

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Irva K. Fewell

Resorts Popular For Society Folk In Warm Weather

Warm weather during the past week has made beach and mountain resorts attractive places for society to vacation, and swimming has been a popular sport during the past week with the temperature in the Rogue River valley reaching new heights.

Cool evenings, however, have made the atmosphere pleasing, and lawn parties have been included among the gatherings of the week.

Medford's young people are preparing to leave for school within the next few weeks, for with the coming of September, colleges and universities will open for the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reames and son, Edward, spent a delightful week at Gold Beach and points on the coast, journeying to Marshfield and back to Medford. They left here last Sunday morning and enjoyed pleasantly cool weather throughout their stay.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Slater Johnston were hosts Friday evening at a large party.

Farwell Kenly is leaving this morning for Geneva, New York, where he will resume studies at Hobart college.

Professor and Mrs. Harry Hartman are spending the week end in Medford from their home in Corvallis.

Wagner Family Has Reunion Sunday At Union Creek Resort

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner of Ashland and their relatives are today having a family reunion at Union Creek resort, in honor of their son, Paul, who is here visiting from Detroit, Mich.

A picnic dinner will be held at noon, with Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown, Mrs. Lawrence Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner and Paul Wagner, also Paul Luy of Medford present.

On Thursday evening the Wagners were hosts at their Ashland home to a group of friends at dinner. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Miles and Paul Luy of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner's niece of Los Angeles; Mrs. Lawrence Wagner, Paul Wagner, and the hosts.

Mrs. Gore Returns From Vacation Trip

Mrs. E. E. Gore has returned from her vacation spent in Portland and Eugene, where she has been taking special extension courses in music, with F. W. Goodrich, Madame Marguerite Liszewska, of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, and others who are on the coast for the summer.

Mrs. Gore's residence studio at 116 Geneva avenue is now open for the reception of piano pupils and she especially desires twenty young children for her class who have had no previous instruction.

Misses Estes Visit With Miss Mary Bischoff

Word has been received in Medford that Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Estes, accompanied by their daughters, the Misses Kathleen and Lenora, arrived in Chicago on Thursday, having left Medford the preceding Saturday.

They are visiting relatives and friends in that city and the Misses Estes made a trip to Terra Haute, Ind., where they visited Miss Mary Bischoff, who formerly resided in this city. The Estes family plans to remain in the middle west for about two months.

Loyal Women's Class Enjoys Program Tuesday

The Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church held its regular monthly meeting in the recreational hall of the church Tuesday afternoon. The president, Mrs. J. C. Woods, called the meeting to order and all joined in singing "More Love to Thee."

Devotional period was led by Mrs. Currier. After a short business session, a program of readings and recitations was enjoyed. At the social hour following, refreshments were served by a committee in charge of Mrs. M. E. Dodge, to twenty-nine members and guests.

THE LAURANCE ROCKEFELLERS, III

Mr. and Mrs. Laurance Spelman Rockefeller III are shown after their wedding at Woodstock, Vt., a high spot in the eastern social season. Mrs. Rockefeller is the former Mary French and her husband is the third of five sons of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. (Associated Press Photo)

Miss Prock Invites Several Friends to Dinner and Theater

Miss Alice Prock was hostess at a dinner party Thursday evening at the Medford hotel, after which the guests enjoyed the movie at the Craterian theatre.

Her guests were Miss Doreen Leverette, Miss Marjorie Mulholland, Miss Ruth Ottoman, Miss Suzette Stennett, and Miss Helen Dugan.

St. Mark's Guild Announces Party

St. Mark's Guild will have a card party Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. G. Mulholland on Berkeley Way. Contract and auction bridge will be in play, and ladies wishing to attend may call Mrs. C. W. Ellis at 820-L for reserving tables. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The committee in charge is Mrs. Glen Fabrick, Mrs. William Wagner, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Mulholland.

League Delegates To Give Reports

At the regular meeting of the Oregon League of Western Writers, scheduled for Saturday afternoon, September 2, the delegates to the national convention recently held in Portland, will give reports, it was announced yesterday.

Attending from the local club were Mrs. G. R. Satchwell, Mrs. A. R. Hedges and Miss Maude Pool.

Miss Hurd Visits Mother and Sister

Miss Ann Hurd, who has been Girl Reserve secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in Providence, R. I., for the past five years, is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. H. Hurd and her sister, Mrs. J. P. Medaris at their home on West Tenth street.

Enroute to Medford, Miss Hurd stopped at the Chicago Exposition, visited with her brother and family at Albuquerque, New Mexico and with friends in Hollywood, Palos Verdes, and San Francisco, Calif.

She will return to New England the early part of September and will take up her new duties as general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at Holyoke, Mass.

Mesdames Schuler, Vilas Hostesses to Honor Visitor Here

Mrs. I. E. Schuler and Mrs. Ned Vilas were hostesses on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vilas, mother, Mrs. F. K. Duval, at 1018 South Oakdale avenue, for the pleasure of Mrs. Estlin Drake of Norfolk, Va., who is a guest in the valley of her sisters, Mrs. B. L. Dodge of Medford and Mrs. William Thompson of Phoenix.

Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with sixteen guests present.

Reunion in Armory Event of Thursday Will Attract Many

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion at the armory, scheduled for Thursday, August 30, will open at 10 a. m., and continue through until 4:00 p. m., according to the announcement made yesterday.

A covered dish luncheon will be conducted at noon, and all persons attending are asked to bring their own table service.

At 1:30 p. m., a patriotic program is to be given, at which Commander Gates of Portland and Mr. Baker of Eugene will be guest speakers.

All patriotic organizations are invited to attend the program in the afternoon.

The D. R. C. and the Union D. A. V. will be hostesses for the day.

Rural Life Topic Missionary Group

The August social and program meeting of the Missionary society of the South Methodist church was held at the home of Mrs. Peters on Ross Lane last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Rice had charge of the program on the subject of "Life in the Rural South and Its Significance," in which the fact was brought out that most of the great leaders came from the rural districts, and inasmuch as the rural population of the South is forty-six per cent of the whole rural population of the nation it becomes a national consideration.

Rural communities not only give us leadership but are to be depended on to supply a citizenship strong and healthy in body for urban civilization, has yet to prove its ability to be self-perpetuating and self-sustaining.

After the program refreshments were served by Mrs. Peters assisted by Alberta Hubler.

Mrs. Kenney Has Guests Here

Mrs. T. J. Kenney has as her guests Mrs. A. J. Jennings and her son, Ralph, of Evanston, Ill., and her sister, Mrs. J. Vandever, of Bend. Mrs. Kenney is their aunt. Mrs. W. T. Kenner of Santa Barbara, Mrs. Kenney's daughter, is also a visitor here.

Wortman's Guests Leave for Home

Earl W. Richards, his son, Francis, and daughter, Mary, of Ashland, Neb., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Wortman of Phoenix, left Thursday for their home. They were accompanied by Mr. Wortman's nephew, Bob Pfeiffer, of Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Sollowsky Here For Few Days' Visit

Mrs. P. J. Sollowsky of Berkeley, Calif., is spending a few days in Medford visiting her son E. C. Sollowsky, and family, having arrived on yesterday morning's Shasta. Mrs. Sollowsky will continue north to Seattle before returning to Berkeley.

Mrs. Wahl Honored At Birthday Dinner

Foots Creek—Mrs. George West of Medford gave a surprise dinner in honor of her mother, Mrs. Pauline Wahl, on August 20, the occasion being Mrs. Wahl's 76th birthday. Those enjoying the affair were Mesdames Pickett, Alden, Butler, Masdam and West, all of Medford, and the honor guest, Mrs. Wahl.

Ficks Have Guests Visiting From Portland

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williams of Portland were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fick at their home on South Newtown street. The visitors were spending their vacation in southern Oregon and had been at the Oregon Caves for several days. They also made a trip to Crater Lake where they visited their niece, Miss Virginia Fick, who is postmistress at Crater Lake lodge this season.

Eighteen Invited to Neff's Lawn Party

Mr. and Mrs. Porter J. Neff invited friends to their home in the Highcroft addition on Friday evening for a lawn party. Eighteen guests were present for dinner, which was served on the large lawn at their residence.

Guests Invited For Five Tables Bridge Home Mrs. Brewer

Mrs. C. M. Brewer was a Friday afternoon hostess, inviting friends for luncheon and contract bridge at her home in Siskiyou Heights. Five tables were in play during the afternoon.

Pen Pushers Give Original Poems In Meeting Thursday

One of the most unusual meetings since its organization was that of the Pen Pushers' club, held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Atlanta Satchwell. Roll call was responded to with short poems of unusual metre and a discussion of the various forms of poetry. In the club contest, Mrs. Mary R. Graves held the highest number of points for the period since the last meeting. One of her poems was also published in the Post's Corner of the Portland Journal of August 12.

Miss Margaret Daley was a guest of the club and read a very clever poem in honor of Mrs. Satchwell. Mrs. Olive May Cook read a short story and also a poem for criticism. Mrs. Satchwell, Mrs. Hedges and Mrs. Anna Winterhaider all gave interesting accounts of the recent convention of the League of Western Writers, which they attended in Portland. An outline of study was discussed, and Mrs. Graves was appointed to secure data for the next meeting.

Shower Given For Local Bride-to-Be

Mrs. C. W. Silliman, the former Miss Edna Bottom, was hostess this past week at a shower, given in honor of her sister-in-law, Flora Ellen Silliman, whose marriage to John H. Smith of Jacksonville will be an event of early September.

Many lovely gifts were presented. Mrs. Silliman, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Present were Mrs. Simons and small son, Mrs. Nick Carter, Mrs. Russell Ross, Mrs. A. Cutchen and daughter Rosella, Mrs. E. D. Wetherell, Mrs. Ethel Thorneil, Mrs. Bottom, Mrs. Everett Skeeters, Mrs. Randal Cadwallader, Mrs. Jack McNeil, Mrs. Wm. Coffman, Mrs. Herbert Goff, Miss Ella Goff, Miss Faye Wetherell, Miss Pearl Jones, Miss Marcella Jones, Miss Margaret Geer, Mrs. E. C. Silliman, the honor guest and the hostess.

Lady Lions Meet This Week

Members of the Lady Lions club will meet with Mrs. W. A. Holloway at 323 Main street for 1 o'clock luncheon on Wednesday. Mrs. H. T. Hubbard will assist Mrs. Holloway.

Three Little Pigs

Toby Wing, film actress, exhibits three 25-pound piglets of silver worth a total of $600 at current prices. The silver once formed a thin coat on raw motion picture film. It was reclaimed by the studio laboratory by an electro-chemical process and disposed of through regular channels. (Associated Press Photo)

Miss Mulholland Entertains Misses On Friday Evening

In compliment to a number of young Medford misses, who will be leaving within a few weeks for various schools, colleges and universities, Miss Marjorie Mulholland entertained with a bridge party Friday evening, at the home of her parents on Berkeley Way.

Invited were Misses Barbara Jean Field, Justine Miller, Doreen Leverette, Alice Prock, Mary Jarvis Thompson, Carol Dodge, Cecil Humphrys, Barbara Hauk, Molly Brown, Ethel and Bethel Single, Doris Patton, Marjorie Pythian, Ruth Ottoman and Frances Arnsperger.

First prize was awarded Miss Hauk, traveling prize went to Miss Leverette and the consolation prize to Miss Humphrys.

Miss Dixon Returns From Vacation Trip

Miss Jane Dixon returned Friday from a vacation, spent with friends at Portland and Yakima. The trip included a visit to Rainier national park via the Yakima park entrance.

Fulfilling a childhood desire, J. Quilla Ward, a farmer of Douglas, Ga., recently completed a month's cruise down the Suwannee river on a raft made by his own hands.

The United States bureau of public roads estimates gasoline taxes in all the states amounted to $319,000,000 in 1933, not including the federal tax of one cent per gallon.

Mrs. McCaskey Is Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. S. E. Phillips was honor guest at a luncheon Wednesday at which Mrs. H. D. McCaskey was hostess at her home on the Central Point road. Present were Mrs. Mildred Schuhard, Mrs. H. H. Pringle, Mrs. Sid Richardson, Mrs. Charles W. Palm, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. McCaskey.

Dixie Club Meeting Postponed a Month

The next meeting of the Dixie club is to be held October 6 instead of September 1, as previously announced, according to notice issued yesterday.

Homecoming Planned By Church Organization

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church will conduct its August home-coming on Tuesday at two o'clock in the church parlors. The Priscilla circle will be hostesses and all women of the church are cordially invited.

PIANO INSTRUCTION

Mrs. E. E. Gore, 116 Geneva Ave. Phone 1236-W

ACCREDITED TEACHER

Children, High School Students, Adults—Class and individual instruction.

WANTED!

100 More Babies

Ages 5 months to 5 years, to enter the 4th Annual

Kennell - Ellis Studio

Most Attractive Child Contest

There is no cost in entering your child or more than one if in the age limit. . . Each entrant has an equal chance to win one of the lovely merchandise prizes offered by the following merchants . . .

Hubbard Implement Company
Al Piche Sporting Goods Store
Medford Furniture & Hdwe. Co.
Cupp's Furniture Store
Bowman's Beauty Shop
Kennell-Ellis Studio
Führer's Bakery
Rialto Theatre
Medford Pharmacy
Brophy's Jewelers
Snider's Dairy

Kennell - Ellis Studio

ARTIST PHOTOGRAPHERS

32 No. Central. Phone 329

LARRY SCHADE

The September Bride

or any other bride will be proud to wear the new "FLEURETTE" WEDDING RING ENSEMBLE

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918

Adrienne's

New Ultra Modern BEAUTY SHOP

On Second Floor

Opening Soon

We are installing the very latest famous "Fredrics" equipment to make Adrienne's one of the most attractive high class beauty shops in this part of the state. Alpha Hodgkins, who has had seven years experience in local beauty work, has accepted a position as manager of the new shop and she will be assisted by Rhea Hoover, another well known, efficient beautician. Fred Fry, who spent the past year completing a course in beauty culture in San Diego, will have charge of hair cutting at Adrienne's. Watch for opening date announcement.

For appointments in advance please Telephone 577

Do You Know That Lawrence's

Carry in Stock

23

of the most popular active patterns in Sterling Silver representing all the leading silver companies . . .

THAT THEY ALSO STOCK

Gorham
Alvin
Wallace
Holmes & Edwards
Community, in high grade plate.

That they carry the same high quality merchandise to be found in the best stores in large cities.

Lawrence's

Specializing in high grade silverware including both Gorham & Fowle.

Learning To Play the PIANO

Is the "Open Sesame" to Popularity for Your Boy or Girl

THROUGH the ability to play the piano, your boy or girl is quick to make good contacts and valuable friends. . . His musical accomplishments place him or her in a position to attain success—even leadership!

Free Piano Lessons

Classical or Popular—Your Own Choice of Instructor—with the purchase of a new piano for the balance of August.

Baldwin Piano Shoppe

123 W. Main. Lilla M. Purucker. Phone 335