

MARTIN TO SPEAK IN GRANTS PASS

GRANTS PASS, Aug. 10.—(Sp.)—General Charles Martin, Democratic candidate for governor, will be the guest of Josephine county Democrats Sunday afternoon and Monday morning, when he is in Grants Pass. A. Walker, chairman of the Josephine county Democratic central committee, said Thursday.

The candidate is expected to arrive from Gold Beach via Crescent City, about 1 p. m., Sunday, and has been invited to join the Iowa club at their annual picnic, which will be held at Riverside park at that time. He will make a speech there about 2 p. m., and Walker said persons who were interested in hearing him were welcome.

visiting their sister, Mrs. Henry Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Grim of Medford were week-end visitors with Mrs. Grimm's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sandy.

Mark and Jim Whipple received a telegram Sunday telling of the death Saturday of their uncle at Eugene, Alfred Whipple. He was past 80, had been a resident of Eugene many years and had visited Rogue River several times.

Mrs. Mamie Culbertson and son of Ashland visited her brother, James Wiley and family Sunday. Her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Warren, returned home with them.

Applegate

APPLLEGATE, Aug. 10.—(Sp.)—Mrs. Archie West and tiny son, Robert Fred, who was born July 28 at the Jacksonville sanitarium, returned to their home on Little Applegate last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schofield, Mrs. Minnie Rider and son Billy of Willows, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Peckham of Williams creek, are spending this week camping on Yale creek.

"Camping out" seems to be quite a sport for little boys, and after several weeks cooing, Lester Cass and small quarters of Medford were allowed the privilege of camping on Little Applegate. They are now happily at work "mining" and "building dams."

Cecil Green, Jr., of Malin is spending this week here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hartley.

Mrs. Harold Howard and children of Eugene were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Howard's mother, Mrs. A. N. Krouse.

Arthur Dunford, who has been staying at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Dunford, near Medford, has returned home. Arthur said he intended to stay here to drive "sarak" at the Kleinhammer ranch during haying.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maul of Shelton, Wash., who spent last week visiting friends at Medford, were dinner guests one day last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Straube.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beece and daughters, Althea and Maude, of Los Angeles, who are in southern Oregon visiting relatives, motored to Applegate Sunday and visited at the home of Mrs. Beece's uncle, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Buck. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Miles Cantrill, who is another uncle of Mrs. Beece. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Vern Cantrill of Jacksonville.
