Buffet Supper At Hillcrest Orchard For Seattle Folk

Refreshing summer days, neither too warm nor too cool, are making up a pleasant season, and society folk have found it delightful for their many informal affairs.

Of interest among events of the past week was the buffet supper at which Mrs. Reginald H. Parsons of Medford and Seattle was hostess. The supper was in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Parsons of Seattle prior to their returning Friday to the northern city after a few weeks' stay at Hillcrest orchard.

On Monday, Mrs. Ralph G. Bardwell and daughter, Miss Betty, entertained at a bridge luncheon, five tables being in play during the afternoon.

Miss Mary Schott of Los Angeles, who is the house guest here of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Keasams, is enjoying the festivities of the younger set, and Friday spent a pleasant day at the Oregon Caves.

Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, spending a few days in San Francisco, is expected to return here on Thursday.

Miss Janet Gould Of Ashland Weds Wilbur Childreth

Of interest locally, is the report of the wedding here last week of a young couple who will make their home in this city. The Ashland Daily Tidings states:

"A quiet wedding took place at 11:30 Tuesday morning at the Methodist church in Medford, when Miss Janet Gould became the bride of Mr. Wilbur Childreth, the Rev. Joseph Knotts, pastor of the church, reading the beautiful service.

"The vows were spoken in the presence of a small group of friends. Miss Doris Gase attended the bride and Mr. Emmett Cooksey was the best man.

"The bride was charming in a pretty navy blue silk frock, with white hat and matching accessories.

"Mrs. Childreth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gould of 456 Mountain avenue, Ashland, and has grown to young womanhood in Ashland. She is a graduate of Ashland high school and of the Southern Oregon Normal school, class of '33. She is especially gifted in music, and was known as the 'Song Queen' of that class.

"The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Childreth of near Prospect and is the manager of Camp Winthaus Auto Camp in Medford.

"Mr. and Mrs. Childreth will make their home in Medford for the present.

"Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gould were hosts at an attractive dinner Wednesday evening, with covers laid for eleven, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Childreth, and the Misses Maurice Roberson, Laverna Roberson and Earl Eininger, close friends of the young couple."

SOCIETY GOES TO THE BEACH
