

Theatrical and Amusement Page

Local and Personal

Spends Day Here—Mrs. H. Davidson of Yreka, Calif. spent Saturday shopping in Medford.

Visiting Daughter—Mr. and Mrs. John Naud of Salem are visiting their daughter, Mrs. R. L. Lewis of Medford, this week.

Enjoy Vacation—Doris Southwick and Charles Kincaid are enjoying a week's vacation at Diamond Lake and the upper Rogue.

Leaves Friday—T. W. Deibel left Friday for his home in Klamath Falls after several days business visit in Medford.

House Guests—George Pageler and very small son, John Paul, of Portland, are house guests of Mrs. Pageler's parents, Rev. and Mrs. N. D. Wood.

Hurd to Portland—C. Treveney Hurd, prominent poultry fancier left for Portland the first of the week after several days in southern Oregon.

Dr. Johnson Here—Dr. George Stephen Johnson of Los Angeles arrived in Medford Thursday evening to spend a short vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson.

Reames Back—Mr. and Mrs. A. Reames returned Saturday morning from Portland, where Mrs. Reames has been since Tuesday, having gone up to care Mr. Reames, who was in Portland on business.

Here for Summer—Kenneth Prince of Seattle arrived here recently to spend the balance of the summer in Medford. Mr. Prince, who is a student at Stanford university, expects to resume his studies in the fall.

Rosenbaum Returns—A. S. Rosenbaum, district freight and passenger agent, Southern Pacific lines, returned yesterday from Portland, where he had gone earlier in the week on the Roosevelt excursion.

Back from Coast—The three Miss Carlsons returned Friday from a three days' trip to the coast. They stopped at Wedderburn, at the mouth of the Rogue river, opposite Gold Beach, and report a delightful time there.

In Recovering—Mrs. Alfred Carpenter, who suffered a broken leg the first of the week, when she slipped on a rug, at the Carpenter home on the Old Stage road, is making a rapid recovery, having returned to her home from a local hospital recently.

Go to Oakland—Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Estes of Kings highway left Friday evening for Oakland where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. John S. Thompson. They were accompanied by their son, John, who is entering school there this fall.

Boys Land Fish—Pete Tuscon and George Park were fishing at Savage Rapids last Thursday, and report landing one steelhead albie. The fish Tuscon caught weighed nine pounds, and the one his companion hooked weighed seven. Young Tuscon also states he caught several trout.

Has Bag Stolen—G. F. Strathouse of the Rosewood apartments, reported to city police yesterday that he had a new Gladstone bag stolen from his car while it was parked at a roadhouse south of town. The bag contained brown trousers, shirts, and shaving articles.

Newcomer to Medford—Mrs. Marie Hamersley, of Kansas City Missouri, is a newcomer to Medford, having arrived here Saturday to accept a position at Bowman's Beauty shop on South Central avenue. Mrs. Hamersley was formerly associated with the Brookside Beauty shop in Kansas City.

Returns Saturday—After spending the past two months in San Francisco, Mrs. D. D. Huntress returned to Medford Saturday morning. In the southern, state she attended San Francisco State college and visited numerous friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bowerman, formerly of Medford.

Pass Through—J. H. Dyer, of San Francisco, vice president in charge of operations, Southern Pacific lines, was a brief visitor in Medford yesterday morning enroute to Portland. He was accompanied by W. H. Kirkbridge, director of maintenance, E. L. King, superintendent of the Portland division, H. A. Hampton, divisional engineer, and his private secretary, Hal Hill. The party made the trip in the Del Monte business car.

Films Prove Popular—Moving pictures of Oregon's Diamond Jubilee celebration and other novel subjects were presented by H. L. Bromley, Copco publicity director at a meeting of the Roxy Ann Grange Friday night. The jubilee films are proving very popular throughout the valley, programs having been scheduled by the Copco publicity department for next Tuesday at the Eagle Point Grange and Friday at the Jacksonville Grange. The Phoenix Grangers will view these popular films on Tuesday, Aug. 14.

Col. and Mrs. Miller Here—Col. and Mrs. Wm. C. Miller of Chilkoot baracks, Alaska, arrived in Medford yesterday to visit their ranch near Central Point and will continue south to San Francisco today. Col. and Mrs. Miller are from New Jersey, and for the past three years, Col. Miller has been on duty with troops in Alaska twenty years ago, when Col. Miller was a lieutenant. He is being transferred, and is now making the trip to his new post. From San Francisco, Col. and Mrs. Miller will sail through the Panama canal to New York, Sept. 1. John Nealon is the caretaker at their Central Point ranch.

W. C. Fields Now at Craterian

With everything thrown in for a laugh, and comedy situations ranging from nose-pulling, hammy presentation of the old melodrama "The Drunkard," a fight between W. C. Fields and Baby LeRoy, some artistic juggling, wise-cracking, a bit of slapstick and what have you, "The Old Fashioned Way," starting its three-day run at the Craterian theatre today, has Fields in what is said to be his best picture role to date.

For the first time in his long theatrical career, Fields is shown as a "heavy lover." Playing the role of "The Great McGonigle," he is leader of a band of troupers who go from town to town, struggling for fame and food, dodging sheriffs and tomato cans along the route.

When the troupe arrives in a small town, the village's wealthiest widow, who has operatic aspirations, falls in love with Fields, and his troubles take on new hues, especially when she brings along her young charge, Baby LeRoy. Some of the picture's most hilarious comedy highlights are built around the activities of Fields and the youngster.

Of special interest is the presentation of the famous old play, "The

"Riptide" On Studio Screen

Norma Shearer comes to the motion picture screen after an absence of some months as the glamorous heroine of "Riptide," her Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle which opens today at the Studio theatre.

Robert Montgomery, who has appeared in a number of Miss Shearer's previous screen successes, shares leading man honors with Robert Marshall in the new film.

Famous Players in Rialto Drama

In "This Man Is Mine" playing today and tomorrow at the Rialto theatre, Irene Dunne is shown in a role that is entirely new for her.

The star is shown as a resourceful wife who not only maneuvers to risk her husband to the tentacles of a siren, but also fights to recover him when he becomes a victim. How the wife teaches her errant mate an unforgettable lesson gives a new and unusual twist to the story as well as affords the star an opportunity to display her dramatic talents to the best advantage.

Ralph Bellamy, in the role of "wandering-from-the-fireside" husband; beautiful Constance Cummings, as the woman who tempts him from the straight and narrow; Sidney Blackmer as the man-about-town who unwittingly helps the wife; Kay Johnson, Charles Starrett and Vivian Tobin are also in the cast.

Dunn and Edwards in "Take a Chance"

James Dunn, Lillian Roth, Cliff Edwards, June Knight, Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Lillian Bond, Dorothy Lee and Lona Andre constitute the extraordinary brilliant cast of "Take a Chance," which opens at the Roxy theatre today.

It must not be characterized as a back-stage romance. It runs the gamut from a carnival side-show, through a swanky New York gambling club, out to the homes of Long Island's millionaire society folk and back to Broadway.

Dunn and Edwards are cast as side-show spellers who are not averse to making away with their patrons' pocketbooks and watches, when the occasion offers.

Shows Today
1:45-3:15
7:00-9:00

RIALTO

Adults
25c
Kiddies-10c

IRENE DUNNE

TODAY and MONDAY

She Fought To Keep What Was Rightfully Hers!

"THIS MAN IS MINE"

with
CONSTANCE CUMMINGS
RALPH BELLAMY
KAY JOHNSON
CHARLES STARRETT

ADDED

Betty Compson
"No Sleep On The Deep"

"Elephant Trail"
MOVIETONE NEWS

Here's romance... dramatic... and the strong voice of the story... In this story of a wife who is allowed to be a wife and a mother... and who is allowed to be a wife and a mother... and who is allowed to be a wife and a mother...

Shows Today — 1:45
3:15-7:00-9:00

Mats. 25c Eves. 35c
Kiddies - 10c

HUNT CRATERIAN

SOUTHERN OREGON COAST-THEATRE

STARTS TODAY FOR 3 DAYS

A Barrage of Buffoonery in Good Old-Fashioned Style!

"YOU DASTARD! GET THEE HENCE... OR I SHALL SMITE THEE IN THE PUSS!"

You'll roar as W. C. Fields, the Great McGonigle, presents his troupe of hams in that heart-rending tear-jerker "The Drunkard" . . . You'll howl as Baby LeRoy and Fields meet in mortal combat . . . You'll scream with sheer hysterics when the juggling starts—and ends! It's the season's biggest comedy riot . . . with everything thrown in except the kitchen sink!

W.C. FIELDS

in

"THE OLD FASHIONED WAY"

with

BABY LeROY

Joe Morrison • Judith Allen
Jack Mulhall

ADDED ATTRACTIONS
CARTOON "BETTY BOOP'S TRIAL"
Grantland Rice Spotlight "Marlowe Marvels"
Screen Souvenirs Pathe Newsreel

A SHOW WITHIN A SHOW!

It was serious drama back in those days when men were still men and women were glad of it . . . but look at us now!

"THE DRUNKARD"

The heart-shattering, meller-drammer! Coming one, come all . . . and if you must throw your tomatoes, kindly remove them from the can first!