Leagues Entertain Honoring Miss Power.

The Epworth and Wesley leagues of the First Methodist church entertained on Tuesday evening in Ashland in honor of Miss Josephine Power, who is leaving today for school.

After swimming at the Twin Flunges, the leaguers went to Lithia park, where watermelon was served. Marvin Burk, president of the Epworth league, acted as master of ceremonies, and Miss Mildred Walker, president of the Wesley league, gave an appropriate speech and presented Miss Power with a lovely gift in appreciation of her work and service in the two leagues.

Those present were Marvin Burk, Lois Littrell, Joel Cowden, Betty Lee Paske, Bill Walker, Louisa Cowden, Leo Taylor, Helen Power, Howard Poffenberger, Jean Gillings, Josephine Power, Mildred Walker, Ernest Morris, Beth Gillings and Otto Severson. Andy Severson, John Gillings, Dwight Short, Phil Smith, Ross Knotts, Helen Chirgwin and Caroline Cook.

Reverend Joseph Knotts accompanied the group.
