

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Irva K. Fewell

Hamills to Leave Monday Following Vacation in Valley

Medford has figured in large type among vacation plans for many this season, and after pleasant holidays in the valley, a number of guests are departing for their homes. Others, who have spent the greater portion of the summer at their homes here, will go on vacation trips of a few weeks.

Mrs. Philip W. Hamill, daughter Miss Peggy of New York, and son John, of San Francisco, will leave Monday for San Francisco. Mrs. Hamill and Miss Peggy have been spending the summer here, their former home, and have been the inspiration for many luncheons and parties. This past week Mrs. Hamill entertained for Mrs. Hamill and Mrs. Stewart Patterson of New York at a buffet luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Dellmont Tootell of Cranston, Rhode Island, and their two small children Geoffrey and Natalie, left Saturday on the Shasta for Seattle, having spent the summer in Medford at Hillcrest orchard. Mrs. Tootell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Parsons of Medford and Seattle. The Tootells will visit in Seattle for a time before continuing to their New England home.

Interesting visitors from the Bay district, who were over night guests in Medford, were General and Mrs. Malin Craig, who reside at Fort Mason. They arrived here by motor and continued their trip north Saturday.

Mrs. Alex Sparrow and daughters Miss Frances and Miss Harriet, are leaving tomorrow for Yellowstone national park, where they plan to vacation for a month.

Many friends here of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Guthrie of London, England, former residents of the Jacksonville section, will be pleased to know that their son Sandy Guthrie, also of London, is a guest here at the C. S. Newhall ranch on the Old Stage road.

Joseph Huggins of San Francisco, was a guest Friday night of the F. Corning Kenly.

Dinner for Twelve Honors Miss Mills Also Mr. Pollard

Mrs. E. J. White of the Crystal Springs orchard, entertained twelve young people at dinner Friday evening. The affair was planned to honor her niece, Miss Marjorie Mills, who is leaving for her school on the coast soon, and Winston Pollard, of Los Angeles, who has been a guest at the White home for the past few weeks. Mrs. White's daughter, Miss Edna Mae, also celebrated her birthday Friday.

The decorations were carried out in a combination of pink and green, with a large birthday cake forming the centerpiece at the table. Guests were Lois Kimbell, Louise Carbone, Pauline Steves, Marjorie Mills, Harriet White, Winston Pollard, Nicholas DeWitt, Joe Hartley, John Mills, Tim White and Edwin White.

Elks Plan Dance At Picnic Grounds

Saturday evening, August 25, the Elks will have a dance at the picnic grounds on Rogue river, announcement made Saturday states. Special decorations, with Japanese lanterns will be arranged for the affair, and music is to be furnished by a six-piece orchestra.

Dancing will begin about 8:30 o'clock, and at 11 o'clock, coffee and sandwiches will be served. Robert Brang is chairman of the committee, and is being assisted by Stanley Sherwood and Eric Westergren.

Douglas Wood Medford Visitor

Douglas Wood of Bend, fraternity brother of Harold Gebauer and Neville Biden at the University of Oregon, is visiting in Medford. He plans to remain here for about two weeks. The young men are affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Noth Complete Stay in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Noth of Salem, and Mrs. Willis of Cottage Grove, spent the past week in Medford visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanby. Following a picnic in the Ashland park Thursday evening, they left for Westwood, Calif., where they will visit relatives. The Noths formerly made their home in Medford.

It's always cool at Murray's

YOU have to dress your hair in accordance with the new mode. Have our newest permanent of the soft, face-framing waves.

Murray's
Art Hairdressers
41 S. Central - Phone 363

THE ASTORS AT NEWPORT

Louise Brommer Is Honored at Shower At McElhose Home

A surprise linen shower for Miss Louise Brommer, whose wedding to Arthur Small of Portland will be an event of September 12, was given on Friday evening by Miss Beulah Gore and Mrs. R. E. McElhose, at the latter's home, 229 Minnesota. Miss Laura Drury was given the high score prize, and Miss Emily Brown, prize for low score. Those present were Miss Louise Brommer, Miss Peggy Miller, Miss Justine Miller, Miss Doreen Leverette, Miss Elizabeth Gore, Miss Doris Bundy, Miss Jean Woodford, Mrs. Delos Cox, Mrs. Gordon Warner, Mrs. Laura, Miss Ver Dean Harvey, Miss Laura Drury, Miss Barbara Drury, Miss Florence Severance, Miss Fredricka Brommer, Miss Dorothy Gore, Miss Mary Louise McElhose, Miss Geraldine Latham, Mrs. Everett Paber, Mrs. McElhose and Miss Beulah Gore.

Nebraska Picnic Is This Afternoon

Former residents of Nebraska who are now residing in this section, will conduct their second annual picnic in Lithia park at Ashland this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Wenonah Club Has Guests at Meet

On Thursday afternoon Leila Morrow was hostess to the Wenonah club card party with four tables of bridge in play. High score for the afternoon was won by Mable Quackembush. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Woodson Smith and Mrs. Knox. Refreshments were served by Esther Dooms and Norma Martin.

Pocahontas Lodge To Honor Dr. Fellows

At the close of the business meeting of Pocahontas lodge on Friday night, a social evening of "bunko" was enjoyed, with high scores going to Blanche Hinbarger and Frank Bush. Low scores were received by Esther Dooms and Ed Shockel. Refreshments were served by Frank Martin and Otis Hubbard.

Next Saturday evening, August 25, a social meeting will be held at the Redmen hall in honor of Dr. Duane A. Fellows, Great Chief of Records of Oregon, who is stopping here on his return from the Great Council meeting of California. All Redmen and Pocahontas members are urged to attend.

YOUR BANK BOOK IS IMPORTANT . . . watch it! But your teeth are important too. . . watch them! If you come to me, I will watch out for your bank book and send you a bill you'll be GLAD to pay. Visit me regularly and I will make a thorough examination each time. Your teeth should be kept clean and free from cavities . . . if you want to keep them.

Dr. I. H. Gove
Phone 872-J. East Main

Mah Jong, Bridge Enjoyed By Group

A table of mah jong and a table of bridge were in play Saturday afternoon, following the luncheon given by Miss Anne Livingston, complimenting her house guest, Mrs. A. C. Dickinson of San Diego.

Guests were Mrs. Alice Holloway, Miss Margaret Hubbard, Mrs. Purser J. Neff, Mrs. H. D. McCaskey, Mrs. Alex Sparrow, Mrs. F. Corning Kenly and Mrs. Dickinson.

Miss Thorndike Is Hostess at Bridge Wednesday, Friday

Miss Elmira Blake, former resident of this city but who, for the past two years has been making her home in Roseburg, arrived on the Shasta Wednesday morning, to be the house guest of Miss Frances Porter at her country home at the Holloway orchards.

Miss Betty Ann Thorndike entertained members of the local younger set at a bridge party Wednesday afternoon. Those present were: Miss Margaret Mary and Janet Mann, Jarvie and Pat Thompson, and house guest, their cousin Sybil Drake, visiting them from Norfolk, Va. Betty Lee Pasko, Marion Cobb, Janette Field, Frances Porter and house guest Elmira Blake, of Roseburg, Lois Frazer, and the hostess, Miss Margaret Mann held high score for the afternoon.

Miss Thorndike also entertained Friday afternoon at a desert bridge, inviting sixteen of the local high school set.

Earthquake bridge was played, forcing guests to play under many handicaps.

High score went to Miss Sybil Drake and consolation prize was won by Miss Pat Thompson. Those enjoying the pleasant event were the Misses Mary Kern, Constance Moore, Mildred Drury, Margaret and Janet Mann, Jarvie and Pat Thompson, Drake, Lois Frazer, Elmira Blake, Betty Lee Pasko, Marion Cobb, Patsy Smith, Frances Porter, "Bonny" Hammock and the hostess.

Mrs. Samuela's Guest Leaves for Portland

Mrs. Mary Jane Roberts of Portland left today by train for her home, after having been here for the past two weeks as the house guest of Mrs. Gus Samuela. Mrs. Roberts is honored at many events during her visit in Medford, having been entertained at the homes of Mrs. Fred Wahl, Mrs. Charles Strange, Mrs. E. D. Elwood and Mrs. Jack Gill.

Mrs. Case Honored At Surprise Shower

Miss Edna Hilderbrand and Mrs. Louis Thompson were joint hostesses at a surprise miscellaneous shower given in honor of Mrs. Willard Case, at her home, 419 South King street, Friday evening. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Invited guests included Mesdames Joe Cave, Adrian Hulbert, Arthur Hess, Bud Aldredge, Bob McKnight, and the Misses Marian Mellin, Fay Ackley, Georgianna Husong, Lou Madril, the two hostesses, Miss Hilderbrand and Mrs. Thompson, and the honored guest, Mrs. Cave.

The Kennell-Ellis Studio 4th Annual

"Most Attractive Child Contest"

The contest, judged photographically, is open to all boys and girls and twins from five months to five years of age. . . There is no cost in entering your child or more than one if in the age limit. . . Each entrant has an equal chance to win one of the lovely merchandise prizes offered by the following merchants. . .

Hubbard Implement Company
Al Piche Sporting Goods Store
Medford Furniture & Hardware Co.
Cupp's Furniture Store
Bowman's Beauty Shop
Mrs. Riddell's Needle Arts Shoppe

Kennell-Ellis Studio
Fluhner's Bakery
Halt Theatre
Medford Pharmacy
Brophy's Jewelers
Snider's Dairy

Kennell-Ellis Studio
ARTIST PHOTOGRAPHERS
32 No. Central. Phone 329

LARRY SCHADE

No Blades! No Lather!
The Schick Dry Shaver
is not a razor. It is a new and revolutionary shaving device, easy to operate, removes the hair from the face comfortably and closely.

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

House Party Brings Guests to Tuckers From the Bay Area

By train, plane and motor, San Francisco society folk arrived here to journey to Nion Tucker's river place, Rogue's Roost, Saturday for a house party, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker.

Mrs. Tucker has been at the summer home for several weeks, with Mr. Tucker spending several days at a time here, traveling back and forth from San Francisco and Hillsborough. Arriving on the Shasta were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Tobin of Burlingame, and Mrs. George T. Cameron, Mrs. Robert Hayes Smith, Mrs. Rose Amble Curran and Mr. Tucker. Robert Booth Burroughs and Jean de Saint Cyr of San Mateo motored here from the south, and in the afternoon Harry Scott of Burlingame arrived from San Francisco by plane.

On Tuesday, there will be a birthday party at the lodge honoring Mrs. Cameron and Mr. Tucker.

Following a week at the Tuckers, Messrs. Burroughs and de Saint Cyr will join Mr. and Mrs. John Gallois at their summer home on the Motolus river forty miles from Bend. They plan to remain there for a few days.

Job's Daughters to Gather in Portland

Several members of Job's Daughters from Medford, will leave today and tomorrow for Portland, where Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday they will attend the supreme session of the order. Delegates from points throughout the United States will attend.

From Medford will be Miss Arvilla Burns, and Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, members of the council; Miss Everette Gillespie, queen; Miss Lois Nichols, junior princess; Miss Ruth D'Albini, fifth messenger; Miss Patsy Smith, chaplain, and Miss Dorothy Haskins, librarian.

Miss Stephenson Has Luncheon Thursday

Miss LaVerne Stephenson entertained with a luncheon on Thursday for Miss Virginia Ward of Portland, house guest here of Miss Frances Daly. Present were Miss Ward, Miss Daly, Miss Jerry Wilkinson, Miss Elaine Brophy and Miss Honey Reddy.

F. L. Club Has Swim and Picnic

Swimming and a picnic supper were enjoyed by members and friends of the F. L. club, Monday evening, at Bybee bridge. A similar affair will be held Aug. 27 at the same place.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Walden and Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McKnight and Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Aldredge and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thompson, Misses Edna Hildebrand, Lucille Cave and Georgianna Husong.

Mrs. Sweeney Is Home From North

Mrs. Charles T. Sweeney, president of the State Medical society of Oregon, returned to Medford Saturday afternoon, having spent the past week in Portland and Corvallis attending to matters concerning the organization.

While in Portland, she visited her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Day, and attended an official meeting of the women's auxiliary to the medical society, on Thursday.

Miss Ruth Koozer Tells Engagement At Party Thursday

At a dinner given for twelve of her friends at the Colonial club on Thursday evening, the engagement of Miss Ruth Koozer, to Lester Wilson of Coquille, was announced. The wedding is to be the latter part of September.

Miss Koozer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Koozer, and Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wilson of Coquille.

Each of the guests was presented a lovely corsage at the table, by which the betrothal was announced.

Following dinner, bridge was enjoyed, with Miss Mildred Dugan winning the prize for high score, and Mrs. Harvey Robertson, the consolation prize.

Mrs. McCrosson Guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mann

Mrs. Esther McCrosson of Minneapolis, Minn., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mann, having arrived in Medford Saturday morning for a two days' visit, during which she will be taken to Crater lake.

Graves Leave for the South

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Graves are leaving tomorrow for Sacramento for a month, and will be accompanied by Mrs. E. V. Gibson of Otono, Kan., who has been spending the summer here with them. Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Graves will spend some time in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Carley's Have Guests Here From Singapore

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carley of the North Pacific highway, have as guests at their home, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Howey and their son Jim, from Singapore, Straights Settlement. Mrs. Howey is Mr. Carley's sister. Mr. Howey is manager of Standard Oil Incorporated at Singapore. The visitors' home is in Corvallis, but they will remain here for several days, having arrived Thursday night, and will make several fishing trips to surrounding lakes and streams.

Miss Leverette Is Hostess at Bridge, Inviting 24 Guests

At the contract bridge party given Thursday evening by Miss Doreen Leverette, Miss Frances Arnsperger won prize for high score, and Miss Bertia Arnsperger, the prize for low. Six tables were in play.

Miss Leverette invited as her guests, Misses Audrey Lofland, Ruth Ottoman, Jean Woodford, Laura and Barbara Drury, Betty Brown of Detroit, Mich., Leabel Miller, Ethel and Bethel Eagle, Bertha and Frances Arnsperger, Ceell Humphreys, Catherine Chaney, Bertha Saylor, Bobbie Pincard, Beulah Gore, Peggy and Justine Miller, Marion Moore, Fredericks and Louise Brommer, Alice Prock, Marjorie Mulholland, and Mrs. Gordon Warner.

Miss Shirley Wed Saturday Morning

At eight o'clock Saturday morning, Miss Lucille Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shirley, was married to Donald Greaves, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Greaves at the First Baptist church, with Rev. W. H. Eaton officiating.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Mae Shirley, and Robert Greaves, brother of the groom, was his attendant.

The immediate families of the couple, Mrs. F. L. Thompson, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Doris Rose were present at the wedding. After a short wedding trip to San Francisco, the couple will be at home to their friends at 204 Hamilton street.

Fidelity Circle To Meet Tuesday

Fidelity Circle of the First Methodist church will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Eva McNary at her home, 223 North Central avenue, according to announcement.

Mrs. Yeoman In The Dalles

Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman, music instructor with studio at Ivy and Sixth streets, is spending a few days in The Dalles, Ore., visiting with relatives, having left Friday by train. Her studios will be closed during her absence.

Younger Set Enjoying Tennis

Tennis has rapidly been coming in favor with the high school set. The Leonard Carpenter court has been much frequented by Granger Kruly, Helene Salade and Pat Thompson.

Miss Ruth Fitch of Belmont orchard has entertained twice last week on her tennis courts. Those playing both mornings were Elmira Blake, house guest of Frances Porter, Chester Fitch, Anna Dickey, Virginia Porter, Gayton Sturdevant, Frances Porter and Ruth Fitch.

Dinner Saturday In Honor of Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Green of 1036 Queen Anne avenue, entertained at dinner last evening for the pleasure of their house guests, Mrs. W. S. Green of Seattle and Mrs. W. D. Thomas of Portland.

Invited were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Major Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Walter Kress, Mr. and Mrs. Ted GeBauer, George Clark and Rudy Cabel of Portland and Raymond Reter.

Hartmans Here For Week-end

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartman of Corvallis are spending the week-end in Medford, and are registered at the Medford hotel.

Hand-Knit Garments (Made to measure)

Fall yarn samples ready. Local Bernat Yarn agent. MISS VENITA DALEY 343 N. Grape St.

MATCHED ENGAGEMENT AND WEDDING RING

Tomorrow's bride will delight in displaying her matched bridal set... particularly this beautiful wedding ring, with fourteen diamonds in a double row.

Lawrence's

Selling Diamonds in Medford for 25 years. First Quality only. Ask those who own Lawrence Diamonds.

The Piano's Amazing Comeback

—is the talk of Musicdom!

Learn to Play The Piano

Far more men and young men than ever before are now playing the piano. . . Young women instinctively KNOW that nowhere are they more charming and alluring than at the keyboard!

FREE Piano Lessons

Classical or Jazz—Your Own Choice of Instructor—with the Purchase of a New Piano the Balance of August

Select exactly the model piano YOU have wanted from our wide range of nationally famous instruments. . . Our convenient budget plan will easily conform to your family budget.

Baldwin Piano Shoppe
123 W. Main. Lilla M. Purucker. Phone 335