

BRECHEN SLATED FOR PEN RELEASE IN COMING WEEK

Tom L. Brechen, former Ashland resident, sentenced to serve 18 months upon his plea of guilty to participation in the Jackson county ballot thefts, is scheduled to be released from state prison next week. Brechen was sentenced August 7, last, and earned time off for good behavior. He is the second of the ballot theft defendants to walk out the front gate of the penitentiary. The first, Wesley McKittrick, was granted parole.

Brechen is scheduled to go to the home of relatives in California, upon his release. He has told prison attaches, local authorities have been informed, "I never want to see Jackson county again."

Brechen, before running afoul of the law, was a resident for two years in Ashland, where he engaged in small realty business. He was a journeyman solicitor for registered voters at 10c per name, in the 1932 campaign, and did a good job. During the Banks-Fehl turmoil he was a star boarder of the county and made humorous speeches at "Grand Assemblies."

He claimed a "personal friendship with President Roosevelt for 25 years. When indicted for vote stealing, he could not be found until an official searcher happened to look in the woman's ward of the county jail, where Brechen was reading and taking his ease.

Evidence in the trials showed that Brechen was present at all the vote stealing plottings, and when the actual crime was committed stood on the south side of the courthouse, smoking his pipe and predicting, "something is going to happen."

COLONEL HOWE, SECRETARY TO F. R., IS VISITOR

"name that could live in Medford I know a lot of Joneses and more Smiths." He would not admit that he knew anybody living in Medford or environs.

"Colonel Watson caught a salmon this afternoon, and he's not fit to live with," continued Colonel Howe. He then praised the "scenic beauty of the west," asked the whereabouts of Mrs. Roosevelt, and left the interviewers to superintend the unloading of the luggage by the CCC boys.

The colonel was assured by Mr. Rosenbaum that the Southern Pacific was prepared to extend him every courtesy and that his special car would be on the tail end of the Shasta.

The Shasta arrived at 7:55 and Colonel Watson and Secretary Early were still eating. This caused Colonel Howe to inquire of Mr. Rosenbaum: "Where are the boys?"

"I told them that if they didn't finish their supper in time, the train would wait for them," replied Mr. Rosenbaum, proud of the Southern Pacific's brand of courtesy.

"You shouldn't have done that," said Colonel Howe. "You should have told them the train would leave ahead of time, and they would be here now."

The rest of the party appeared and they retired to their staterooms. The train puffed out with a lady reporter of Grants Pass aboard, seeking an interview from Colonel Howe.

BUTTE CREEK BRIDGE MUST BE REPLACED

The county court and county engineer today are inspecting a bridge over the South Fork of Little Butte creek, near Mrs. Tonn's place. The bridge is at the end of its usefulness and will have to be replaced at a cost of $2000. The county engineer reports it is apt to fall down and is no longer strong enough to hold heavy or continued traffic. The bridge serves a considerable number of people, and travel to the Dead Indian Soda Springs.

BAD BREATH

You may have an acid condition and not realize it. Acid condition causes a bad taste in your mouth that indicates a bad breath. Acid submits you to colds, loss of pep, and to constipation. Play safe—correct that acid condition with McKesson's Milk of Magnesia. Milk of Magnesia is not all alike. Insist on McKesson's— a quality product. At your drugist's—only 35c a pint.
