

LEGION TO AWAKE NEW CONFIDENCE IN CONSTITUTION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—(Sp1)—In a statement being sent to the 11,000 posts of the American Legion, Edward A. Hayes, national commander, is announcing a nation-wide plan to awaken support for the constitution of the United States through the observance of Constitution Week, beginning September 17, he said today.

The program for the observance is being outlined by the Americanism commission of the legion, of which Russell Cook is director at national headquarters here. It embraces a mass meeting and public speaking on September 17, Constitution Day, by legion officials in every community large enough to have a legion post. Director Cook said. This will be followed by addresses throughout the week in grade and high schools and before civic organizations.

Following the week of intensive observance, according to Director Cook, a legion poster dedicated to the constitution will be placed on outdoor panels throughout the United States. The poster is described as showing "a masked formation of uniformed Legionnaires, marching out of the orange yellow of the dawn from a limitless horizon, the figures tense and expressions determined." In their vanguard is the figure of Columbia carrying in her hands the constitution of the United States.

In his statement to all post commanders, Mr. Hayes wrote in part: "Because of the continuous growth of insidious, un-American propaganda, which is undermining the confidence of the American people in the constitution and our form of government, all posts are being called upon to formulate plans for a nation-wide patriotic observance on September 17 this year. The purpose of this demonstration is to stimulate a greater appreciation of our constitution and the rights, benefits and privileges guaranteed thereby."

"Every member of our organization, upon being accepted for membership, solemnly pledged himself to support the ten purposes set forth in the legion preamble. The first of these ten purposes is 'to uphold and defend the constitution of the United States.'"

"Let us prove, by taking the lead in this observance, that there is no place in America for those who will not support and defend the constitution."

EXTORTIONIST GIVEN TEN YEAR PEN TERM

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—(UP)—John P. Cravigna, 25, who attempted to extort $10,000 from Col. Henry Huddleston Rogers, Standard Oil millionaire, by threats of harm to Rogers and his wife, was sentenced today to 10 years in the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., by Federal Judge George Murray Hulbert.

Cravigna, Rogers' former chauffeur, was indicted by a federal grand jury earlier in the day under the "Lindbergh law."

LEGION'S ROSTER TOPS LAST YEAR

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—(Sp1)—The national organization of the American Legion entered the month of August with a total membership of 806,000. Edward A. Hayes, national commander, said today upon completion of tabulating cards and dues at national headquarters here as of August 1. This is 88,262 more than for the same date last year.

He said the books on 1934 membership will not close until September 22, and considerably larger gains will be recorded due to departments making last spurts for their own conventions, and also because the voting strength of delegations at the national convention in Miami is determined as of September 22.

Records at national headquarters show that the 806,000 figure is larger than since 1932, and with the exception of four years, is the largest in the history of the organization.

STAR AUTO PILOT GIVES RULES FOR SAFETY IN DRIVING

Ab Jenkins, the man who holds more American Automobile association records for distance, speed and endurance driving than any other driver—and has never had an accident—gives six practical suggestions for safe driving in the current Rotarian magazine. They are:

1. Keep both hands on the wheel.
2. Keep the best tires on the front wheels.
3. The front-wheel blow-out is by far the more dangerous. When blow-outs do happen, danger can be averted by clinging stoutly to the steering wheel.
4. Always test your brakes.

"During the first hundred yards of driving, I always test my brakes by pushing down the pedal. The brakes may have frozen, they may be greasy or need adjustment."

5. Be extremely careful at twilight.
6. Don't use brakes in a skid.
7. "Come out of a skid throw out your clutch and maneuver the steering wheel so that the front wheels are in alignment with the rear ones. In other words, go in the skid! Braking is ineffective. Your main concern is to equalize traction on all four wheels, which you do by throwing out your clutch; your next move is to get all your wheels in line. As soon as you feel the skid weakening, let in the clutch, 'gun' the motor, and resume forward progress."
8. Study the road.
9. "Always reduce speed when passing from one type of road to another. Your right wheel should be approximately one and one-half feet from the outer edge of the highway. Running off the road is common. Thirty-one per cent of accidents are due to speeding, while thirty-four per cent are caused by cars going off the road."

CINEMA BEAUTIES PUT ON POUNDAGE SINCE DEPRESSION

The depression witnessed many negative changes in things, leaner purses, the bank failures and unemployment, but to its credit is this: It put extra pounds on the feminine staps.

A survey of screen actresses in 1929 revealed that an average player weighed but 106 pounds and that her height was approximately five feet, two inches.

Today the screen figure has changed. The lithe, boyish lines have disappeared. Curves are in vogue and Mae West is the present goddess of feminine beauty.

The Paramount studio recently went to the trouble of itemizing the specifications of its 24 contract actresses for wardrobe purposes—and the change in the physical style made a few of the tops holders gasp.

Average weight of the actresses of 1934 is 113 pounds—a clear gain of seven pounds. Her height is five feet, three and one-sixteenth inches more than an inch taller than her height in 1929 when Clara Bow set physical standard.

The actress most closely approximating three ideal, modern measurements is Carole Lombard, who tips the scales at 112 pounds and stands five feet, three and one-half inches. This all-around increase is attributed to Mae West's sponsorship of full feminine lines and the decrease of harmful 18-day diets which once were practiced by most feminine players seeking the once-fashionable "subcuticular" figures.

The survey revealed that Miss West is closer to the standard of modern screen beauty than many suppose. She is five feet, two inches tall and weighs 115 pounds.

The tallest Paramount actress is Gail Patrick, five feet, seven, and the smallest is Gracie Allen, who stands an even five feet. The heaviest actress is Alison Spikworth, 162 pounds, and the lightest is Gracie Allen, who tips an even 100.

Blue eyes lead the Paramount list by 72 per cent brown eyes second with 24, and hazel comes in a poor third with but 4 per cent.

Professor John A. Alliance O.—(UP)—Dr. Ralph F. Tower, head of Mt. Union college's economics department, has been appointed to serve this summer as special adviser to the Agricultural Adjustment Administration at Washington. Dr. Tower was special adviser to the New York state tax commission in 1930-31. He will give special attention to processing taxes.
