

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Irva K. Fewell

Carpenters Feted at Brommer Home For Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Carpenter of Perrydale were delightfully entertained at a covered dish supper on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brommer, 821 Minnesota avenue. The occasion was in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter have been residents of Medford since 1911 and the thirty friends who gathered to congratulate them on this occasion were those who had known and been associated with them during most of these years.

Walter Frazer Brown read a poem of his own composition written in honor of the occasion and gifts were presented to the bride and groom by the assembly. Each related wedding day experiences and Mr. and Mrs. Carpenters' long wedded life and exemplary home life were eulogized by those of the guests who have known them most intimately.

Eight Couples Enjoy Supper Friday Eve In Phythian Garden

Friday evening at the home of Miss Phyllis Phythian on Minnesota street eight couples of the younger set were entertained with a formal supper dance. The evening was spent in the lovely gardens of the Phythian home.

Miss Jean Rankin of Portland, who is house guest of Miss Margaret Boyle, was honor guest for the evening.

Supper was served at 7:30 on the lawn, and the guests picked out comfortable nooks to enjoy the dainty sandwiches, salads and iced tea. Although cool, the evening was most enjoyable. After supper the group was entertained with dancing on the paved drive at the rear of the home.

Refreshments of ice cream and dainty cakes were served at 10 o'clock, also in the garden, after which more dancing and a social good time was enjoyed until a late hour.

Those present were the Misses Joyce Banish, Surette Stennett, Barbara Schmidt, Elizabeth Eason, Boyle, Barbara Jean Field, the honor guest, the hostess and Messrs. Bill Prentice, Sam Kroeschel, Tom Fucson, Bob Sherwood, Dick Wilson, Bill Cummings, Noel Benson and Lucian Clement.

Mrs. Lewis To Entertain

Mrs. R. L. Lewis will entertain the Building Bridges club at a dessert luncheon next Thursday at 1:30 at her home on Catherine St.

Arrive For Brief Vacation

Captain and Mrs. Eben S. Longfellow of Agnes, Curry County, arrived Saturday for a brief vacation. They will visit Crater Lake and the Oregon Caves before returning to Camp Agnes, where Captain Longfellow is in command of the CCC camp.

Mrs. Caston Has Guests for Bridge

Mrs. Ed Carlson entertained Friday with a dessert bridge luncheon, inviting several members of her bridge club and other guests for the afternoon. Guest prizes went to Miss Louise Basford and Mrs. L. A. Crane, while club awards were given to Mrs. George Carter and Miss Gertrude Parker.

Tables were in Play for Miss Parker

The annual meeting of the Jackson county branch of the American Red Cross was held on Friday, July 27, at Hotel Medford, and was largely attended. Mr. J. C. Thompson, chairman, presided, and after giving a resume of the work of the society during the past year, called on various members for remarks.

Interesting talks were given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Miss Lillian Roberts, Judge Dew, Mr. Billings and Mr. Thordyke.

Many of the speakers voiced appreciation of the excellent work of Miss Lillian Roberts, whose tireless energy, combined with a comprehensive knowledge of county relief problems, has done much to simplify this work.

Dr. Drummond spoke of the fine work in first aid carried on under the chairmanship of Beth Bullis and stated that this work will be increased and broadened during the coming year.

Mr. Thompson, who has been a most efficient chairman for the past three years, was unable to accept the office this year, and Leo T. Frey was elected chairman.

Other officers elected were, vice-chairman, J. C. Thompson; secretary, Mrs. Frederick H. Johnson; treasurer, B. Heffer.

The board of directors remains the same as last year.

Heiress Wins Prize

Shown here is Josephina Ford, 11-year-old daughter of Edsel Ford and granddaughter of Henry Ford after her colic, Bobford, had won a prize at the Mount Desert Kennel club dog show at Bar Harbor, Me. (Associated Press Photo)

Little Miss Hostess To Fifteen in Eighth Birthday Celebration

Little Miss Joan Cox was hostess to a party celebrating her eighth birthday anniversary at her home on Columbus avenue Monday afternoon, July 30.

After an afternoon of games and entertainment as well as having pictures taken, the little group of children assembled around a colorful and cleverly decorated table with a beautiful birthday cake as centerpiece. Ice cream and punch also were served.

The decorations were carried out in pink, green and white.

Those present were: Louise and Roy Russell of Central Point, Jean, Billy and Dick Placy, Conny and Jerry King, Maxine and Billy McKinney, Norma Lee Marion of Central Point, Marilyn Nickle, Helen Dooms, Rodger Wolfe, Donald Barrow, Roxella Cuthen and the hostess, little Miss Cox.

The hostess received many lovely gifts from her little friends and all left the party with smiling faces, repeating what a good time they had.

Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner Leave for Victoria

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Faulkner of Los Angeles, who have been visiting Mr. Faulkner's uncle, R. E. McElhiney, left the first part of the week for Victoria, British Columbia.

Card Party is Well Attended

St. Anne's Altar society card party Wednesday evening was very well attended. Mrs. R. L. Lewis and her committee was in charge. After the usual number of games, refreshments were served.

Prizes went to Mrs. Vera Elmsall for high score in contract; Mrs. York, high score in auction; and Miss Amy Hageman, high score in five hundred.

Entertained Guests at Smith Residence

The Misses Phyllis Smith and Beth Ollings were hostesses last Saturday evening at the home of Miss Smith on West Main street. The evening was spent in dancing and games, after which delightful refreshments were served.

Guests included the Misses Peggy Bateman, Jean Gillings, Betty Drans, Betty Lee Pasko, Helen Power, Josephine Poyer, Mildred Walker, Janette Trill, Marian Cobb, Lora Littrell, Louisa Cowden, and the hostesses, and Messrs. John Gillings, Andrew Severson, Laurel Morris, Joel Cowden, Leo Taylor, Howard Poffenbarger, Arthur Cook, Marvin Burt, Riley Cook, Dwight Short, George Cook, Bill Walker, Ross Knotts and Olaf Severson.

To Visit At Meeker Home

Mr. Clarence Kellogg and Mr. Paul Cartwright arrived Friday night from Alhambra, Calif., for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meeker. They drove north by way of the Redwood highway, and visited the Oregon Caves enroute.

Mr. Kellogg formerly lived in Medford, and has visited here occasionally since moving south. During his last visit in 1930, he gave an organ concert at the First Methodist church, with his brother Harry, as tenor soloist. At present Mr. Kellogg is organist of the First Congregational church of Los Angeles.

Mr. Cartwright, who is making his first visit to Medford, is a cellist in the symphony orchestra.

Miss Peggy Hamill Honored Thursday At Luncheon Party

Miss Roxane Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruhl, entertained at luncheon Thursday in honor of her house guest, Miss Peggy Hamill, and the Misses Marion Weir of Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Elizabeth Egan of St. Louis, Missouri, who left Friday for the east after being guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter at Vertus orchard for the past two weeks. Covers were laid for fourteen.

Mrs. Mantz Invites Sixteen for Dinner

Mrs. R. C. Mantz, the former Mary Lee Roberts, entertained at dinner Saturday evening for 16 guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, on Crown Hill.

Mrs. Roberts has been vacationing at Odell lake since Thursday and will return to her home here Monday.

Mrs. Harmon Spends Summer Months Here

Mrs. O. L. Harmon, a former resident, who recently returned from the east and southern California, is spending the remainder of the summer in Medford, and has taken up her residence at 112 South Grape street. Since her arrival a number of dinners and bridge parties have been given in her honor.

Mrs. Walter Dickey Entertains for Nice

Mrs. Walter Dickey entertained a group of young friends Friday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Mildred Riggs, who is spending the summer with her aunt.

The evening was spent in dancing and playing games. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Rev. and Mrs. Long Return From Portland

Rev. and Mrs. E. N. Long and daughters, Lois and Jean, returned Wednesday evening from Portland, where they have attended a conference and camp meeting of the Free Methodist church.

Rev. Long has been returned for another year to the local district and is now entering his fourth year as pastor here. He will be welcomed by many old friends and will form many new ones with his continued service.

Mulhollands Have No-host Supper Party

A no-host supper party was given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, on Berkeley way, Thursday evening, after rainy weather made necessary a change in plans. The event was to have been a swimming party but all agreed that it was more enjoyable inside that evening.

Bridge was enjoyed by the following guests: Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Drummond, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Janouch, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Sheekley and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Higgins.

Club Meets At Hayes' Home

The Wenonah club met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Wilma Hayes. The business meeting was preceded by a covered dish luncheon. Guest of honor for the afternoon was Mrs. Willard Dooms and assisting the hostess were Sarah Tolle and Gladys Lawrence.

At the close of the lodge session a surprise miscellaneous shower was given by the Pocahontas lodge, to sister Harriet Watson, whose home was recently lost by fire. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served by Miss Ross Young and Mrs. Hayes.

Miss Simkins At Crater Lake

Miss Leneve Simkins returned from Corvallis the first of the week to accept a position at Crater lake for the rest of the summer. Miss Simkins had been employed at the information desk of the Memorial Union building in Corvallis for several months.

Enroute to the lake, Miss Simkins spent Sunday visiting with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Simkins of this city, leaving Monday for the park, where she will remain with her position at the lodge for the rest of the summer.

Miss Simkins has many friends in Medford who will be interested in knowing of her return from Corvallis.

Mrs. Black Honors Guest Saturday Eve

Mrs. C. M. Black entertained at dinner last night at her beautiful river home in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Nanine Patterson, former resident of Medford, now of Wilcox, Arizona.

Miss Elliott Hostess At Bridge Thursday

Miss Amy Elliott entertained twelve guests of the younger set Thursday afternoon at bridge at her home in Corning court. The honor guest for the affair was Miss Phyllis Haas, of Freedom, Penn., who is visiting here with her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Heckman.

Prizes for high scores went to Miss Janet Mann, first; Miss Phyllis Phythian, traveling prize, and Miss Virginia Lindley, consolation. Miss Haas was presented a gift as honor guest.

At the three tables in play were the Misses Mann, Betty Yilm, Margaret Mann, Lindley, Shirley Chadwick, Javie Thompson, Pat Thompson Phythian, Betty Thordyke, Betty Pasko, the honor guest and the hostess.

Mrs. Curry and Daughters Here

Mrs. John Alexander Curry and three daughters, Margaret, Grace and Ruth, are visitors in Medford, having arrived here last Tuesday. They are staying until the first of next week at the Hotel Jackson. Mrs. Curry formerly resided in this city and is well known by many Medford folk.

Mr. and Mrs. Newbury Motor North Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Newbury left Thursday to spend several days vacationing in Portland and vicinity. They motored through Crater Lake National park, continuing along The Dalles highway, and will visit in the north with friends. Don Newbury left for Portland by train Thursday night, and is attending to business matters there for several days.

Open Meeting of W. C. T. U.

An open meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the Girls' Community club, formerly the Y. W. C. A., on North Bartlett, Thursday, Aug. 9. Short talks will be given by Mrs. Minnie Bryant, Mrs. F. C. Godlove and Mrs. Price. Their topics will be the work of the local union since its beginning more than forty years ago.

Mrs. J. C. Woods will give a talk on "Temperance Work of Today," and Short talks will be given by Mrs. Minnie Bryant, Mrs. F. C. Godlove and Mrs. Price.

The president of the First Methodist Aid society was hostess at a covered dish dinner Friday evening at the church dining hall, honoring Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Knotts and family, retiring officers and newly-elected officers.

Mrs. F. M. Coates was chairman for the enjoyable event. After dinner, Mrs. Ployhart, president, favored the group with two beautiful vocal selections, accompanied by Mrs. Earl Wymore at the piano.

A. W. Pipes extended a cordial welcome to Rev. Knotts and family on their being returned to the Medford church by the general conference at Portland last month. Mr. Pipes emphasized that Rev. Knotts, being a very capable leader, has outlined a very fine program when systematically and loyally developed by various departments of the church.

Rev. Knotts responded to the splendid welcome in his usually kindly and gracious manner and Mrs. Knotts and son, Ross, joined in expressing their thanks and appreciation for the splendid co-operation they have received in church activities.

Mrs. Kuzman, in behalf of the Ladies' Aid, presented to the retiring president a gorgeous bouquet of choice gladioli from the Olin Anspurger gardens. She extended her best wishes to Mrs. W. W. Walker, the new president, and the evening came to a close with singing "Blest Be the Tie."

Miss Irva Fewell Enjoys Few Days' Vacation in South

Miss Irva Fewell of the Mail Tribune is enjoying several days' vacation in San Francisco, after having visited Portland and traveling south by airplane. Miss Fewell will remain in the south until next Wednesday. Leaving Medford Tuesday evening on the Oregonian, she spent two days in Portland and took the United Airlines Boeing transport ship for the southern trip Thursday night, stopping briefly at the Medford airport on the 650-mile flight to San Francisco.

She had not decided upon leaving this city whether or not she would make the return trip by air.

Mrs. Warner Patton Leaves for Berkeley

Mrs. Warner Patton left Friday morning to make her home in Berkeley for the winter. She was accompanied south by her daughter, Miss Helen. Miss Doris, also the daughter of Mrs. Patton, will remain in Medford as the guest of Miss Polly Brown at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown, Siskiyou Heights, during the rest of the summer and will leave to attend Mills college this fall.

Mrs. Kem Hostess At Lovely Luncheon

Mrs. H. E. Kem was hostess Thursday at lovely bridge luncheon given at her home on West Main. After the luncheon was served at 1 o'clock the guests enjoyed contract during the afternoon.

Rev. Baird and Family Return From Yellowstone

Rev. W. R. Baird and family and Mrs. Bertha Timmerman returned late Wednesday night from a ten days' trip to Yellowstone national park. They returned by way of Salt Lake City, where they spent two days visiting.

Miss Hayes Leaves For San Francisco

Mrs. Vella Hayes, manager of Medford's Cinderella Shop, left here Saturday for San Francisco, where she will attend special style events scheduled for Mrs. J. T. Davis.

Fall and winter apparel for the Cinderella shop will be selected by Mrs. Hayes before she returns from the southern state.

Mrs. Kelly To Indianapolis

Mrs. E. Kelly will leave this week by train for Indianapolis, Indiana via Billings, Montana, where in both places she will visit relatives and friends. She will be met in Indiana by her son, E. C. Kelly of Washington D. C., and his wife Mary Greiner Kelly, and after a few days visit they will all motor to Washington, where Mrs. E. C. Kelly will probably remain several weeks.

Picnic Luncheon At Hoey Summer Home

Friday afternoon Mrs. James Hoey entertained with a delightful picnic luncheon at her summer home on the Rogue. Swimming and contract bridge were the diversions during the afternoon.

Guests present were: Mrs. P. E. Hicks, Mrs. E. H. Thomas, Mrs. Richard Kay, Mrs. W. D. Cool and children, Martha and Billy; Mrs. H. E. Kern, Mrs. A. R. Schmidt and son, Ronnie; Mrs. Stanley Jones and son, Kenneth; Mrs. S. E. Brill and children, Mary Anne and Alice.

Kenlys Entertain At Summer Home

Farwell and Corning Kenly entertained at the Kenly river lodge last Thursday night with a picnic supper in honor of Miss Peggy Hamill of New York, Miss Marion Weir of Cleveland, Ohio and Miss Elizabeth Egan of St. Louis, Missouri, debutante visitors from the east. The new card game Pokino, a combination of poker and keno, was enjoyed by the assembled guests until a late hour.

Missionary Hears Interesting Talks

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Christian church was held Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors with Mrs. P. J. Wilmet, president, in charge of the business period.

"And He Sent Them Forth," was the topic of the devotional service led by Mrs. Archer. The presentation period was in charge of Mrs. Ruth Wood and the topic was "The Native Church Carries On." Mrs. A. D. Curry, in charge of the study period, gave an interesting survey of the homes for the care of the aged, and Mrs. Arnold Bohner entertained with a solo.

Mrs. Ireland, who spent many years as a missionary in Porto Rico, gave a very interesting and instructive talk on conditions on the island.

"In the Harvest Fields of Tibet" was the subject of a paper presented by Mrs. J. T. Davis.

Dainty refreshments were served the twenty-nine members and three visitors present.

Nebraska Picnic Event of Thursday

The second annual Nebraska club picnic will be held next Thursday in the Ashland Lithia park. All club members and those who were born or have lived in Nebraska are invited.

Mrs. Harmon Hostess At Dinner

Mrs. O. L. Harmon entertained at dinner Friday evening, with Mrs. Maude Currie and daughters of Canton, N. Y., and Mrs. Frank Roberts of this city as her guests. The Curries arrived Tuesday by motor for a brief visit. They are former valley residents.

Foreign Missionary Meeting is Tuesday

Tuesday afternoon the Women's Foreign Missionary society will meet at the First Methodist church, as host to the Home Missionary society. Mrs. E. C. Koppen will be hostess. As Tuesday is opening date for mite boxes, all members are requested to bring boxes to the meeting.

Boudewyns Visiting Here With Relatives

O. L. Boudewyn and daughter, Miss Mabel DeGroba, Boudewyn, and Mr. Boudewyn's brother, A. T., and son, Lester, all of Spokane, are guests here of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Boudewyn, and Mrs. E. R. Sleight. Mrs. Sleight is a sister of the Messrs. Boudewyn.

The visit has been in the form of a reunion, as Mrs. Sleight has not seen her guests for the past eleven years. The visitors have been here for a week and plan to return to their home in Spokane Monday.

It is the Boudewyns' first visit to Rogue River valley. After trips to Crater Lake and other scenic points, they said they would like to remain for a longer vacation in southern Oregon.

Mrs. Alenderfer and Mrs. Jerome Return From Extensive Trip

Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer and Mrs. E. C. Jerome returned this morning from a six weeks' trip to the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Alenderfer and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome left June 14 on the Shriners' special train to attend the national Shriners' convention in Minnesota, spending a day in Yellowstone park enroute.

The party visited the Century of Progress exposition in Chicago before returning to Spokane by way of the Canadian Pacific, with a stop of a day and night at Lake Louise.

Mr. Alenderfer and Mr. Jerome returned to Medford from Seattle the latter part of June, leaving their wives for a two weeks' visit at the L. F. Craig summer home on Hood's canal near Seattle. Mrs. Alenderfer and Mrs. Jerome also spent a week at Everett, Wash.

The Jeromes and Alenderfers report a wonderful trip.

"The World's Fair is marvellous," Mrs. Alenderfer said, "and we had pleasant weather, having missed the heat all around."

Western Writers' Meeting August 11

Southern Oregon League of Western Writers will meet Saturday, Aug. 11 at the Holland hotel at 2 p. m.

Regular Meeting Of Post Tomorrow

A regular meeting of the auxiliary to Crater Lake Post No. 1833, Daughters of Foreign Wars, will be held in the armory tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to attend as are all visiting ladies.

Mrs. Roger Dew Leaves For Home

Mrs. Roger Dew, formerly Miss Enid Dressler of Medford, and small son returned to Klamath Falls with Mr. Dew last Thursday evening. Mrs. Dew has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dressler, of 1107 East Main street, for the past two weeks.

Loyalty Club Meets Wednesday

Loyalty club of Eagles lodge will meet Wednesday evening, Aug. 8, at the Oaks dance pavilion on the Jacksonville highway, just west of Medford's city limits. Each member is requested to bring a covered dish and her own service, and the supper will be served at 7 p. m. All club members and families are invited. Mrs. Beale Powell, Miss Lulu Thurston and Miss Ursula Childreth will be in charge.

Hand-Knit Garments

(Made to measure)
Fall yarn samples ready.
Local Bernat Yarn agent
MISS VENITA DALEY
343 N. Grape St.

Mrs. Collins Honors Sisters at Luncheon

Mrs. J. C. Collins entertained on Thursday with a bridge luncheon for Mr. Collins' sisters, Margaret and Miriam Collins, with several tables in play. The Misses Collins have just returned from a two years' trip in Europe and the Orient.

Willett Studies Close for Vacation

Rosa Blackmore Willett is spending her vacation at Crescent City, making her headquarters at the Hotel Lauff. She expects to return to Medford on Aug. 18, and will resume her teaching here and at her studio in Grants Pass. Some brilliant programs are being planned for early fall recitals of Miss Willett's students who have appeared here in many delightful events of the past season.

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wannaford of Eagle Point, a seven pound girl, August 3, 1934, at Furucker's Maternity home.

Idaho Educator Honored

COLUMBIA, Mo., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Dr. William E. Masteron, dean of the college of law at the University of Idaho at Moscow and research fellow at Harvard university the last year, has accepted appointment as dean of the school of law at the University of Missouri, it was announced today.

Use Mail Tribune want ads

GOSSARD

A regular meeting of the auxiliary to Crater Lake Post No. 1833, Daughters of Foreign Wars, will be held in the armory tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to attend as are all visiting ladies.

Mrs. Roger Dew Leaves For Home

Mrs. Roger Dew, formerly Miss Enid Dressler of Medford, and small son returned to Klamath Falls with Mr. Dew last Thursday evening. Mrs. Dew has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Dressler, of 1107 East Main street, for the past two weeks.

Loyalty Club Meets Wednesday

Loyalty club of Eagles lodge will meet Wednesday evening, Aug. 8, at the Oaks dance pavilion on the Jacksonville highway, just west of Medford's city limits. Each member is requested to bring a covered dish and her own service, and the supper will be served at 7 p. m. All club members and families are invited. Mrs. Beale Powell, Miss Lulu Thurston and Miss Ursula Childreth will be in charge.

Hand-Knit Garments

(Made to measure)
Fall yarn samples ready.
Local Bernat Yarn agent
MISS VENITA DALEY
343 N. Grape St.

An Inner-Belt That's Adjustable!

As the inner belt gradually flattens your abdomen, you can adjust it, by the lacing on each side. This well-boned belt is 12 inches deep at center and tapers at the sides. Peach Brocade with a semi-applique of Satin Tricot. The boning in back extends to shoulders.

THERE ARE STILL MANY BARGAINS AT OUR EXPANSION SALE!

Adrienne's

ALL THE COMFORTS OF HOME MAY BE FOUND AT THE BROZTELL

A Distinctive Hotel

IT IS EASILY accessible to shopping and theatrical centers, churches, libraries, parks and transportation lines.

Ladies traveling without escort will appreciate the atmosphere of security and rest it offers. Every room with tub and shower.

Room With Bath $1.50

Hotel Broztell

Fifth Ave. & 27th St. N. Y.

LARRY SCHADE

We have a Large and Complete Assortment of Exclusive Sterling Flatware

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

Keep Cool at Murray's

See Lawrence's Window Display OF NATIONALLY FAMOUS WATCHES

Including HAMILTON LONGINE ELGIN GRUEN

Lawrence's

Featuring the same high quality merchandise to be found in the best stores in the large cities... for less money...

Two expert Hair Stylists are ready to serve you, too.

Murray's
Art Hairdressers
41 S. Central - Phone 363

There is no cost in entering your child or more than one if in the age limit... Each entrant has an equal chance to win one of the lovely merchandise prizes offered by the following merchants...

Hubbard Implement Company
Al Piche Sporting Goods Store
Fluhner's Bakery
Medford Furniture & Hardware Co.
Rialto Theatre
Cupp's Furniture Store
Medford Pharmacy
Brophy's, Jewelers
Bowman's Beauty Shoppe
Mrs. Riddell's Needle Arts Shoppe
Snyder's Dairy
Kennell Ellis Studio

As this event has grown each year in size and popularity, do not delay in making your appointment at once. Call the studio for additional information.

KENNEL ELLIS STUDIO
ARTIST PHOTOGRAPHERS
32 No. Central
Phone 329

ANNOUNCING

the
The Kennell Ellis Studio, 4th Annual

"MOST ATTRACTIVE CHILD CONTEST"