Coming Sunday

Laurel and Hardy, with Jimmy Durante, Lupe Velez, Polly Moran, Charles Butterworth and many other screen and radio favorites, and even Mickey Mouse himself, are featured in "Hollywood Party" at the Craterian theater today and Saturday. Besides appearing as one of the featured players in the main picture—through a process of some clever trick photography—Mickey Mouse is also on the Craterian program in a new Walt Disney cartoon, "The Flying Mouse," entirely in color.

Baby LeRoy, with his manhandling (or we should say nosehandling) of W. C. Fields in "The Old Fashioned Way," coming to the Craterian theater Sunday, has his hands full. It's just another of the many various comedy situations in the film, which ranges from the presentation of the famous old tear-jerker, "The Drunkard," to Fields' juggling and about every trick for a laugh you could possibly think of.

MRS. DALL GIVES CHILDREN CHANCE TO VISIT FATHER

"There is nothing to the rumor that I am engaged to marry a Washington newspaper man. I am going home to work. I have more than the usual amount of writing and radio work to do while her is away."

Mrs. Dall said her children would remain with their father for "a couple of weeks" and then return to her. But she would not discuss the terms of their custody incorporated in the divorce decree.

Dall, taking the youngsters to his hotel suite said he would show "Sis-tie" and "Buzzie" the world's fair, particularly the enchanted island.

ARMSTRONG LEADING IN GOLF SEMI-FINAL
