matter thoroughly and notified two beneficiaries of county alms, regarded as active in the "Cannery and Agricultural Workers Union," here, that before they could receive their aid warrants for July, they must consult with the county court. The county court also asked the district attorney's office for a list of names seized in a raid on the residence of James E. Stockman last Saturday. The names will be checked with the various county relief agencies' lists of indigents.

Many Names Known

The district attorney's office in the week-end raids, secured a fairly complete list of the Jackson county membership, and it is known that a number of county residents, who have been receiving old age pensions, indigent relief, and other forms of aid, have signed membership cards. Others, in the same class have not joined the allegedly communistic organization, but are present at all

COUNTY C-C TRIO WILL GREET F. R.

Jackson County chamber of commerce will be represented by three Medford men on the reception committee Thursday for President Roosevelt in Portland, it was announced today. Badges have been received here, and they will be presented C. M. Brewer, T. E. Daniels and Ralph O. Stephenson.

The three men plan to attend the reception, and have also been presented stickers for their cars, which will permit them to visit the Bonneville dam site. The appointments were made by Ben E. Harder, president of the Jackson County chamber of commerce.

STORES OPEN TO 9 P. M. SATURDAY

Medford business houses will remain open until nine o'clock and Saturday nights instead of 8:30 p. m., as has been customary, according to announcement made by the Jackson County chamber of commerce. The change was made to accommodate workers during the fruit season.

Wm. F. Isaacs, chairman of the retail merchants committee of the chamber, said today that he had contacted a number of the merchants, and that the majority were in favor of remaining open until nine o'clock during the fruit season.

WILL ROGERS says:

WAIMEA, Hawaii, July 30—This is written out here on the world's famous Parker ranch. There are marvelous cattle ranches on these islands and these native cowboys are plenty handy with those rawhide riatas. Thirty thousand head of high grade Herefords on this Parker ranch. Over half a million acres.

The best horses I ever saw on any ranch anywhere. Nothing under seven-eighths thoroughbred. Over 600 horses just in the saddle horse string.

You fly to these various islands in an amphibian plane on a well-managed and equipped line. They are all connected by wireless telephone. This is phoned to the Honolulu islands.

Insull Ready to Tell Of Business Dealings

CHICAGO, July 31.—(AP)—Samuel Insull professed today to be ready to make "full and frank disclosure" of all the details of his business operations and asked the United States district court to grant him a trial separate from the 16 others accused of mail frauds in the marketing of corporation securities company stock.

In the petition for a severance presented by his attorney, Floyd E. Thompson, the elder Insull said he would be hindered in presenting his full statement and his defense if the record were cluttered with the evidence relating to his son and other directors of corporation securities who were indicted with him.

"I am now ready," Insull said in his petition, "to make a full and frank disclosure of all the facts and details to my extensive business operations.

"These facts and details I stand ready to reveal to the fullest extent as soon as I am given an opportunity to testify on my trial"

Naming eight co-defendants, Insull said that they had spent most of their business careers in the service of corporations of which he was the active head, and "while they were men of independent action and judgment," they naturally looked to him for guidance in matters of general policy.

These eight were Samuel Insull, Jr., Edward J. Doyle, Phillip J. Encon, John F. O'Keefe, Fred H. Scheel, Robert W. Waite, Frank R. Evers and George A. Kemp.

Kingfish Grabs Orleans Voters Registry Lists

NEW ORLEANS, July 31. — (AP) — Senator Huey P. Long directed a pre-election attack on the city administration today, his national guardsmen holding the New Orleans registration office under partial martial law.

More than a score of guardsmen appeared at the city hall annex last night, battered in the door and took possession of the lists of names of qualified voters for the September congressional primary.

Governor O. K. Allen, a Long supporter, issued a proclamation establishing partial martial law and explained that the action was taken to protect the registrar's office from "insult and intimidation." The martial law applied only to a restricted area in the vicinity of the city hall.

Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley, bitter enemy of the Louisiana "kingfish," sat in his city hall office across the street at the time. He said:

"It is apparent that they want to scratch the names from the registration books under the protection of the militia. They already control the registration office here through state appointment of the local registrar."

In his hotel suite, from which he directs his political campaigns, Senator Long sat closeted with Governor Allen and other state officials, and directed the fresh attack.

The "kingfish" has conducted a stern campaign against Walmsley for the last two weeks, charging that the city was a "cesspool of corruption."

Guardsmen were employed late in the night and early this morning handing out circulars headed "Honest Registration Guaranteed."
