

BLOODIER REVOLT IN AUSTRIA SEEN BY NAZI LEADER

By James A. Mills (Associated Press Staff) Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press) VIENNA, Aug. 25.—(AP)—A high Nazi leader tonight predicted "the next insurrection will be bloodier than the last" as Austria's Christian authoritarian government, determined to avenge the assassination of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss one month ago today, rallied its forces to stamp out all opposition.

STRIKE LEADERS OHIO UNION BELT TOLD TO GET OUT

McGUFFEY, O., Aug. 25.—(AP)—A shouting, cursing crowd of several hundred men, women and children paraded tonight past the home of Okey Odell, 38-year-old union strike leader, daring him to emerge. "Come on out, Odell," the marchers shouted as the bruised and battered Agricultural Workers' union head lay in an upper room, a pistol near his hand, recovering from a beating he received when he was abducted early today after the mayor's home had been bombed.

'FROG PRINCE' TO BE PRESENTED IN NAT WATER POOL

August 31 has been selected as the date for the water pageant to be presented at the Natatorium by the Life Saving corps. It was announced yesterday. The pageant is to be given at 7:30 p. m. on Friday, and will be free to the public. Demonstration of various types of swimming, formations and live-saving will be presented. "The Frog Prince" is the title of the pageant, which has a pool for the setting. The king and his court are attending a water carnival when the princess loses her bracelet.

AMERICAN WRITER EXILED BY NAZIS

BERLIN, Germany, Aug. 25.—(AP)—"A very pleasant young man in civilian clothes" yesterday delivered to Dorothy Thompson—Mrs. Sinclair Lewis—an "invitation to leave" Nazi Germany. Today the wife of the Nobel prize winner, herself widely known for magazine and other writings, was ready to go to Paris. The German government had expelled an American newspaper correspondent for "damaging Germany" in the world press for the first time since Adolf Hitler came into power, and tonight diplomatic and newspaper circles, a-buzz over the case, wondered whether it might be the prelude to wholesale expulsion of foreign correspondents.

TEXTILE UNIONS GIRD FOR STRIKE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Union mobilization for a general walkout in the cotton textile industry gained such momentum today that a crippling strike appeared almost inevitable. Mass meetings of union workers were held in affected areas. Posters proclaiming the strike order were sent to secretaries to be held under lock and key until the actual strike order is issued. Hope that the walkout of possibly 600,000 men might be averted by the national labor relations board waned when Francis J. Gorman, chairman of the union's strike committee, told newspaper men that "we are not thinking of that board in connection with the present crisis."

GOLDFISH BREAK VETERAN'S FALL

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 25.—(AP)—Goldfish had less than their usual quota of privacy when Fred Sankey of Redmond, Ore., demonstrated that nothing serious can happen to an American Legionnaire at a convention. About 4 o'clock this morning Sankey accidentally fell from the third story window of a hotel, crashed through a floral shop skylight 25 feet below and then fell another 15 feet to the floor of the establishment. The only cushion to break his fall was a group of shelves lined with goldfish in the floral shop. Police and his buddies at the state Legion convention by the door to find Sankey walking to the door to meet them. He escaped with a few minor bruises and not a scratch.

HYDE PARK HOME CALLS PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—(AP)—President Roosevelt left here at 11 p. m. E. S. T. by train for his home at Hyde Park, N. Y., where he plans to remain for several weeks. With the president were Marvin McIntyre, Manguey Lehand and Grace Tuley, secretaries, as well as their assistants and other helpers necessary to keep up with correspondence that will be forwarded to the summer White House. A small crowd braved a drizzle to applaud the executive as he boarded his car. Many farm families near Marysville, Kas., slept in hayracks during the heat wave, spreading mattresses and blankets for lack of hay.

FERA Confab Ends SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 25.—(AP)—FERA officials of western states closed their two-day conference here this afternoon and prepared to take plane for Washington, D. C. for a fourth conference. Rams In Demand SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Prospects for the sale of 1,500 rams in the nineteenth annual ram sale of the National Wool Growers' association here September 11 and 12 are good in spite of reactionary markets, it was declared today by P. R. Marshall, secretary of the association.

PENN FELONS ON RAMPAGE, COWED

COLLEGEVILLE, Pa., Aug. 25.—(AP)—State police and guards today crushed an outbreak at the Eastern state penitentiary at Graterford after 200 convicts had rioted for more than three hours. The prisoners started fires in cell blocks and outbuildings, destroying a barn and damaging several other shacks. Fifty state policemen, summoned from barracks in eastern Pennsylvania, armed with machine guns and rifles, subdued them at noon without firing a shot. None was seriously injured and none escaped.

VETERAN AUTOIST TO BE REWARDED

NYSSA, Ore., Aug. 25.—(AP)—How can you trade your old car for a new one without any outlay of money? Keep it 24 years, according to Chas Burns of Jordan Valley. Burns arrived in Nyssa recently in his 1914 model car complete with 37-inch tires and outside gearshift. He said he would take the relic to the Century of Progress exposition in the near future. The manufacturer, he continued, had promised to give him a brand new car of the same make in exchange for his machine. The car is an expensive make and has run more than 400,000 miles.

PRIEST EXPLORER TO DEFY KATMAI

SQUAW HARBOR, Alaska, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Father Bernard R. Hubbard, S. J., the "glacier priest," left here today, heading for the Katmai region on the Alaska peninsula, where he and his party of six plan to explore the lake at the bottom of "the deepest crater in the world." "We are going into the Katmai region with the intention of hitching a dog team to a canoe, dragging it to the top of Katmai volcano, and by ropes and spikes on the treacherous 3,700-foot cliffs inside this deepest crater in the world, lower the canoe and camp equipment to the bottom of the volcano filled by a lake with ice around its sides and steam in the middle," Father Hubbard said.

LIGHT FISH PACK FROM COLUMBIA

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 25.—(AP)—The Columbia river summer fishing season ended here today with a large salmon run still in the river—and a comparatively small amount of salmon in cans. The season opened with a brief fishermen's strike, and was interrupted by another one-day walkout nine days ago. Fishermen reported light catches all season until August 13, when heavy salmon runs entered the river. Preliminary estimates made here today indicated the season's pack was considerably smaller than in 1933.
